

"De Code, Sah."—It will be remembered that some days ago a long, hungry-looking son of Ham by the name of Lige Pyle, was arrested for shooting off his pistol inside the city limits. Since then, it has developed that he and another colored individual, Sam Houston, became involved in a quarrel regarding a certain dusky dame, and concluded to settle the affair according to the rules "ob de code, sah." Each was the possessor of an old revolver, and stepping out in the yard, in the rear of the Commercial Hotel, then measured off ten paces and stood for a few moments facing each other. Then Lige said: "Is you prepared, sah, for de wust?" "I am, most assuredly, sah," replied Sam.

"One two, three, fire!" says Lige, and both pistols cracked simultaneously. Nobody was hurt, and a couple more shots were exchanged, this time without ceremony, and with the same result as the first. By this time both were getting badly frightened, as the bullets sang closer by their heads than was healthy, and the signed a treaty of peace. A few minutes thereafter Lige was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Lupton, and landed in the cooler, from which he managed to escape by sawing off a staple to his cell door, half an inch thick, with an old knife, which he procured in some unknown manner.—Ex.

THE POOR.—Moore was sitting in his office one afternoon, some years ago, when a farmer friend came in and said: "Mr. Moore, I like your paper, but times are so hard that I can't pay for it."

"Is that so, friend Jones? I am very sorry to hear that you are so poor; if you are so hard run I will give you my paper."

"Oh no! I can't take it as a gift."

"Well, then, let's see how we can fix it. You raise chickens, I believe."

"Yes, a few, but they don't bring anything hardly."

"Don't they? Neither does my paper cost anything hardly. Now I have a proposition to make to you. I will continue your paper, and when you go home you may select from the lot one chicken and call her mine. Take good care of her and bring me the proceeds whether in eggs or chickens, and we will call it square."

"All right, Brother Moore," and the poor fellow chuckled at what he thought a capital bargain. He kept the contract strictly, and at the end of the year found that he had paid four prices for his paper. He often tells the joke himself and says he never had the face to say that he was too poor to take a paper from that day.—Ex.

The Utica Republican, Conkling organ, says: It lies with President Hayes to end the trouble, give peace to the country and prevent further injury to business interests. Let him recognize Packard as the legal Governor of Louisiana, and refuse to have anything to do with the Nicholls usurpation. Let him do the same thing in South Carolina. Let him throw the protecting arm of the United States around the Returning Boards.

A little boy who went to church was told to remember the text, which was: "Why stand ye here all the day idle? Go into my vineyard and work, and whatsoever is right I will pay thee." "I came home and was asked to repeat the text. He thought over it awhile, and then cried out: "What do you stand round here doing nuffin' for? Go into my larnyard and work, and I'll make it all right with you."

The members of the recent grand jury at Hempstead "know how it is themselves." They indicted a lot of gamblers, when the latter, to get even before the county attorney and fled information against about one-half of the jury, charging them with gambling. They also brought similar charges against the county attorney himself. And the sympathy is all with the gamblers.

The Springfield Republican says: Three ex-rebel soldiers have got into the army, contrary to the peace and dignity of the United States. Two of them are surgeons appointed under Grant, and one Lieutenant appointed by Hayes. Some more of Tilden's work, of course.

Miss Esther Alice Merkleham, Jefferson's great-granddaughter, holds a $1,000 clerkship in the copying division of the Interior Department. She unites the blood of the Jeffersons and Randolphs in her veins, is an occasional writer for the papers, and the author of a popular little Sunday-school book, "Lost Pearls."

It is a singular fact, remarks the Harrisburg Patriot, that the loudest howlers for protection to American industry are found among the men who cheat labor of its honest reward through store and other devices to avoid cash payments.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Let the suffering diseased read the following. Let all who have been given up by doctors, and spoken of incurable, read the following. Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence read the following.

Know all men by these presents, that on the 20th day of June, A. D. 1866, personally came Joseph Haycock, to me known as such, and being duly sworn deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States and dependencies thereof for preparation or medicines known as Dr. Holloway's Pills and ointment, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies of the best of his knowledge and belief. JAMES SMITRE, Notary Public.

14 Wall Street, New York.

DR. HOLLOWAY.—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your pills. Oh, Doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss. JAMES MYERS, 216 Avenue D, New York, April 7, 1866.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with chronic diarrhoea, and have been cured by Dr. Holloway's Pills. WILSON HARVEY, New York, April 7, 1866.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an iron foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was dreadfully burned. The following certificate was given to me by him about a week after the accident:

New York, Jan. 11, 1875. My name is Jacob Hardy; I am iron founder, I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal. I tried Holloway's Ointment and it cured my leg in a few weeks. This will truly and honestly certify me at Jackson's Iron Works, 21 Avenue.

J. HARDY, 119 Greenwich Street, New York.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS. "I have no appetite; Holloway's Pills gave me a good one."

"Your Pills are marvelous." "I send for another box and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Holloway cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured." "I send you a box of Holloway's Ointment cured me of pains in the head. I rubbed some of your Ointment behind the ears and the noise has left."

"Send me two boxes, I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar, your price is 50 cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your Pills." "Let me have five boxes of your Pills by return mail, for Chills and Fever."

I have over 20 such testimonials, but an of space compels me to conclude.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDER. And all eruptions of the skin; this Ointment is invaluable. It does not heat externally, it penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS. Invariably cure the following Diseases.

DISORDERS OF THE KIDNEYS. In all diseases affecting these organs, whether they secrete too much or too little water; with which are often attended the inflammation of the kidneys, these Pills should be taken according to the printed directions, and the patient should abstain from the use of salt and spicy food. Its treatment will give almost instantaneous relief when all other means have failed.

FOR STOMACHS OUT OF ORDER. No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these Pills; they remove all acidity, and either by intemperance or indigestion, they reach the liver and restore it to a healthy action; they are wonderfully efficacious in cases of the liver and stomach.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases: Ague, Asthma, Bilious Complaints, Blisters on the skin, Bowel Complaints, Colic, Constipation of the Bowels, Consumption, Debility, Dropsy, Dysentery, Erysipelas, Female Irregularities, Fever of all kinds, Fits, Headache, Indigestion, Inflammation, Jaundice, Liver Complaints, Lumbago, Piles, Rheumatism, Retention of Urine, Scalds or King's Evil, Sore Throat, Strains, Ulcers, Venereal Affections, Worms of all kinds, Weakness from any cause, &c.
