

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.

EUGENE CITY, OREGON. SATURDAY, JAN. 5, 1878. BUSINESS.—Matters of a personal character charged for at regular advertising rates, to be paid invariably in advance.

NEW YORK FRANTIC!

Recent developments in the Eastern States and particularly in New York, show to all reasoning and reasonable creatures how much men resemble the magnetic needle; how much they are subject to mineral attractions and how liable they are to be influenced by local causes and to deviate from a correct line on that account.

The New York World, which would fain have us believe that it is the only Democratic paper, falls on its face and worships the "golden calf" with all the enthusiasm of an apostate Hebrew in the shadow of Sinai.

While we are told that it is the poor man's friend in one breath, in the next it appeals to Congress and the aristocracy to save the credit of the country from the people, or, in other words, it would suppress the voice of the people and hold the spirit of Democracy subject to the will of Wall street and the bondholders of the East and of Europe.

Hayes has "National credit" on the brain and in his zeal to serve that credit he overlooks the bounds of common sense and the experience of ages, that have recognized silver as money and always in demand.

He calls the demand of the people for silver money "suppressed repudiation" and declares that "any Congress which votes that silver is equal to gold, votes to teach men a lie and to cheat by law."

all influenced by the proximity of metals. Beecher's savings may be in "bonds payable in lawful coin" hence he wants that coin gold and only gold.

De facto Hayes may have a few thousands of dollars invested in bonds, and "If self the wavering balance shake, It's rarely right adjusted."

Those large papers of Worldwide reputation are paid to pipe for those who dance upon the prostrate bodies of the poor and revel in the midst of spoils taken from the hands of labor and the treasury of our common country.

The just judge may be influenced by the gold of a wealthy criminal; a member of Congress may wander from the path of duty to listen to the sweet music of jingling gold, and so the whole stream of legislation may be diverted by a bribe or a gift, the scales of justice may be balanced with a coin, and the object of our worship may be a golden calf instead of the glory of God.

WHAT PRODUCED THE TRAMP.—The tramp is an evil that has "come to stay," says a Radical newspaper, and we must shape our legislation accordingly. In other words, a great, chronic malady has been fastened upon the country, which may possibly be mitigated by severe restrictive measures, but never eradicated.

The Philadelphia Chronicle publishes these paragraphs: The Sheriff of Schuylkill county has a circus for sale. The Republican party ought to buy it and appoint Roscoe Conkling clown.—Senator Davis says being an independent has its drawbacks as well as pleasures.

No other medicine in the world was ever given such a test of its curative qualities as Beecher's German Syrup. In three years two million four hundred thousand small bottles of this medicine were distributed free of charge by Druggists in this country to those afflicted with Consumption, Asthma, Croup, severe Coughs, Pneumonia and other diseases of the Throat and Lungs, giving the American people undeniable proof that German Syrup will cure them.

It is a little singular that our wisest and best men did not discover till A. D., 1873, that silver is unfit for money. The experience of ages is the logic which convinces ordinary men that silver will bear to be issued and circulated as a legal tender, all the oratory of bondholders, money changers and their tools to the contrary, notwithstanding.

With 300,000,000 of greenbacks in circulation as legal tenders, it is not easy to prove that 300,000,000 of silver dollars would not be as acceptable to the common people as those "promises to pay;" but for money-brokers, bears and bulls, perhaps the greenbacks would be preferable, as they have no real value and will bear shaving better than hard silver coin.

Too Thin.—The Statesman, speaking of a grand temperance jubilee at Portland last Saturday evening says: Mrs. A. J. Dunaway and W. B. Higby addressed the meeting at some length.

Reformed Higby! Forgiving Higby! Righteous Higby! Notwithstanding this balderdash, we don't believe there are a hundred men in Oregon but believe that Higby procured perjured witnesses against Senator Grover, and that he would do the same thing again if the King required it.

Among the dead failures Of the past, how many bogus nostrums may be numbered! Beginning their careers with a tremendous flourish of trumpets, blazoned for a time in the public prints and on flaming posters, soon, but not too soon, were they relegated to the limbo of things left on earth.

The fact that a gold gambler's and bondholders' Congress rendered such a thing possible, has taught the people "a valuable lesson." The people—workmen who pay all the taxes—demand that their money should be made by law, worth as much as that of the gold sharks, and not be placed upon a par with a dozen cabbages or a load of pumpkins.

SUP LOST.—Friday afternoon, says the Statesman of the 3d, the ships Nimbus, Pilgrim and Aberystwith Castle, were taken over the Columbia river bar in a fine, a tug being hitched to each. All three ships thumped as they crossed, and the heavy blows received by the Nimbus strained her badly.

German Syrup. No other medicine in the world was ever given such a test of its curative qualities as Beecher's German Syrup. In three years two million four hundred thousand small bottles of this medicine were distributed free of charge by Druggists in this country to those afflicted with Consumption, Asthma, Croup, severe Coughs, Pneumonia and other diseases of the Throat and Lungs, giving the American people undeniable proof that German Syrup will cure them.

The editor of the Walla Walla Statesman presented his subscribers with a neat calendar last week. The Statesman is prospering, and our old friend Newell is making it decidedly the best paper in the Territory.

How is THAT FOR HIM?—Said a country school mistress to her pupils as she was unrolling her lunch one day. "These biscuits were raised by the help of Donnelly's yeast powder." "Oh!" shouted a bright little boy, "they are way up."

Nothing Short.—Of unmistakable benefits conferred upon tens of thousands of sufferers could originate and maintain the reputation which AYER'S SARSAPARILLA enjoys. It is a compound of the best vegetable alteratives, with the iodides of Potassium and Iron, and is the most effectual of all remedies for scrofulous, mercurial, or blood disorders.
