Has this money power no loresight? asks the Atlanta Constitution. Has it no power of divination? Can it not preceive what is so plainly written upon the face of events? Does it not know that the people, who have so frequently been the victims of surreptitious and dishonest legislation. have about reached that point when it will not do for their servants to receive their protest with inattention? It may be that the money power will succeed in its plan of contraction so far as to defeat the remonetization of silver; it may be that, in the attempt to add to their ill-gotten gain, they will succeed in forcing further prostration of business, and further oppression of the poor; but when they have succeeded, what then? Crawling from ments, broke down and swept away the common ruin, they will find Re- all the barriers of protection between pudiation written upon every ballot the white laboring men of the coun-We warn them now.

The Walla Walla Statesman says when clergymen are banging their pulpits in the interest of the "bloated bondholders," they should remember that the contract between the government and the bond-holders, is printed on the back of every greenback bill, and reads thus:

Why dot not the following of Pierce and Buchaman, when the seed of cooley labor was labil in America, under the festering care of two Dem-owratic Presidents? It was only left for Reput-lients to hatch the Democrat egg.-Labor World.

Under Democratic administration the States were permitted to and did tion of their citizens against the encroachment of ceoley, labor or any other domestic evil. But when the Republican party succeeded to power, they adopted the beastly dogmas of the old Abolition lunatics, and proelaimed the "universal and absolute equality of man," and by trandulent constitutional amendments and infamous treaties and legislative enacttry and the swarmse of coolies by which we have since been cursed.

And let workingmen remember that the men who head the "labor" faction, represented by the World, have been, all these years, the most fanatical and clamorous advocates of this "universal brotherhood" dogma, and worked with all the zeal and ability they pos-

This is how an Indiana paper, the the poor man's silver, wheat, wool, Lafayette Journal, states the greenpork and other products of labor go back question: "When the soldier was down, down to starvation rates. It has only become dishonest and the repudiator's currency when it is proposed to pay the bondholder with it. It is a fine arrangement that the nation's conscience is in the keep ing of men who have nothing to do but to cut coupons twice a year, for which they received money worth exercise their constitutional peroga- twenty to twenty-five per cent more tive of enacting laws for the protee. than that which they gave for them."

> It is very plain to the commonest observer, who looks over the Eastern papers, that the gold ring of New York and other Eastern cities are laying plans to have future nominces for President selected from persons east of the Alleghaneys. Bayard is petted and puffed by the gold organs; Eston is complimented and Gen. Mc-Clellen is almost nominated. The South is asked to join the Northeast in its schemes of financial oppression and President making, but Gen. Mc Clellen, Gen. Hancock, Senator Bayard and Senator Eaton as well as Mr. Tilden are too far from the Mississippi to ever be Presidents, no odds whether they be nominated or not. Forming alliances with the money power is not the best way to become President just now.
