CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEF MENTION.

Circuit Court will meet one week from next Monday.

Joel Ware, County Clerk, took a trip to Portland this week.

J. M. Thompson, Esq., has been in Albany this week attending Court.

Mr. A. Nyltner, of the Standard, called on us this week. He has gone south to look after the interests of his paper.

The presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church is in session in this city, and will continue over to-morrow.

Charles Baker will take charge of the Astor House on the 1st of November. Mr. Du Bois, the present landlord, goes to Portland.

Mr. X. O. Duncan and wife and Mrs. J. B. Alexander started to San Francisco on the Cheater, which sailed Wednesday evening.

Creaching at the Court House next Sunday morning and evening by Rev. J. T. Wolfe. Morning subject, "The Lost Saved." Evening subject, "Mystery."

FAILED.—Jesse Shepard advertised a concert at Lane's Hall on Wednesday evening, but in consequence of the slim attendance, failed to perform.

OREGON STEAMSHIP COMPANY.—Passengers for San Francisco will save money and time by buying their through tickets at the railroad office at this station.

GREEN PEAS.—Uncle Jimmy Goodchild on Wednesday brought to the GUARD office a mess of green peas of the third crop this season. If anybody can beat that he will try them again.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—A substantial plank fence is being built around the public square, and when completed the square will be planted with shade trees, which will add greatly to the beauty of the town.

FUN.—Prof. Plummer, the elocutionist and delineator of character, will give one of his unique and inimitable entertainments at the Court House next Monday evening. If you have the blues and want to laugh them off go.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. F. Welsh, dentist, will be in Junction during next week, and all persons needing his services will do well to avail themselves of this opportunity, as he is thoroughly proficient in every branch of his profession.

OUTRAGE.—A fellow named Chas. Collins, about fifty years old, attempted to outrage the person of a little girl four years of age at Junction last Wednesday. He was arrested and bound over to appear and answer at the next term of the Circuit Court.

LAUREANS.—The Cuban annexation question was forever decided by the Laurens society at their meeting last evening. Mr. T. C. Jenkins being the leader of the side in favor of, and Mr. J. M. Nevill leader of the side against the annexation.

STUNG BY BEES.—Last Saturday Mr. H. C. Perkins' little boy, while out at play, stuck a switch into a bee hive, when the maddened insects swarmed out and commenced an attack upon him, stinging him badly. Mrs. Perkins hearing his screams ran to his assistance, when she was also attacked and severely stung about the head and face before she succeeded in rescuing the child.

SHARP.—Last Saturday while some of our nimrods were out goose hunting one of them became separated from the others. While anxiously watching for a shot, some one about a half a mile off shot at a flock of geese, and as they flew over our young hunter one fell; picking it up and seeing his comrades he exhibited it as a trophy of his own skill, but the joke leaked out and he don't brag now.

A GOOD RIDDANCE.—The Ship Alden Besse, says the Standard of Thursday, leaves to-day or to-morrow for China with a cargo of spars and lumber, and 600 Chinamen returning to their homes in the Celestial Empire. We sincerely hope they will remain there, and pray that this is only the first installment of thousands, which we would be glad to see rid our fair land of their pestiferous presence.

MARKET.—Wheat may be quoted at 1.06, very little selling. Shippers complain of holding large amounts and cannot get cars to get it off. The present condition of the hop market is very discouraging to growers, whose hopes were so high the early part of the season. The market is reported flat in all directions. Fall clip wool, 18c, butter 23, eggs 23. Lard and bacon commands a better price for home use than to ship.

MUSICAL.—Gardner Bros., who have a wholesale and retail music house in Oakland, Cal., and have established a branch store at Salem, this State, have sold over two hundred instruments in this State within the last four months. Mr. E. A. Baird, their efficient agent, is established here and will have a sample of their fine pianos and organs at Mrs. Riley's dress making shop on Willamette street. See their ad. in another column.

INFORMATION WANTED.—The Mercury says: Mr. Jonathan Riggs, of Polk county, is desirous of obtaining information concerning the whereabouts of his daughter, Mrs. Sophia Dixon, who started for Oregon about the 15th of last April, from Clarksville, Jackson county, Arkansas, in company with Rev. Jesse Marshall and others. The party started overland with teams, since when nothing has been heard from them. Mr. Riggs is very anxious to learn the whereabouts of his daughter, and with a view to the desired information, other papers are requested to copy this notice.

She had nine children, four of whom are still living. Mrs. H. was for a number of years a consistent and faithful member of the Christian Church. Missouri and Georgia papers please copy.

At his residence, in New Haven, Mo., Aug. 30, 1877, Mr. Amos Mappin, Sr., aged 69 years, 3 months and 6 days.

In this city, on the 26th inst., Mrs. Maria L. wife of Robert Lane, aged 27 years. The funeral will take place from Lane's Hall to-day at one o'clock. Portland papers please notice.

EUTAXIANS.—The Eutaxians Society extended an invitation, which was accepted, to the Laurens, to be present at their meeting yesterday afternoon. The exercises consisted of such as are usually conducted in literary societies, and the participants acquitted themselves in a manner that would have reflected great credit upon even many of the sterner sex who make pretensions to public speaking. The society is composed exclusively of ladies and number about forty in membership.

UNIVERSITY.—The University building having been completed and accepted by the Board of Regents, the school furniture will be moved up stairs to-day and on next Monday morning school in the College proper will open out in permanent and much more commodious quarters on the second floor. The preparatory department will remain in the same rooms they have been occupying heretofore. The rooms on the second floor will be occupied as follows: President Johnson will occupy the one in the northeast corner, Prof. Daily the one in the southeast corner and Prof. Condon the one in the northwest, the remaining rooms will be used as a study room for the ladies while at the University. We have now a University building, as well as school, second to none in the State, and a corps of Professors that are a guarantee to its complete success in the future.

BALLOON'S MAGAZINE FOR NOVEMBER.—The November number of Balloon's Magazine is a marvel of beauty and interest. The first article is an illustrated subject on Chinese Life and Character, by the authors of "The Gold Hunters," and then follows some ten or fifteen stories of great interest, and several pieces of poetry of much merit. The "Child of the Wilderness" is continued, and increases in interest as it approaches completion. The humorous department, prepared by M. Quesel, the great wit and genius of Michigan, is unusually brilliant and attractive, and will be read with interest by all lovers of the good things of this country. This Magazine is one of the best and cheapest publications of the kind in the country, and it is only 15 cents a single copy, or $1.50 per year, post-paid. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley Street, Boston, and for sale at all the periodical depots in the country.

HAPPY.—We met the happiest looking man on the street one day this week that we've seen for a long time—he smiled all over—he had just been to Abell & Welsh's gallery and got his girl's picture. They will remain here a little longer, and if you want supreme happiness to abide with you, go and do like this happy fellow.

FUR SALE.—I have a large lot of English current bushes—red, white and black—also a full stock of grape vines of the very best varieties, for sale cheap. J. GOODCHILD.

A CARD.
Common sense reasoning has led me to believe that the religion that the Bible teaches has sprung from priest-craft, king-craft, and fables, but when reason raises her voice and says to me that the religion of the Bible is one of the greatest fictions of the age, I then denounce any reality in it, and I have great confidence in those honest people who have been long shut under that misty cloud that has long intervened between mind and reason, and when the mind takes hold of reason that cloud will burst asunder, and then they will explain their reason.

Adam and Eve is the parents of us all, but the Bible has led me not to believe it at all. The prayer for the sick avails much, but the Bible has led me not to believe such. The prayers of faith will save the sick. The Bible has led me not to believe in old Nick.

To be continued if any long face can find space.
D. Blanton.

An Open Letter to the Eugene City Baptist Church.

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS:—Upon a careful examination of my present theological views, I find that they differ very materially from the doctrines of your church. From a sincere conviction of duty, I can no longer remain a member of your body. By this communication, therefore, the church relationship that has existed between us, is brought to an end. I desire, in conclusion, that the world shall know that this step is taken from no principle of malice, but entirely on account of the difference of our religious views. N. L. STRANGE, EUGENE CITY, October 22, 1877.

A Severe Hail Storm.
A terrible hail storm visited Portland a few days ago, destroying and destroying many fine buildings, breaking over 1,000 window lights, raising a very large locomotive off the track, knocking down and seriously injuring many pedestrians who were carried into different drug stores for treatment; the hail stones picked up were the size of hens' eggs. Saloon keepers gathered up enough for a hat in ten minutes. A reporter was dispatched in hot haste after the storm was over and met by a large delegation of citizens who stated that a large lot of Donnelly's Yeast Powder had been received that day, and it was thought the air had become impregnated, raising the wind to such a fury, causing a large cloud that was hanging over the city at the time to burst wide open. Hence the storm. The reporter left saying, "I have heard that Donnelly's Yeast Powder would raise his lids of a red-hot stove, but would not believe it would raise such a commotion as this."—WALLA WALLA Statesman.
