Mr. Robert M. Day, of Salem, is in town visiting friends and relatives.

Hugh Rodgers has returned from California. Hugh looks as motherly as a brick.

That terrible disease, "swaroffafternew-years," is now raging in Eugene. Fifty-one new cases. Young men are the principal victims.

The January number of Vicks Floral Guide is at hand, and typographically speaking, is as beautiful as the flowers to which it is devoted.

The GUARD has just received a new supply of job material and we are better prepared to turn out first class work than ever before. Give us a call.

A double marriage was celebrated at Junction last Sunday. The high contracting parties were Pearne Starr and Carrie Tharp, and Silas Tharp and Emma Starr.

The Firemen's ball Christmas eve passed off quietly and was a success in every way, except financially. We understand that there will be a small deficiency.

Who is the next man that will go East to get married? Young men, remember Greeley's famous saying, and stay West when you contemplate this important step.

The hoodlums of Junction are raising a lively racket by stuffing gunny sacks down chimneys flues and interfering with private residences. So says the Junction Republican.

We have just received a new and beautiful song by that popular author, Geo. Mayhew, with music arranged by Louis Bodeker. It is for sale by D. W. Prentice & Co., Portland.

Mr. E. K. Henderson, one of the "prints" of the Portland Standard, is in town visiting relatives and friends. We notice that King's mustache has departed, and consequently has no use for mustache dye as he used to of yore.

A noted wag in certain colleges, one morning, read a theme of unusual merit. The president, being suspicious, asked pointedly if it was original. "Why, yes, sir," was the reply, "it had 'original' over it in the paper I took it from."

Mr. Jeff Smith and Willie Steinheiser, of Portland, have been spending Christmas in Eugene. Jeff is fast assuming adequate proportions, while Willie has brought him self down to fighting weight. They returned to Portland Thursday.

CONCLUDED.—The trial of J. K. Mercer for the murder of A. C. M. Donald in Portland was concluded at that place during the present week. The jury stood eleven to one for conviction for murder in the second degree; and as the single jurymen was in doubt and wavering, the counsel for defense, with the consent of the Court and District Attorney, withdrew their plea of not guilty of manslaughter; The penalty of which is imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and more than fifteen years.

DIED.—From the Roseburg papers we learn that Wm. Glover died at that place a short time since. "Bill" as he was familiarly called was well known here having tended stock and "drove" stage for the Overland Stage Co. before the advent of the railroad. With all his faults he possessed a generous nature and the mantle of charity may well be spread over the departed.

CHRISTMAS TREES.—Among the joys of childhood, the Christmas tree occupies a prominent position; around it cluster many joyous anticipations. Two public Christmas trees were displayed in Eugene Christmas eve, one at the M. E. church and the other at the Christian church. Both were well filled and presented a pleasing appearance.

PUBLIC TEMPERANCE MEETING.—Dr. J. W. Watts, the popular temperance lecturer will be in Eugene city to lecture on that subject on New Years evening; and as the Doctor uses charts to illustrate his points the meeting has been removed from the Methodist church to the corner house.

NEW HALL.—We are informed that a company has been formed for the purpose of building a hall in this city for public purposes. The contemplated edifice will be a substantial, roomy, and elegant structure.

SPECIAL DEPUTY.—John H. McClung has been appointed a special deputy for Eugene City by G. W. C. T. Dunbar. A lodge will probably be organized at this place before long.

THANKS.—Rev. C. H. Wallace wishes to return thanks to the people of Crosswell and vicinity for the Christmas present of a new suit of clothes for himself and a dress for his wife.

A Bloodless Affray.

From the Statesman of the 24th inst., we extract the following: "About noon yesterday a quarrel occurred in the rooms of the Investigating Committee, at the State House the principals being William H. Watkins, formerly Superintendent of the penitentiary, and Hon. John M. Thompson, Speaker of the House of the last Legislature. The affair caused considerable excitement as it became known. It appears, from all that we can learn, that Watkins had been summoned before the committee to tell what he knew about the management of the penitentiary, and while he was in the committee room Thompson came in, holding in his left hand a large envelope which he handed to Watkins with the remark, 'I want you to read this! It's my opinion of you.' At this instant several gentlemen who stood near; discovered that he had a pistol in his right hand, and before he could have used it—had he so desired—it was taken from him by D. F. Thompson, and further demonstrations prevented by the prompt interference of the gentlemen in the room. The pistol, which was a small nickel plated revolver, was loaded, cocked, and ready for immediate use. Mr. Thompson was shortly after arrested by Marshal Minto and taken before Recorder Bowie, being defended by Messrs. Lord and Shew, while Mr. Watkins was represented by Bonham & Ramsey. After hearing the evidence the court concluded there was nothing to show that he intended to do injury to Mr. Watkins, and ordered the discharge of the defendant."

We understand that this report of the affair is not altogether correct. The committee had adjourned, and Mr. Thompson stepped up to Watkins holding out the envelope, saying at the same time, "This is my message for you." Mr. Watkins did not take the envelope, but held his hands from him open, and implored the protection of the committee, saying that he was unarmed. The immediate cause of the circumstance was, that Watkins had written a letter to the committee, filled with insulting personal allusions to Mr. Thompson.

Church Notices.

There will be services in St. Mary's Episcopal Church on Sunday at 11 A. M. and on Friday at 7 P. M. Sunday School at 3 P. M.

Services at the Baptist Church to-morrow morning and evening. Morning subject, "The Healing Waters of Bethesda." Evening subject, "On Personal Freedom and Responsibility in Religion." Sunday School at P. M., B. F. Davis, superintendent.

Elder J. P. McCorkle will preach at the Christian Church Sunday morning; subject, "Justification of Faith," and in the evening, "What Must I do to be Saved." Sunday School at 9:45 o'clock A. M.

A SCHEMME.—One day this week two gentlemen, over whose heads the "Honey" whirled, have passed leaving their white and silvered, met alone in a field near Junction and proceeded to discuss, with fits, the question of which was the better man. The only one that has appeared on the streets since, claims that it was decided in his favor. His friends, however, on his first appearance were laboring under the impression that he had been put through a threshing machine.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—Wimwaha emancipation No. 6, I. O. O. F., elects the following officers for the ensuing term. T. W. Shelton, C. P. E. Harrington, H. P. S. Steinheiser, S. W. D. R. Lakin, J. W. J. Church, Seelye, H. P. Puris, Treas. The officers elect together with those of Spencer Butte lodge No. 91, O. A. P. will be publicly installed by D. G. M. Church at Odd Fellows hall on Thursday January the seventh.

NOT A PARSON.—We have been informed that the Governor did not pardon the man Luce from Lane county, but he only remitted the sentence so far as confinement in the penitentiary is concerned but did not restore him to citizenship, and this action was based on the opinion that the man is really insane and that if he needs confinement to prevent injury, he ought to be sent to the insane asylum.—Statesman.

THE EXCURSION.—About one hundred persons from this place went to Portland last Thursday on the excursion. On a small calculation the expenses of each person going will average fifteen dollars. It would be good policy, to spend your money nearer home, instead of pouring out your loose change into the lap of some other community.

STATE TAXES OF LANE CO.—The taxable property of Lane county amounts to $3,477,096. The State has levied a tax of seven mills, three mills of which is to cover outstanding warrants, and the remaining four mills for general fund. Lane county will pay to the State $24,325 as her share for the year 1878.

PAYMENT OF STATE TAXES.—Mr. J. G. Gray Treasurer of Lane county, went to Salem last Thursday taking with him $8,000 as the first installment for the state taxes of this county for 1878. Lane county has the enviable reputation of commencing the payment of taxes among the first, and finishing her liabilities in the same rank.

AN AUTHOR.—"True Blue," is the title of a story book written by Mrs. L. C. Bell, of this city, and published by Lothrop & Co. of Boston. The San Francisco Post compliments the author by saying that, "This is a delightful story, and promises to be as popular as any of Mrs. A. Kott's productions."

MARRIED.—We are credibly informed that our fellow townsman, Will H. Abrams, took unto himself a Christmas present in the shape of a fair daughter of Eve, on the evening of the 24th. The nuptials were celebrated in Ferry, New York.

Court Proceedings.

REPORTED BY THE LIVING REPORTER ENGAGED FOR THE OCCASION.

The confounded court of this city, the vagabond judge presiding, convened at the Court House last Wednesday for the purpose of administering justice to Eben Stuart. The prisoner was brought into court and the indictment read by the pugnacious clerk, to which he entered a plea of "not guilty." The attorneys were selected on account of their consummate rascality. A jury of seal-awags who were not expected or supposed to be able to render a just verdict were tumbled into the jury box. Of all the witnesses called not one of them but showed an utter disregard for truth. We shall modify this last statement by making one exception; that of the evidence of a gray haired gentleman concerning widows. A verdict of guilty was rendered by the jury and the prisoner was sentenced to "sit up" the "Tom and Jerry" for the crowd. The fine was paid, and the prisoner discharged.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., the proprietor of Dr. Pierce's Family Medicine, and also of the Invalids' and Tourists' Hotel, of that city, has recently been elected to Congress by the very flattering majority of nearly 3,000. He has already served his constituency as State Senator, and this renewed endorsement signifies that his services have been highly satisfactory. His extensive practice in the treatment of Chronic Diseases will not, we are informed, be neglected or suffer in the least when the time arrives for him to take his seat in Congress, it being intrusted to his brother and other experienced medical gentlemen who have long been associated with the Doctor in the Medical Department of his celebrated World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel. Besides, as the Forty-sixth Congress does not convene until December, 1879, Dr. Pierce's patients will not lose his personal attention for some months yet.

SHILPIE'S SALE.—The store of Lurch Bros., at Crosswell, was sold under sheriff's sale yesterday. A. H. Spure, of Cottage Grove, bought in the stock for $5,135.

The steamer S. T. Church has sunk in the Willamette below Salem. She had a cargo of about 240 tons. Kinney Bros. had $100,000 worth of flour on board, the greater part of which will prove a total loss.

GRANT AS THE "COMING MAN."—The imperious Radical leader of the Senate, Conkling of New York, has come out unreservedly for Grant. Ulysses is now therefore the man, beyond dispute, whom the Radicals must run for President in 1880. But the Democracy have a voice in the election, and that voice will be potential. Grant will never again occupy the White House. The Democrats will choose its occupant.

There is a rattlesnake in this cellar is the placard a Florida man has over his door. Burglars don't trouble him.

Something for the New Year.

The world renowned success of Hostetter's Bitters, and their continued popularity for a quarter of a century as a stomachic, is scarcely more wonderful than the welcome that greets the annual appearance of Hostetter's Almanac. This valuable medical treatise is published by Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa., under their own immediate supervision, employing 80 hands in that department. Ten cylinder printing presses, 8 folding machines, 5 job presses, &c., are running about eleven months in the year on this work, and the best of same for 1879 will not be less than ten millions printed in the English, German, French, Norwegian, Welsh, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish languages. Refer to a copy of it for valuable and interesting reading concerning health, and numerous testimonials as to the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, containing varied information, astronomical calculations and chronological items, &c., which can be depended on for correctness. The Almanac for 1879 can be obtained free of cost, from druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the country.

A sensible lady—Not long since one of our principal physicians was called on to visit a patient who was suffering from a severe cold, and which had become seated on her lungs. At last she was induced by her uncle to try Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, and lo! she was cured in a decided improvement, and three bottles, equal to cost only 50 cents a bottle at all druggists. Depot, Crittenton's Patent Medicine Warehouse, 7 sixth avenue, New York City. The dollar size is the most economical for general use. Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.
