CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEF MENTION.

Mr. J. G. Gray, County treasurer, went to Portland yesterday.

Sol. Steinheiser has the best assortment of fresh groceries in town.

Sol. Steinheiser has just received a lot of eastern cranberries as large as cherries.

Miller & Son came up this week to repair the bridge across the McKenzie at Spore's ferry.

The Prints of the GUARD office tip their hats to Master Grant Osborn for some excellent new cider.

The goose and duck season has arrived and the boys are taking advantage of it, judging by the number brought to town every day.

Lane Bro's are repainting the business cards on the drop curtain in their Hall. Those already finished are a decided improvement upon the old ones.

Service at the Baptist Church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Morning subject, "Gospel Solicitation;" evening subject, "God Forgotten." Sunday School at 3 p. m.

In another column to-day will be found the card of Dr. S. Hemenway, Dr. H. formerly resided in this city and had the reputation of being a very successful practitioner.

If you wish to save from $15 to $20 buy the New Wilson or New Home sewing machines of R. G. Callison. He pays no livery or traveling bills, therefore he can sell cheaper than peddlers.

Master Ike Steinheiser, page in the Senate, returned yesterday, and will hereafter deliver the Oregonian to his subscribers. He is sharp as a brier and as lively as a peck of peas and made a host of friends at Salem.

Morrell's Minstrels gave one of their unique entertainments at Lane's Hall Thursday evening. This is one of the few traveling shows that passes, talent, and we commend them to the amusement seeking public wherever they go.

Preaching in the M. E. Church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. by the pastor, Rev. A. Atwood. Morning Subject, "The Poor Rich Man and the Rich Poor Man, or the Rich Man and Lazarus." Evening "Samson's Riddle." Sunday School at 2:30 p. m. Prayer and Praise meeting and Bible Reading on Thursday evening at 7 p. m.

Last Wednesday while Mr. Fitchell was in a store in town, his team, which had been left standing in the street, ran away. The team was caught near the depot by some boys. When Mr. F. came out of the store and missed his team after hunting some time, he went home and next morning came back, and found them all right in a stable where the boys had left them. Damage, a stable bill to pay.

Where has there so much smoke there must be some cigars. To the O. K. CIGAR STORE everybody is rushing for fine flavored cigars, and for the best brands of tobaccos. The ladies also, for their candies, go to the O. K. There is kept the finest assortment and the freshest in town, and by the way, his prices are lower than anybody else. Give him a call, and examine his new arrival.

At Morrell's performance Thursday evening some two or three fellows who think it smart to act the blackguard, became so boisterous that policeman Felch fired one of them out. This sort of thing has become an intolerable nuisance. People pay their money to see and hear the performance and not to be annoyed by a lot of ill-mannered hoodlum blackguards. If the policeman had been posted, two or three others would have gone. Let these chaps take heed in the future or they will bring up in the calabos.

The Oregonian has the following dispatches: New Orleans, Oct. 23.—Weather clear, cool and windy. Deaths, 19; cases reported, 173. Memphis, Oct. 23.—From six o'clock last night until noon to-day, undertakers report orders for eleven interments. The streets are thronged with returning refugees and business is being gradually resumed. The Howard association continue their work of sending to their homes all nurses from abroad. Another heavy frost fell last night.

We received the following epistle through the postoffice this week:

EUGENE CITY, Oct. 20th, 1878.
DEAR SIR:—I don't look well for a public journal to meddle with another man's private affairs, and you will please attend to your own business and oblige.
MANY CITIZENS.

We very seldom take any notice of anonymous communications but, as our unknown friend imagines himself a legion, we have deviated from the rule in the present instance. We have not the most remote idea of what our abused friend refers to, but if this multitude of aggravated citizens will make their complaint in a more tangible form, if we think anybody has been wronged by our "meddling," we'll doff our old hat to the injured honoree.

WHEAT.—Selling in the early part of the week a 75 cents. Buyers are now paying 76.

MARRIED.—At Goshen by J. Handsaker, at his residence on the 23d inst., Mr. J. Sellers and Miss S. E. Martin, of Creswell, Lane county.

A Los Angeles dispatch of the 23d says: Officer Hudson leaves here to-morrow with Johnson, one of the men engaged in the robbery of O'Shea's pawnbroker shop, and the murder of a boy at Portland, Oregon, on the 29th of August last.

IN MEMORIAM.

The following resolutions on the death of Edward C. Brumley were adopted by the Laurean society at their meeting last evening:

WHEREAS, in view of the loss we have sustained by the decease of our friend and brother Edward C. Brumley, and of the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him. Now, therefore, we his brethren in the association which he adorned, desiring to express our great respect for his many virtues and cherished memory do

Resolve, First, That in the death of E. C. Brumley the Laurean Society has lost a worthy member, the community one of its promising young men and the family a bright ornament—a young man whose private character and conduct merited and received the confidence and respect of all who knew him, and we deeply deplore that he should have been stricken down so early in youth.

Second, That we extend to the bereaved family and relatives our heartfelt sympathy in this their great bereavement.

Third, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Laurean Society and that our hal, be draped in mourning for twenty days as evidence of our sorrow for the death of Edward C. Brumley and in respect for his memory.

Fourth, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be transmitted to the bereaved family.

Johnson's Commercial College stands in the front rank as an educational institution of public utility. It has a full corps of professors who devote their entire time to teaching. Its halls are sufficiently large to accommodate eight hundred students in daily attendance. Every young lady and gentleman should attend and complete a full commercial course.—Mo. Republican.

On examination of the circular of the above institution we find students from thirteen different States were in attendance last year. It also contains a list of over three hundred references of some of the most prominent merchants, bankers, and accountants of St. Louis and the Mississippi Valley. Every one interested in commercial education should address the college for one.

Stop That Leak.

In 1872, says the Inland Empire, the same Legislature which earned for itself eternal disgrace by electing an unscrupulous corporation attorney to a place intended only for an enlightened statesman—the U. S. Senate—passed an act giving five thousand dollars a year for the support of the so-called Agricultural College at Corvallis. Thirty thousand dollars, wrung from the coffers of the State, and gathered there from the sweat and toil of an already overtaxed commonwealth, have since that time been disbursed merely to save a sectarian academy from impending dissolution. If the legislators think that Oregon, with less than one fifth the population of California, can support two universities, while her wealthier and more populous sister can barely support one, they had better continue this drain on the industry and vitality of the State.

At this time, when some of our own party journals are advocating the abolishment of the Superintendency of Public Instruction, we ask to interpose our protest against the proceeding. It looks too much like trying to navigate a ship without a captain. Better to cut off this Corvallis Seminary appropriation, and save that money for keeping intact an already good and constantly increasing system of common schools. The American principle of popular education, as a preventive of destitution and crime, does not contemplate any distinction on account of religious belief. It intends that the public system shall be secular and not sectarian. That system is kept up by an equal and uniform system of taxation, levied in part upon Jew, Gentile, Christian and infidel, alike. It does not even admit of the Bible being read in the public schools, believing that the fireside circle is the place for worship for Him who doth all things well.

The Agricultural college has, we suppose, a grant of lands from the Federal Government, like kindred institutions in other and older States. If the sales of those lands will not support it, the people of Benton county, who are most benefitted by it, should make up the difference. If they cannot afford to do it now, after the aid they have already received from the State, the quicker the concern goes under the better. A State Normal School is needed, to turn out an army of good and competent teachers; but the proposition may be premature, and we shall not insist upon it. Repeal the Corvallis Subsidy Act, and let the Common schools get the benefit of it; and avoid such pernicious legislation in future.

California has more than one crazy man in her Constitutional Convention. The other day one lunatic belonging to that body tried to cut a man's throat and now another proposes to declare that all the water in the states belongs to the people, and that all private claims upon water rights shall be declared null and void.

The Walls Walls Statesman says the land office has been crowded for some weeks, and the officers compelled to work early and late. Government land in this district is being taken up very fast, and in the course of a few years more all of the valuable land will be taken up. In many instances large tracts being taken by married men, and farming carried on extensively. Large farms in the end will prove an injury to the country. It is better to have small farms well cultivated and improved. This gives us a large population and a greater aggregate of wealth.

News Items.

A footpad attempted to rob a German in Salem last Tuesday night. The Teuton's lusty cries for "police" frightened the robber off.

Officer Hudson, who went to Los Angeles last week for the man who was arrested, there supposed to be Johnson, one of the O'Shea robbers, telegraphed to the chief of police at Portland last Tuesday that he was the right man. Officer Hudson will arrive in Portland next Tuesday with his prisoner.

A member of the California Constitutional Convention, named J. Berry, from Siskiyou and Modoc counties, attempted to cut the throat of an old man named Hale in the assembly chamber at Sacramento, on the 16th inst. Berry has been in the insane asylum and is again evidently insane.

The Statesman says: Sunday the quiet little town of Lebanon was thrown into a fever of excitement occasioned by a fatal shooting affair which occurred there about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The facts as near as we can learn them are about as follows: Last summer two men named respectively Colton and Long had a little difficulty during harvest. Long threatened to slap Colton in the face the first opportunity which presented itself. Sunday Long met Colton in the streets of Lebanon and struck him in the face with a revolver, whereupon Colton drew his pistol and shot his aggressor, the ball entering the body just below the left nipple. The ball lodged in the body, producing a fatal wound. Long, the wounded man, had a quarrelsome disposition and was a dangerous man when excited. Colton gave himself up.

All the valuables, crew and passengers on board the British ship "City of Dublin," which was beached near Point Adams light house on the 18th, have been taken ashore. She was in ballast at the time. Her masts were cut away and her anchors lost. There are some prospects of the ship's being saved.

One of the hostiles that assisted in the murder of George Cogan, former proprietor of the St. Charles hotel, Portland, and then turned state's evidence, has gone crazy and stands in the Pendleton jail yard chained by one foot. Sufficient evidence has been obtained to justify the hanging of several of them.

The grand jury has returned true bills in the following cases: State of Oregon vs. Archie Brown (Eugene Avery), James Johnson and Jacob Swartz, each indicted for murder in the first degree. State of Oregon vs. N. J. Hamel, manslaughter; State of Oregon vs. Jackson Grant, murder in the first degree; State of Oregon vs. J. K. Mercer, murder in the first degree; State of Oregon vs. Henry Wilson, larceny in a store.

On the Tuesday after the first Monday in November the following States hold elections: Kansas, Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin, Missouri, Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, South Carolina, Florida, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia, Pennsylvania, Connecticut and Massachusetts. On the same day New York elects a Judge of the Court of Appeals.

We read the other day that Christians had risen in Croatia. Gabriel must have been practicing on his cornet in that vicinity, if the telegraph was not lying all last year about the way the Turks carried on.

COMPLIMENTARY.—Luther B. Ison, of Baker City, advertises E. S. McComas, of the Mountain Sentinel, "as an irresponsible, infamous, lying slanderer, blackguard, knave, and malicious calumniator."

A cockney at the Falls of Niagara, when asked how he liked the Falls, replied: "They're handsome—quite so; but they don't quite answer my expectations; besides I got vetted and lost me 'at. I prefer to look at 'em in han higraving in 'ot weather, and in the 'ouse."

The Sun of Human Suffering has been much diminished since (Glean's Sulphur Soap was introduced into use as an agent in the composition of sulphur baths. Now the poorest sufferers from loathsome cutaneous affections and the tortures of rheumatism enjoy comparative ease.
