

AN UNPLEASANT SITUATION.—Johnny Sanderson is a bad boy. The other day, Johnny made some "fish hooks" by bending a great many pins in a peculiar shape. The next fore noon he had them in the dining-room, and hearing some boy whistling in the shrill way that all boys understand, he rushed out, leaving his pin-hooks lying on the table and on the chairs. Johnny never gave another thought to them until two o'clock, when the family, including Miss Giggins, and the minister, and Elder Dalton and wife, invited guests, were about to take their seats to an elegant dinner.

"Sit down here," said Mrs. Sanderson to Miss Giggins.
"Ouch!" exclaimed the latter lady, in a voice of agony, as she rose from her seat, and carefully settled back again.

"Parson, take this seat; Brother Dalton, Sister Dalton, this way; and Mr. Sanderson beamed with tian noble, Christian grace, hospitality.
"My sayer!" suddenly exclaimed the worthy parson, in s-torior tones that fairly shook the windows.
"Immortal Zedekiah!" echoed burly Deacon Dalton, as Mr. Sanderson, startled at such an unusual exhibition, actually gasped as he dropped, like a de-driver, into his chair.

"Pull, 'em out!" he at once howled, as he leaped, with starting eye-balls, half across the room.
An immediate investigation divulged the trouble, and quiet and good humor were restored. The only remark made, after Johnny gave his explanation, was by the parson, who, as he eyed Johnny, quietly said:
"These pins are bent in a very peculiar shape for fish-hooks."

The Charleston News and Courier thinks it is distinction enough for Mr. Tilden to be the only person elected President since the foundation of the republic who did not obtain his office. This position is unique, like Mr. Tilden, and it is not proposed to compromise his dignity by allowing him to become President. The South will not have Mr. Tilden.

"I shall die happy," said an expiring husband to his wife, who was weeping most dutifully at his bed side, "if you promise not to marry that object of my increasing jealousy, your cousin John." "Make yourself quite easy, my love," said the expectant widow, "I am engaged to his brother Bill."

A tramp dropped in and meekly inquired the way to town of Thumper. He said that whenever he asked for work he was told to "go to Thumper," and he supposed they wanted hands there.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills, For all the purposes of a Family Physic, and for curing Constiveness, Jaundice, Indigestion, Puff Swellings, Headache, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Dropsy, Tumors, Worms, Neuritis, and a Dimer Pill, for purifying the Blood.
Are the most effective and congenial purgative ever discovered. They are mild, but effectual in their operation, moving the bowels surely and without pain. Although gentle in their operation, they are still the most thorough and searching cathartic medicine that can be employed: cleansing the stomach and bowels, and even the blood. In small doses of one pill a day, they stimulate the digestive organs and promote vigorous health.
AYER'S PILLS have been known for more than a quarter of a century, and have obtained a world-wide reputation for their virtues. They correct diseased action in the several assimilative organs of the body, and are so composed that obstructions within their range can rarely withstand or evade them. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of everybody, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are, at the same time, the safest and best physic for children. By their aperient action they gripe much less than the common purgatives, and never give pain when the bowels are not inflamed. They reach the vital fountains of the blood, and strengthen the system by freeing it from the elements of weakness.
Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, containing neither calomel nor any deleterious drug, these PILLS may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar-coating preserves them ever fresh, and makes them pleasant to take; while being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.
PREPARED BY
DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., Practical and Analytical Chemists. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.
