CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEF MENTION.

See notice of the Board of Equalization in another column.

We are informed that the Coast Fork bridge will be completed by the first of next month.

Long Tom comes to the front again. This time with two heads of timothy on one stalk. Next!

There will be no services in the Presbyterian Church to-morrow (Sunday), nor the Sunday following. Sabbath school at the usual hour.

Gen. Howard's luck was not as good as Mrs. Potaphers—He didn't even capture Joseph's garment.

That man who has been walking back and forth through our hall for a day or two past calling "Simon! Simon!" will get "threwed out" if he don't let up.

Uncle Jimmy Goodchild trundled a wheelbarrow load of eggs into our sanctum on Wednesday. The wheelbarrow was full, the load consisting of just two eggs, one of which measured 7 1/2 by 6 1/2 inches while the other was about the size of a large pea.

BORN.—In this city, Saturday, August 4th, to the wife of Frank Welsh, a daughter.

CHANGE.—Mr. J. A. Winter has leased his photograph gallery to Mr. Abel, from California, and will soon remove to his sheep ranch in Linn county.

WHEAT.—S. H. Friendly, who has heretofore been one of the largest wheat buyers, is again in the market, and will pay the best prices in cash for any quantity of good merchantable wheat.

HI-REK-NI-GA.—This non-descript animal was in town this week. It is a cross between a Donnybrook fair and an Irish wake, and is an excruciating sloughed off from Bert's Dramatic Troupe.

RUST.—We learn that in some sections of the county late wheat has been greatly damaged by rust, and where a few weeks ago the prospect for over an average crop was good, the yield will be below the average.

HUGE.—Geo. B. Dorris, Esq., presented us yesterday with a lot of the la gest plums we ever saw. They were the peach plum, and will average 6 1/2 inches in circumference. If anybody can beat that, we are ready to be convinced.

BENEFIT.—A number of citizens have tendered the Wymans a benefit, which has been accepted, and they will give an entertainment at Lane's Hall next Thursday evening. It will be an enjoyable affair and everybody should attend.

ICY.—The most frigid case of impudence of the season is for the agent of a hat-penny show to present a printing office with a couple of two-bit tickets, and then get mad because the editor will not do five dollars worth of lying for him in the way of puffing his show.

PORTRAIT.—We received this week a portrait (steel engraving) of the Rev. D. R. McAnally, D. D., editor-in-chief of the St. Louis Christian Advocate. Dr. McAnally is a very able man, and the paper of which he is the head occupies the front rank among the religious journals of the country.

ARTIST.—Mr. Able, an artist from California, has rented the photograph gallery of Mr. J. A. Winter, and will continue the business. Mr. A. has the reputation of being a first-class artist, and his patrons are assured of getting pictures true to life, and finished in the most perfect and artistic manner, and at prices low enough to satisfy the most economical.

HURT.—A valuable horse belonging to Mr. A. V. Peters, on last Tuesday, caught his hind foot in a rope which was around his neck, and remained in that situation for a considerable length of time before he was discovered. His head was badly lacerated, the wounds was sewed up by Dr. Shelton, and it is thought will not result in any permanent injury.

HE'S HERE.—Marlborough, the Centennial Cream Soda man has come to town, and will be heard from on the street to-night. His cream soda is strictly a "temperance" drink manufactured without a fountain, and is decidedly the best thing out, and receives very flattering notice by our California exchanges. He will supply the saloons in town. He also has the boss soap for cleansing and shaving purposes, together with numerous other articles.

MARRIED.—In this county, at the residence of the bride's parents, on the 5th inst., by Rev. J. S. McCain, Mr. S. H. Christian and Miss Levisa Belknap. Compliments received, and with our hearty congratulation upon the auspicious commencement of the most momentous journey of life. We tender the happy groom and his fair bride our most sincere wishes that they may enjoy a long life of unbroken happiness and prosperity.

FIRE.—On Wednesday afternoon our citizens were startled by an alarm of fire. The fire was found to be at the residence of Dr. Patterson, in the eastern part of town, near the University. The fire caught the roof of the kitchen from the stove pipe. It was discovered by Mrs. Patterson, who, having several tubs of water at hand, had the courage and presence of mind to climb through a window and make such prompt and effective application of the water that the flames were extinguished before any one came to her assistance, and after about half the roof had been burned off The Hook and Ladder Company were promptly on hand, but owing to the distance to the scene of the fire, were unable to reach it until the danger had past.

Personal.

Maj. T. G. Hendricks and family start to San Francisco next week.

Col. Jo. Teal came up on Thursday, and will remain in town a few days.

Rev. J. S. McCain will start next week for Seattle, to attend the annual conference of the M. E. Church.

Dr. Ellsworth came home this week from east of the mountains, where he has been on a business and pleasure trip.

Mr. S. M. Titus, who has been confined to his room for several weeks with sickness, is again able to come down town.

Geo. B. Dorris, Esq., and family, returned on Wednesday from a visit of three or four weeks to Jacksonville.

Mr. H. C. Owens came up on Wednesday. He gives rather a discouraging account of prospects in California in consequence of the drought.

A GROVE MEETING.—At the request of many friends, T. M. Martin will deliver a liberal discourse on the third Sunday of this month, the 19th inst., at 11 o'clock A. M., in a grove on Rodney Scott's place, near the bridge over the McKenzie at Molawk. The motto is "Kindness toward all, and malice toward none." Everybody is invited to attend. The grove will be fitted up for the occasion, and its exact locality can be ascertained at the residence of James E. Elbert.

AGRICULTURIST.—The August number of the American Agriculturist, published by The Orange Judd Company, 243 Broadway, N. Y., has come to hand, and is an unusually interesting number of this valuable publication. This publication is invaluable to farmers, gardeners, pomologists, florists, and in fact, to everybody, each number containing a large amount of valuable information in regard to the farm, garden, orchard, etc. It is published monthly and each number is worth $1.50, the price of a year's subscription.

TRAMPS.—This class of pests have become quite numerous and troublesome through the country of late. We have heard of quite a number of instances, this week, of these fellows going into houses at night after the inmates had retired, and rummaging for plunder. Their raids have been confined, so far as we have heard, to hunting something to eat, but we presume that they would have no scruples about appropriating anything of value that comes in their way. Keep your doors and windows fastened, and your sash galls loaded.

IMPUDENT.—A tramp called at the residence of C. W. Fitch, Esq., one day this week and demanded something to eat, and upon Mrs. F. refusing his demand, indulged in the most obscene language. Mr. Fitch appeared and drove the fellow off. After Mr. F. had left the house the scoundrel returned and had to be driven away a second time, after which he went to the residence of Rev. Dr. Geary and repeated the performance, then left town before the police could catch him. The old-fashioned whipping post would be the most effective reformatory discipline to apply to such rascals.

RETUNAWAY.—On Thursday a team belonging to Mr. Hayden, started in the alley back of Humphrey's livery stable, and running two blocks, ran into James Huff's fence, breaking it down, and continuing on through a space about nine feet wide, between the porch and fence, and jumped the fence on the other side of the yard, where they were, with some difficulty, stopped. There were a number of children in the yard, but fortunately, happened to be on the opposite side of the house at the time. Mr. H. was in the wagon and was considerably hurt by falling with his side across the foot-board of the wagon.

THE WYMANS.—This troupe came up last Saturday, having advertised an entertainment that evening, but the attendance was so slim that the performance was postponed. They gave an entertainment at Springfield on Monday evening to a large and delighted audience. They will appear again at Springfield on next Tuesday evening, when, after the close of the entertainment, there will be a social dance. Persons wishing to go from this place can go, attend the entertainment and dance and return for one dollar. Although there are but two performers, they are inimitable in their peculiar role, and are well worth the patronage of the amusement-seeking public.

ENTERPRISE.—Mr. W. W. Espey returned this week from Portland where he has been looking after the interests of his business. We learn that he contracted with Frank Bros., of that city, to build a number of hacks and buggies for them, and will commence work on the contract next Monday. Mr. E. has moved his wood-working and paint shop to the building on the north side of Eighth street, east of the Court House, which gives him facilities for turning out a large amount of work. The excellence of his manufactures is being recognized abroad as well as at home, and he is now prepared to successfully compete, both in quality and price, with foreign manufacturers.

SPECIAL CAR.—A special car passed through this city Tuesday with Capt. J. D. Biles, of Portland, and Prof. Chandler, of Bethlehem, Penn. The object of the trip was to make a thorough examination of the coal prospects of this country, Prof. Chandler being an expert in coal mining. After examining the mine at Comstock's, the party stopped here and examined the prospects of the mine being opened by Knoebel about eight miles west of town, also the mine being opened by Eaton near Choverdale. We understand Prof. Chandler was much pleased with the prospect. He left here by special car Wednesday night, intending to examine the mine near Scio. We have great hopes that the mine being developed in this country will prove a success.

We sell S. H. Kennedy's Henlock Sheep Dip, the best and cheapest Dip known, and will send valuable book to sheep owners on application. J. MURKIN & CO. Portland, Oregon.

STARVED.—Last Wednesday morning Sam. Neville, stabled a man named DeLashmutt and a woman named Linda Ladd, in a house of ill fame in Portland. The man received several slight wounds in the breast, and the woman a wound five or six inches long and two inches deep in the left thigh. It seems that Neville went to the place drunk and commenced abusing the woman, when DeLashmutt interfered and was wounded.

NOTICE TO HOP MEN.—Your attention is called to my new furnace just completed for drying hops. Pronounced by all hop men who have examined it to be the best they have ever seen for the purpose. B. F. DORRIS. Eugene City, Aug. 3d, 1877.
