CITY AND COUNTY.

BORN.—July 19th, 1877, to the wife of Mathias Meller, a daughter.

LEFT.—Mr. Wade, the broom maker, with his family, started East on Thursday. Starved out by California competition.

THANKS.—We are under obligations to our friend, J. T. Witter, for a lot of the most delicious plums that ever tickled the palate of 7¢ print.

MOVING.—The Campbell Bros. are removing the east wing of the old school house, preparatory to the commencement of the new building.

PERSONAL.—Sam A. Clarke (of the Willamette Farmer) "the ONLY agricultural editor in the State," drove his "stacy" into our city during the week.

STREET LAMP.—There has been another street lamp put up on the southeast corner of 4th and Ninth streets, at the residence of T. G. Hendricks.

CREDIT.—Credit is due Mat. Hendricks and Robt. Bean for their perseverance in collecting money to pay the Cresswell Band for services on the Fourth.

NEW SHOP.—The building on the north side of Eighth street, east of the Court House, is being fitted up by Mr. Espey for a blacksmith and carriage shop.

WILTON TROUPE.—The Wilton Troupe gave two of their unrivaled performances here this week. We understand that they will return in a month or two.

PLEASURE TRIP.—Prof. Condon's family, W. H. Abrams, Robt. Bean and several others, started last Wednesday on a pleasure trip up the McKenzie.

SURVEYING PARTY.—H. C. Perkins, with a surveying party, will shortly start east of the mountains again, having secured another surveying contract in Lake county.

HARVESTER'S ATTENTION.—Machine extras, belts, lace leathers, sections, rivets, punches, oil cans, balis, scoops, measures, rope, forks, bolts, needles, etc., for sale cheap at the HARDWARE STORE.

HERE'S YOUR MARKET.—S. Steinheiser will pay the highest market price, in cash, for butter, eggs, and all kinds of country produce. Bring on your produce and quit growling about hard times.

MORE WITNESSES.—Four more witnesses, Dr. Bolon, Dr. Shelton, Frank Osburn and Frank Harrington, went down on the train yesterday to tell what they know about the Custom House plot, Styles.

BALDNESS.—We call attention to the ad. of Mr. H. A. Moore in another column. No excuse for anybody now to carry a bald head, when they can sport flowing and luxuriant locks, by using a bottle or two of Mrs. M.'s restorative.

REMOVED.—T. G. Hendricks has removed the building which stood on the corner in front of his dwelling, to the back of the lot, and is repairing it for rent. He intends building a residence on the ground it formerly occupied.

SICK.—A man named Druansmith who was sentenced to jail for the larceny of a watch at Junction, took an overdose of ether, for heart disease yesterday, and was very sick for some time, but it is supposed is now in a dangerous condition.

RUNAWAY.—Last Saturday Miller & McCornack's express team, which were hitched to an awning post in front of Henkle's barber shop, got frightened at a piece of paper which blew under their feet, broke loose and ran about a mile when they were caught. No damage done.

BACK AGAIN.—A party, among which was one of the proprietors of the GUARD, returned this week from Bethesda Springs. The boys enjoyed themselves hugely—killed one deer, caught two or three hundred trout, bathed to their heart's content, and are fully convinced that that is the place to go to crowd the greatest amount of pleasure into the shortest space of time.

CAUGHT.—The fellow, Wyman, who stole a valise from the St. Charles Hotel last week was arrested at Albany this week and is in jail there to answer some deprecation committed before he came here. He sold part of the contents of the valise, stolen here, at Junction, worth eighteen or twenty dollars, for one dollar and a half. That much of the property has been recovered.

CHIBBED.—A hound while under the influence of benzine or something else, Friday night of last week, went to the residence of Mr. Titus and raised a disturbance. He was gallanted down town by a couple of amateur policemen and delivered into the custody of Watchman Withrow, and next morning Recorder Fagan gave the choice between a few day's work on the street or to leave town. He got.

TALL WHEAT.—Uncle Jimmy Goodchild brought to this office this week some splendid specimens of wheat raised on the farm of Geo. Behlaw. There are eight varieties, the stalks average five feet in height and the heads over four inches in length. The heads are well filled and the grain remarkably large and plump. Accompanying the above there is a specimen of "wide" oats, the stalks of which are six feet and a half high, and the heads nineteen inches long. We learn that Mr. B. intends sending specimens, both in the sheaf and threshed, to the California Agricultural Exhibition.

THE ONLY agency in Eugene for Dr. WARBNER'S HEALTH CORSET, at the Banner, corner Willamette and Seventh Streets.

"GROSS."—The Journal accuses us of making a "gross" mistake in our statement that a boy was run over by a hack on the Fourth. Even had we been mistaken or misinformed, we see no necessity for using so bulky an adjective. The young man will next be shooting grasshoppers with a Gatling gun. But, we happened to see the occurrence, and saw the boy picked up after he was run over. Now, who's "gross"?

DIED.—At Portland, on the 9th inst., Hannah A. Perkins, aged 28 years, 4 months and 4 days. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. Jos. Perkins, one of the oldest residents of this county, and sister of our townman, Mr. H. C. Perkins. She had been with a sister in Portland for about two years, and had been confined to her room for several months with consumption. She was buried at East Portland, and was followed to the tomb by a large concourse of mourning friends who will ever remember her many virtues.

A SUGGESTION.—The "outraged community" (of one) at Junction, who packs swell to the Nucleus, has snarled at and misrepresented the "fast" young people of Eugene till the thing has become decidedly monotonous. Give us something new. For instance give us an essay upon the science of wife-beating, as a fine art, considered morally and socially; whether that community regard it as a perfectly legitimate and innocent pastime; whether those indulging in this harmless and exhilarating amusement are looked up to as something superior to the common herd, and any other little matters in this connection that will readily suggest themselves to his fertile imagination, and which practical experience fully qualifies him to discuss. When this critical buzzard complies with the above request, we will suggest some other problems for his elucidation—slight of hand cattle speculations, cunningly devised land transactions, or, in fact, almost anything or any subject would be interesting, after being touched by his versatile pen.

COAST NEWS.
A little child of Mr. Swartz, of Salem, was badly burned last Saturday while playing around a fire out door.

News reached here yesterday, says the Dallas Itemizer of the 14th inst., that Mr. John Johnson, residing near Lewisville, and who joined in Dallas winter before last, was found hanging by the neck in his barn yesterday morning about half-past six o'clock. He is thought to have been laboring under an attack of insanity—in fact his wife had been zealously watching him for several days. About six o'clock yesterday morning she called him, doubtless being suspicious of his movements, when he made reply in the barn. About half-past six she called him to breakfast, but received no answer. An Indian at work near the barn went into it, and about the same time Mrs. J. went in there and found Mr. Johnson hanging—dead. Corner Rubell went up yesterday afternoon. Mr. Johnson was an old and highly esteemed citizen of Polk county.

Thursday evening, July 12th, says the Plaindealer, Wm. Neal, an old man who resides about twelve miles north of Oakland, came to his death under the following circumstances: He started to Oakland the morning of that day with a load of shingles, attended to his business and started home. He had got as far as "Hardscrabble" hill, which he was descending at the time of the accident. He was pitched forward on the doubletree and tongue, which so frightened the animals that they began running and kicking. He was kicked in the head, breaking his skull in several places and mangling his body in a horrible manner. He was carried in this condition about a quarter of a mile before he was jolted loose. The team ran some distance further and was stopped by a neighbor, who went back to seek the lost driver, and found him lying in the road, dead. He leaves a large and well respected family and many friends to mourn his loss.

And so it appears that Wilson of Tillamook got money out of the school fund in advance of the mortgage to secure it. This little transaction, in violation of law, coupled with numerous other signs and movements, indicates how anxious Chadwick was that Grover should be elected Senator in order that himself might be Governor—Oregonian.

Notwithstanding the loud professions of the Oregonian of fairness and non-partisan bias in treating of matters pertaining to the investigation now in progress, it never lets an occasion slip to distort facts, as above. State Treasurer Brown's testimony, which is fully corroborated by Gov. Chadwick, knocks the wind out of the Oregonian's assertion that there was irregularity in the transaction. Mr. Brown testifies that the money advanced to Mr. Wilson was his own private funds, and that Mr. W. did not receive a cent of public money until the mortgage was given.
