Fagan's Mohawk Speech.

We make the following extract from Mr. Fagan's speech at Mohawk on Tuesday, and we assure our readers that it is the identical language used. It is very evident that the young man made a heavy draft upon his imagination, to say the least, or, it may be, that his imaginary deeds of heroism were suggested by the "yaller livered" war literature of a few years ago. He said: "Ladies and gentlemen, I appear before you to day as a candidate for the legislature upon the Republican ticket. The gentleman who preceded me, Mr. Cochran, has been pleased to refer to the length of time I have been in Oregon, and claims that I am too young an Oregonian to represent your interests fully. I was not considered too young, when upon the field of Shiloh I shed my young heart's blood in the defence of our country! I was not considered too young to stand the bloody siege at Vicksburg!" (Here we lost our notes of some half dozen other bloody battles in which our young hero "fitted and died" for his country.) But he continued: "Ladies and gentlemen, I was not considered too young when I scaled the rocky steps of Lookout Mountain, and planted the stars and stripes above the clouds: Nor was I considered too young to make that memorable march from Atlanta to the sea!" This ebullition of heroics, accompanied by a profession of rhetorical flourishes, is all very nice and all that sort of thing, but what we wish to call the attention of our readers to, is this: This battle, scarred veteran claims to have been thirty years old on the 18th day of March, 1878. The battle of Shiloh was fought April 6th and 7th, 1862, consequently when he acquired fame upon that bloody field he was only 14 years and 18 days old, and was only 17 years old when he gave the finishing stroke to the rebellion. The "boy who stood on the burning deck" was a poltroon in comparison with our hero. "Oh! Bobby, Bobby! let's wash the bloody shirt!"

Bill Dunbar spells goat this way: "gote." Try again, William—that's a terribly intemperate spell and is suggestive of cocktails and such.

Political Preachers

The radical press throughout the State, all at once, says the Coos Bay News, appears terribly afraid "sectarianism" will be introduced into the political campaign. They ask, do you wish to introduce a man's religion? Odell asks, does the Sentinel wish to stir up religious animosities? We answer, no Democrat ever questions a candidate's religious opinions, it is contrary to the spirit of our institutions, but Democrats do not believe that either priests or preachers should be our law-makers, they do not believe that electing them to political offices is the way to keep sectarianism out of politics, hence the objection to Bro. Hines is not his Methodism, but his priesthood regard- less of the sect to which he belongs. If the Lord called him to preach the Gospel (which if he did, proves him a poor judge of men) he should not disregard that call, if he has not been called, then he has been sailing under false colors and is not worthy the honor of an election to Congress. Elset a Congress of priests or sectari- an preachers and how long before there would be a union of Church and State? Do our Republican friends see the objection? Another objection is to political preachers as a class. They are hypocrites and a disgrace to their calling as a rule. Henry Ward Beecher is an illustri- ous example of this class of men, called by God to preach the Gospel, by Republican conventions to preach politics and by his own corrupt na- ture to give lessons in Practical Phys- iology to the female members of his flock, Parson Brownlow, of Tennessee, was another model of these preachers of the Gospel of hate. No the American people do not want this class of men to enact laws for them, be they Catholic priests or Sectarian preachers. In order to preserve the spirit of our institutions and keep Sectarianism out of politics, keep the preachers of Sectarianism out of polit- ical offices, and whenever a preacher disregards his holy calling he should be severely rebuked by the people, and we believe they will do so at the coming election.

If you want W. H. Wood's Single Reaper, Johnson's Single Reaper, New York Single Peeries Reaper and Mower combined, go to Cleaver's.

How do they Stand?

At Springfield last Wednesday Judge Thompson made the sugges- tion that certain candidates on the Legislative ticket would probably vote for Mr. Mitchell for Senator, if elected, Mr. Fagan became furious, said it made no difference to him about his election, but it was import- ant that he should be a man, and said that no man had the right to question him (great Caesar me) how he should vote. Of course the voters of Lane county have no right to know what their Representatives will do if elected; oh no! Perhaps Mr. Fagan will find that all honest men will know, particularly of the man who has no interest whatever in Lane county. And yet, even he could have shown the citizens that (as impossible as it might be) he even desired to be a man by letting the people know how he stood. Perhaps he thinks, however, that Mitchell is the full and entire Republican party, and that they are obliged to vote for him under all cir- cumstances, because his name is Fa- gan.

If you want a Farmer's Friend Grain Drill or the Monitor Broad Cast Seeder, go to Cleaver's.

SHADES OF HIGBY DEFEND US.—We thought when Higby had disgraced himself and his friends and then left the State, that we should never hear any more of him. But unfortunately now it is found that Robt Fagan, the Republican candidate for legisla- tive honors, is supposed to have se- cured his batch of bloody shirt speeches and is rebelling the same to our people about the county. Had Higby known how badly his speeches would have been butchered, we don't believe he would have sold them to Mitchell for use in this campaign.

With respect to the man Beecher, says the Toronto Leader, the misera- ble woman's confession hardly af- fects his position. Instead of keep- ing in the shade, he has courted pub- licity more than ever, and has gone in for making a gain of what he con- sidered godliness a thousand fold more than ever. Surely, had he been a man of any decency whatever, he would long since have sought for some spot of earth, the darkest and most hidden possible, where he could live his life unnoticed and unobserved of men.

Speak out, Candidates.

By request of many Republicans, who say the Journal refuses to pub- lish the following card and list of names, we are induced, with a view to fair dealing all around, to give place in our columns to the same. We are sorry, however, that we have not space to spare to give the full list of names, as it amounts to near two hundred. The following is the peti- tion:

To the LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES OF LANE COUNTY: For reasons which are obvious to every voter in Oregon, regardless of parties—reasons which are so well known to the public that it is not necessary to enumerate them—being too well known already to both candidates and constituents. We, the undersigned citizens and voters of Lane county, demand that each candidate upon the Legislative ticket answer publicly—that is to say by publication, this question: Will you, if elected, vote for J. H. Mitchell for the United States Senate? A positive and unequivocal answer, "yes" or "no," is demanded, and nothing else will satisfy our people.

The names are all Republican, and as the Journal, the Republican or- gan, refused to publish the paper, it will naturally be supposed by all thinking men and by those who do not endorse Mr. Mitchell that the ring that control it thinks it might in- jure his chances to bulldoze the honest voters of Lane county into the support of the Republican candidates. But they need have no fears, as none of the candidates will have a chance to show their duplicity at Salem next fall by voting for Mr. Mitchell. The following is the petition:

It is a matter in which the Democratic party have little concern, as our candidates have honesty and indepen- dence enough to pledge themselves to not vote for Mitchell under any contingency, but we predict now that there is not a single candidate upon the Republican ticket who has the independence to answer the ques- tion squarely and unequivocally.

The Congressional Candidates.

Governor Whiteaker and Reverend Hines, the candidates for Representa- tive to Congress, spoke in this city last Saturday evening. Mr. Hines led off in an hour's speech which was a rebash of the stale and worn-out platitudes which Republican speakers have dimmed into the ears of a long- suffering people for sixteen years. He is in favor of keeping up old war issues and animosities and a perpetua- tion of bloody shirt reminiscences. He favors a speedy and forced res- umption of specie payment, and is the only man who has had the temerity to come out squarely in ad- vocacy of the present system of National banking, and the multitude of other monied monopolies by which the people have been ground ever since the country has been cursed by Republican misrule.

Governor Whiteaker was suffering from a severe cold and hoarseness which prevented him from occupying his full time. In a speech of half an hour or less he thoroughly exposed the specious sophistries of Parson Hines, and utterly demolished the flimsy structures his opponent had taken so much care to build. The voters of Lane county will give honest old John Whiteaker a majority of 200 on the 3d of June.

AS USUAL.—The Republicans papers after nosing around for a month were unable to find a stain upon the record of Thomas G. Reams, the Demo- cratic candidate for Secretary of State. They have, however, now manufac- tured the story that he is in part- nership with a Chinaman in a mining operation in southern Oregon. Mr. Reams, in a conversation a few days ago, authorized us to deny the story in toto. He says that he has no inter- est in any mining operation, either in connection with a Chinaman or any body else, and that he has no interest in any mines at present. Shoot some other way.

M. Trudell, of St. Raymond, Quebec, recently married his sixth wife, a widow of sixty. His first wife lived three years and died, leaving him a son, now forty. His second died ten months after marriage. After living nine years with No. 3, her first hus- band, long mourned as dead, returned and claimed her, and six weeks later the disconsolate M. Trudell married a girl of thirteen. She died two years later, and he married a fifth wife, who died in 1875, after a wedded life of twenty years.

S. H. Hazard, our candidate for Prosecuting Attorney, is emphatic- ally the right man in the right place, remarks the Benton Democrat. Mr. Hazard is a good solid lawyer of much experience. Mr. Knox is the Republican candidate for the same office and appears to be quite a gentle- man. Had Mr. Knox three or four years experience before the Courts he would be able to fulfill the duties of the office acceptably. But when it is remembered that he is entirely desti- tute of experience as an attorney it works a hardship on the young man to place him on the ticket for such an important position. It would have been better for our Republican friends and the people to have placed some one on their ticket who had a few years, experience, instead of a few months as is true in Mr. Knox's case. If there is one position more than another that requires ability and experience it is that of Prosecuting Attorney. Mr. Knox was admitted in December 1875, two years and a half ago, but has paid no attention to law matters until within the last three months, within which time he commenced practice, forming a part- nership with Robt. Fagan, a young man who taught the South Ward school of Corvallis for two years ago.

For six months, says the Oregonian, Senator Mitchell kept back the North- ern Pacific extension by urging the Salt Lake grant in connection with it as an indispensable thing for the de- velopment of the country. It is now known that Col. Chapman has offered to sell the invaluable franchise which has been used as the pretext of all this delay for the magnificent sum of ten thousand dollars; and very prob- ably he would take much less. This is a sufficient commentary on the re- mark that, "if the Northern Pacific will not build the road then let the Salt Lake Company do it."

In the debate in the senate on the pretended bill for extension of the Northern Pacific grant McDonald of Indiana probed the lumpbug to the bottom by plainly asking Mitchell if the object was not to embarrass the company to such extent that it would not comply with the provisions of the bill, and therefore the road would be- come forfeited. The question did not receive a direct answer. The Oregonian thinks it did not admit of one.

Through an inadvertence the name of S. H. Hazard, Democratic candi- date for Prosecuting Attorney in the district, was left out of the ticket published in the GUARD. The omis- sion would have been of more impor- tance had Mr. H. not been so well known throughout the district. The people know Mr. H. as an honest, vigilant and efficient officer, and will give him a handsome majority.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS!

Walter A. Wood's Iron Frame Mowers, Chain and Sweep Rake Reapers, Iron Wheel Headers & Self Binders, ONLY SUCCESSFUL BINDER yet introduced in Oregon, IRON DRIVE WHEEL.

Farmers, buy a Binder that has been thoroughly tested on this coast and you know will work—Machine no longer an experiment.

Chicago Pitts Threshers, Cooper Self-Propelling Threshing En- gines, La Belle Wagon—Full and complete line of Farm- ing Tools.

Read two of the many testimonials we received last season:

Messrs. Frank Bros. & Co., Portland, Oregon—GENTLEMEN: Having used one of your Wood's Harvesters and Self-Binders the past season, it affords me much pleasure to testify to its merits. I cut and bound 250 acres of wheat and oats with one team, doing the work without changing, and I can say that in my judgment it is the best machine which has been offered to the farmers for harvesting. Respectfully yours, E. WADSWORTH.

Messrs. Frank Bros. & Co., Portland, Oregon—GENTS: The Walter A. Wood's Har- vester and Self-Binder I purchased of you last season I cut over two hundred and forty acres with, and I consider the machine to be the most valuable one for a farmer yet manufactured. The cost of the wire per acre was only thirty-one cents, and caused no trouble in threshing. Yours truly, HENRY BUXTON.

Democratic Platform.

The following is the Platform as adopted by the Democracy of Oregon in State Convention assembled in the City of Portland, April 11, 1878.

Sec. 1. That a simple government honestly and economically administered, confined in its operations to the administration of justice and the preservation of the public peace, is the only safe-guard against the abuses of power to which persons in authority are prone, and the corrupt and lavish appropriation of the public funds to corporations which has characterized the National administration for the past seventeen years.

Sec. 2. That we heartily approve the action of Congress in remitting the debt. That we believe that all money made or issued by the Government should be of equal value and that we are in favor of paying all the obligations of the Government in greenbacks so-called when the pecuniary interest of the people is promot- ed, except where otherwise expressly provided.

Sec. 3. That we regard the forced resump- tion of specie payment as greatly aggravating the depression and distress consequent on a long season of inflation and extravagance. We therefore favor the repeal of the act requiring resumption Jan. 1, 1879.

Sec. 4. That the quantity of near twenty-four million dollars now paid the National Bank by the Government is simply levying tribute upon the people for the benefit of the cap- italist; we therefore favor the repeal of the law under which they were established, and the direct issue by the Government of currency re- ceivable for all public dues, sufficient to supply the place of the present bank note circulation.

Sec. 5. That we heartily endorse the efforts now being made in Congress to reduce our present tariff to a strictly revenue standard. That the interests of the great mass of the people of the United States lie in the paths of unrestrict- ed commerce.

Sec. 6. That we favor continued agitation on the subject of Mongolian immigration to this country until the Federal Government is moved to modify our treaties with the Chinese Empire so as to prohibit it, and thus save those of our fellow citizens who depend upon labor for a support, from unjust and degrading competition.

Sec. 7. That the eighteen years of misrule of the Republican party is indubitable proof that that party is no longer to be trusted. That much of its legislation in Congress has tended to make the rich richer, and the poor poorer, and we arraign that party before the people for its classed legislation, for having foisted upon the people, by its repeated efforts to overcome the voice of the people by an un- just and unconstitutional use of the military arm of the Government, and for forging pre- terated under its official sanction, whereby R. B. Hayes was placed in the Presidential chair contrary to the expressed will of an overwhelm- ing majority of the people of this Government.

Sec. 8. That we demand legislation, State and Federal, as will prevent the abuses grow- ing out of compensation for extra services and will limit the pay of officials to a single salary; secure the prohibition of all perquisites, that fruitful source of corruption whereby the com- pensation allowed by law to those in public employments is frequently doubled; the elimi- nation from public affairs of that species of dis- honesty known as favoritism, whereby personal friendships are rewarded and personal obli- gations discharged at the expense of the public without regard to efficiency.

Sec. 9. That it is the duty of the State Govern- ment to maintain its supremacy in regard to the authority not delegated in the constitution of the United States, and to vindicate its juris- diction against encroachments from any source whatever. That in the administration of State affairs the preservation of private right and promotion of justice should be the principal aim; that taxation should be equal and uniform, and extravagant expenditures of the public revenues be avoided. Economy should be the watchword, and rigorous laws be enacted for the management and preservation of the various funds belonging to the State.

Sec. 10. That we are in favor of improvement by the General Government of the rivers and harbors of the State; of the opening of the Co- lumbia river at the Cascades and Dalles; of the improvement of the Snake river, and of a sub- sidiary to the Portland, Salt Lake, and South Pass Railroad; of an extension of time to com- plete the North Pacific Railroad under such reasonable conditions as will preserve the rights and interests of the people of the State and the settlers upon the lands donated to it. Also for a subsidy for the speedy completion of a rail- road connection between Oregon and California.

Sec. 11. That universal education, and the general diffusion of learning being the principal bulwark of American liberty, we are in favor of sustaining an! protecting our public school system for the faithful education of the rising gen- eration.

READ AND LEARN FOR YOURSELF.—Many valuable discoveries and much useful knowl- edge is kept from the world, because of the immense expense in making them known to the people. This is not the case with Boschee's German Syrup, although but a few years introduced into this country its sale now reaches in every town and village in the U. S. Its wonderful success in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Pneumonia, Asthma, and all other diseases of the throat and lungs, was first made known by distributing every year, for three years, over 400,000 bottles to the afflicted, free of charge, by Druggists. No such test of merit was given before to any other preparation. Could you ask more? Go to your Druggist and get a bottle for 75 cents and try it. Sample bottles 10 cents.

Nasal Catarrh and Lung and Bronchial affec- tions, and all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, positively cured. Dr. Sou- ville Mathieu, the eminent French physician and surgeon, and inventor of the Paris Spirom- eter which has given relief to thousands suffer- ing from those terrible diseases in Europe and the United States.
