CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEF MENTION.

Our young friend, Ed. Espey has made an artistic job of lettering in Boyd & Miller's market.

Mr. W. Durant in a few days will open a new market on Ninth street adjoining the Despain livery stable.

Mr. Boyd, has bought the undivided half of the property on Ninth Street formerly belonging to the heirs of Enoch Smith.

Eld. C. W. Rees will preach at the Baptist Church to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. Subject, "Great results from small causes."

Boyd & Miller, of the Central Market had their market over-hauled this week, and it is now one of the neatest establishments in town.

Pennington, the irrepressible, has furnished his meat market up as neat as a parlor and says he is determined not to be outdone by anybody.

Still the sound of the hammer is heard and the mark of the painter's brush seen on every hand as one perambulates Willamette street. Surely our business men are showing a spirit truly commendable.

Underwood Bros. at Express office have the only entirely FIRE & BURGLAR proof safe in the city. They will receive money, valuables and valuable papers or special deposits at reasonable rates.

B. G. Callison has received the most complete stock of Glass and Queens ware ever brought to Eugene. Call and see it as he is selling very low.

A new song entitled Falling, by S. C. Mason, has just been sent us by Messrs. Sherman, Hyde & Co. It is a beautiful thing and will no doubt become immensely popular. The price is marked 35 cents.

Are we going to have a street sprinkler this year? Already the dust "lawson" occasionally down our streets, certainly our extrajuring business men will not allow Eugene to be the only city in the State that can't afford to have its street sprinkled during the dry season.

HEAVY.—John Lenger presented us yesterday with two Cochise eggs which measure six inches each.

BACK.—Our old friend, S. Rosenblatt, after an absence of several years returned last week and will again open a tobacco and cigar stand in this city. He has concluded that Eugene is good enough.

FOUND.—A silver sleeve button was picked up on the street and left at this office one day this week. The owner can have the same by describing and paying for this notice.

A NEW DEPARTURE.—The finest lot of wagons we ever saw is a car load just received by Robinson & Church direct from factory. Built specially to their order and warranted the best made.

TOOTHACHE.—Mr. W. H. Abrams returned from a visit to his old home in Michigan this week. He presented the GUARD office with a cake of delicious maple sugar. Thanks.

HOPS.—Mr. Rodney Scott has been hauling his last year's crop of hops to the depot this week. He has sixty bales yet on hand and intends shipping them to New York for a market.

LIGHT.—Sam Friendly is putting on city air. He has hung the finest chandelier (four lamps) in the city up in the front part of his store room. His stock will bear the light.

NEW SIGN.—Mr. A. Hunt has hung out a new sign over his boot and shoe store. Hunt has a splendid stock of everything in his line and is determined to let the people know where they can get the cheapest and best.

INSANE.—A young man named Joseph Norris, formerly a resident of this city but more recently of Siuslaw, was brought to town on Tuesday and on examination by physicians was pronounced insane. Sheriff Eakin took him to the asylum Wednesday.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. Lon Clever has fitted up a splendid suit of dental rooms over the Grand Store. With Dr. Bolon on one side of the hall Dr. Clever, on the opposite side, persons requiring their professional services can certainly be suited. You pay your money and take your choice.

Mill Creek Items

"Sanoma" writing from the above named place under date of April 29th, sends us the following items:

The contract for raising the bridge to test the Mountain Queen bridge was awarded to Rev. J. S. Jordan, he being the lowest bidder. During the first week some advance on the tunnel five feet, the rock being very hard to blast. Mr. J. intends to raise the work as fast as possible to an early completion. He is being assisted by Mr. Moon.

Fair weather for the past few days has given the farmers a chance to do their seeding. A greater acreage has been sown than usual.

The social party and dance given at the residence of Gen. E. L. Applegate on the evening of the 18th inst. was well attended, and all who participated enjoyed themselves in an agreeable manner, the same being furnished by Messrs. Hardesty and Selfridge.

One of our most influential citizens went to Eugene to attend court as a jurymen, courted, won his case, and returned to him a happier man. We all tender to him and bid our sincere wishes for their future happiness. May they again go and do likewise.

I will write you again soon as the business is opened and work commenced on this end of the railroad line.

It is even now hinted that we may have a narrow gauge railroad to export our silver bullion and accommodate the traveling public in general intersect the Winnemucca railroad at Springfield, or the S. B. E. R. at Brownville.

Turn-coat Senator

We are not surprised, says the Mercury, at anything which Senator Mitchell may do for the advancement of his own personal aims and ambition, but his latest feat is the way of political tumbling is a little more than we were prepared to expect. After opposing the Northern Pacific bill in every conceivable manner and after being beaten by the Railroad Committee, of which he is Chairman, so far as his favorite scheme for advancing the interests of his employers, the Union and Central Pacific railroads, are concerned, and after having delayed for many months any action on the bill for the extension of time to the Northern Pacific road, he now makes a grand somersault and attempts to reinstate himself in the good will of the people whom he has labored so hard to injure by telegraphing to them the fact that the Northern Pacific bill has passed the Senate and the falsehood that he "regards it as a measure of great importance to Oregon and the whole Pacific Coast." Why did he not discover that this was a measure of great importance before it passed the Senate? His versatility in such matters is too well known, and the incentive to this sudden change is too apparent to need any explanation. Finding that he will not pass the Senate in spite of him, and that his employers are likely to have little use for his questionable services after such a defeat as he has received he has wisely concluded to accept the inevitable and claims that which he so persistently but unsuccessfully opposed as his work. He must have great faith in the ignorance or credulity of the people of Oregon to believe that he can gull them by any such trickery. Of course he is sincere in this espousal of the Northern Pacific bill! The passage of this bill was just what he wanted, "because it was a measure of great importance to Oregon, and the whole North Pacific Coast," but it is a little singular that he did not see its great importance before. We admire his candor in making this admission but have not too much confidence in his sincerity. If anything were wanting to show that this tool of Jay Gould & Co. in playing his cards for re-election to the position which he has disgraced, this inconsistent conduct makes good the deficiency. He expects a re-election, and sends these telegrams to his betrayed constituency, claiming for himself the credit of the passage of the Northern Pacific bill in the Senate. But his trick is too transparent, and the people of Oregon will not be deceived by it, and will see that no Mitchell men are sent to the Legislature. He has done more for his own defeat by this shallow device than his worst enemies could have accomplished had it possessed sense enough to have kept his duplicity at least concealed. His political sagacity has heretofore been very much overestimated, or his ambition must have deprived him of some portion of it. We don't object to his turning his coat as often as he pleases, but we do protest against his doing it so publicly. It detracts from the effect when on sees how the trick is done.

JOHN MORRISSEY DEAD.—Saratoga, May 1.—John Morrissey, ex-congressman and state senator from New York, died at half past 7 this evening. He had seemed quiet and without any unfavorable symptoms until after the New work papers were brought in, when he motioned for his glass to read one. About half past 5 an untoward change took place and he sank rapidly afterward. Father McMemory, Catholic priest, was sent for, who promptly came and administered the extreme unction. Although Mr. Morrissey was rapidly failing he seemed calm until the last. His wife and domestics were present. Mr. Morrissey died clasping the hand of the priest. Morrissey's business partners are here, but nothing is known by them regarding how he left his business.

Mr. Paul D. Heiry, editor of the Linn Co. Leader called upon us yesterday. He reports the Democracy of Linn wide awake, and assures us that old Linn will be true to her former record the first Monday in June.

OUTRAGE.—A few evening ago five or six young scoundrels, led by one James E. Hervey, broke into the house of a widow lady named Coyle, who lives a short distance above Monroe, Benton county, and after tying the woman, each committed a horrible outrage upon her. Hervey, the leader is described as follows: A small man about 5 feet 6 inches high; weighs about 140 pounds, coarse, sharp features, large mouth, small, light moustache, blue eyes, light hair, cut short. Mrs. Coyle offers a reward of $250 for his arrest and delivery to the authorities of Benton county.

BASE BALL.—General Mart V. Brown received a dispatch last evening, from Albany saying "City in mourning, bells tolling, flags at half mast." Bully for Eugene Boys.

ACCIDENT.—Just after we commenced working off our edition this morning our press broke down and in consequence we were unable to get our northern mail in on time.

O. & C. R. R. TIME TABLE.—Train south carrying freight and passengers, 2:02 P. M. Train going north, carrying freight and passengers, 9:41 A. M. L. G. ADAIR.

A RELIABLE PIANO TUNER.—Mr. Paul Schoen will be in Eugene in a few days and will attend to repairing and tuning Pianos or Organs. Leave orders at Crain Bros, or A. W. Stowell.

STRAYED.—A small sorrel mare, with white fore legs, supposed to be about five years old. Any information as to her whereabouts will be rewarded.

J. A. WINTER, Eugene.

IN THE WHOLE HISTORY OF MEDICINE, no preparation has ever performed such marvelous cures, or maintained so wide a reputation, as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Its long-continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against ordinary colds, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering, and often saving life. The protection it affords, by its timely use in the throat and lung disorders of children, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it never will. From their knowledge of its composition and effects, Physicians use the AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL extensively in their practice, and Clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its remedial effects, and will always cure where cures are possible. For sale by all dealers.

READ AND LEARN FOR YOURSELF.—Many valuable discoveries and much useful knowledge is kept from the world, because of the immense expense in making them known to the people. This is not the case with Boschee's German Syrup, although but a few years introduced into this country its sale now reaches in every town and village in the U. S. Its wonderful success in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Pneumonia, Asthma, and all other diseases of the throat and lungs, was first made known by distributing every year, for three years, over 400,000 bottles to the afflicted, free of charge, by Druggists. No such test of merit was given before to any other preparation. Could you ask more? Go to your Druggist and get a bottle for 75 cents and try it. Sample bottles 10 cents.

Ladies' Attention.—Berlin Fashion Patterns at Dunn & Stratton's.

We have just received from the Eastern factory, direct, a large stock of window shades and wall paper; among the latter are many very pretty styles embracing Grained Panels, Embossed, Gilt and Lace Patterns, Satin and Common Blanks, all of which we sell cheap, and no charge for trimming paper.

The National Gold Medal was awarded to Bradley & Rulofson for the best Photographs in the United States, and the Vienna Medal for the best in the world. 429 Montgomery Street, San Francisco.

TALK.—All persons indebted to Poindexter & Rush for blacksmithing are hereby notified to come forward immediately and settle. One of the partners is going to Palouse this spring, and our business must be settled. We mean business. POINDEXTER & RUSH.

WILL CURE CONSUMPTION.

I now feel it my sacred duty as far as possible to relieve human misery and will send the recipe—FREE OF CHARGE—to any person who may desire it with directions for using. Sent by return mail by addressing with 2 stamps naming this paper, Dr. O. R. Brigham, Drawer 28, Utica, N. Y. September 29, 77—1y.

A FREE CURE.

For consumption, bronchitis, asthma, catarrh, throat and lung diseases. Also a sure relief and permanent cure for general debility, dyspepsia, and all nervous affections, by a simple and effective medicine which cured a venerable missionary Physician who was long a resident of Syria and the East, and who has freely given this valuable specific to thousands of kindred sufferers with the greatest possible benefit, and now he feels it his sacred Christian duty to impart to others this wonderful, invigorating remedy, and will send FREE the original receipt complete, with full directions, to any person enclosing stamp for reply.
