CITY AND COUNTY.

REMOVAL.

The patrons of the GUARD will take notice that the office has been removed to the room across the hall, from its former place. The office is now above the Grange store.

BRIEF MENTION.

Sheriff Eakin is convalescing. Clew Jackson's best sweet navy tobacco Herbert McCormack is in town visiting friends and relatives. A part of the apparatus for the State University has arrived. Horace Knox has been commissioned a notary public by Gov. Thayer. The Brass Band will play on the St. Charles balcony this evening. Go to Preston's and examine his saddles. They are the best in town. Firemen election next Monday night. A full attendance is desired. Mr. J. B. Underwood returned last Wednesday from a visit to California. Home, Sweet Home is not complete without a bottle of Pfunder's Oregon Blood Purifier. $140,000 have been subscribed towards the Springfield and Oregon City narrow gauge railroad. City election next Monday. Beware of the candidate, as you value your peace of mind. Dr. Sharples has left Salem, and came back to Eugene to engage in the practice of his profession. Wm. Preston has some of the finest and best of harness; all made of first class material and by good workmen. It is estimated that 1200 passengers came to Oregon on the recent arrival of the steamers Oregon and Republic.

Wm. Preston keep on hand a large stock of brushes, collars, whips and in fact every thing belonging to a first class harness shop. The Brass band was out Thursday evening serenading Messrs. Lucky, Dunn and our efficient drayman McClanahan were the recipients. Frank Harrington will sell at public auction to-day, in front of the old Arcade saloon next door to Titus livery stable, his household effects. Hon. J. M. Thompson went to Salem last Wednesday, and was one of the speakers in a meeting held there to recommend Cape Foulweather for the proposed harbor of refuge. Business men should not forget that blank notes, bill-heads, statements, letter-heads, and every description of commercial printing are neatly and promptly executed at the GUARD office. We have a proposition to advertise ladies' skirts and stocking suspenders, taking our pay in the above mentioned articles. Respectfully declined. Cus why. Cant wear them ourself and have got no lady. The steamer McCully took down on her last trip 210 bbls of flour, and 1000 sacks of wheat. She leaves Portland to-day bringing a considerable amount of freight for our merchants and will return Monday. A Mr. McFarley was brought down from Cottage Grove, Wednesday, and was lodged in jail. He had been bound over in the sum of $250 to keep the peace, and failing to secure bond was brought here and incarcerated. Col Hogg, superintendent of Y. B. & C. R. R., and Dr. Bayley of Corvallis were in town this week agitating the question of the proposed harbor of refuge. Their efforts are directed toward securing Cape Foulweather for the harbor. Mr. L. P. W. Quimby of Portland wishes to purchase 20 or 30 young horses that are sound and of good weight. He will be at Cottage Grove next Monday, and at Crescent Tuesday. Those having good horses to sell will do well to see Mr. Quimby, as he has the cash to pay. See Ad. At the meeting of the Blue Ribbon club Wednesday evening, Dr. Harris delivered an address on Persecution as it takes place in the manufacture of liquors. In treating the subject the Dr. confined himself to the question as considered from a scientific standpoint. The meeting lacked the enthusiasm that has manifested itself at previous meetings.

Alex Osborne has been appointed superintendent of the dairy department of the coming state fair; Jasper Wilkins of Willamette Forks on equestrianship; Mrs. M. B. McMurry of Eugene on baking and needle work by misses under twelve years of age; Mr. John Simpson of Siuslaw, on wool and alpaca; Geo. Belshaw of Eugene on the several classes of horses.

To Horsemen.—W. C. Myers noted as the importer of the Percheron stock of horses into Oregon, has consented to bring the horse Gen. Fleury to this place for the coming summer. This horse was imported from France. Mr. Myers may be found at Jas. Humphrey's stable next Friday and Saturday.

FOR PALOUSE.—Mr. M. C. Felch, who has served as night watchman of this city for the past three years has resigned that office and will before long start for the great Palouse. Mr. Felch by his devotion to duty, and his genial and social qualities has made many friends, who will witness his departure with regret. A STATEMENT.—We present to the readers of the GUARD this week a supplement containing a statement from Mr. H. C. Humphrey and M. S. Wallis concerning the Spanwick—Kerns embroglio. We accord them this privilege from the fact that part of the clergy made a statement in a former issue of the GUARD defending Mr. Spanwick.

Got his Satisfy.

The following conversation which occurred between a Webfoot and a fat foreigner from Ohio, on the steamer Elder, is published in the Inland Empire and is well worth preservation: Moody—our Moody of course—has got back from San Francisco, with his new stock of Spring goods. He went down on the Elder with "Honest John" Whiteaker, and saw the old gentleman seated in the Whitehall boat that pulled him to the ferry in time to catch the special train. A fat man who stood by said, "that's a h—l of a looking old stall to send to Congress." "Pity they didn't send you in his place," retorted a bystander. "Me? I don't belong to Oregon, not much. I'm from Ohio." "Well, then," grunted the Yambiller, "it's a pity they didn't send you to Congress from Ohio, for if howels were brains, you'd be the most intellectual looking man on the floor of the House." The fat man walked off suddenly to cogitate upon the fact that the average Oregonian carries a sharp tongue, and is not at all fastidious about dress. So the multitude goes.

Dexter Items.

Our mail is carried on Monday and Thursday to and from Goshen, via Pleasant Hill. Thomas Barbre is the carrier. This route should be extended to Big Prairie 23 miles further.

There is a number of good farms at this point, also on the high prairie adjoining; the latter is so elevated that it is necessary to look twice to see the top. The snow was a foot deep for near two months the past winter, and considerable stock died.

A well known citizen of Big Prairie dug up $1000 a few days ago, that had been buried at the foot of a tree for 16 years. REGULAR.

Music. Recitation—Mr. Wass. Music. Volunteer speeches. Circulation of pledges. By order of Executive Committee, S. C. FRICK, Chairman.

Girls: how can you expect to find a "hub-bub" if you don't remove those nasty pimples from your face! The Oregon Blood Purifier will do it.

Port of Refuge.

Whereas, The people of Corvallis in Benton county, seeing the need of a Harbor of refuge at Cape Foulweather, has made an address to the people, and passed resolutions herein set forth, in relation to the same: Therefore be it

Resolved, That we the citizens of Eugene, in Lane county Oregon at a meeting held on the 1st of April 1879, indorse and fully concur with our sister county in her enterprise, and join with her as a county of the Willamette valley.

F. B. DUNN, J. M. THOMPSON, T. G. HENDRICKS, J. J. WALTON, JR., D. C. UNDERWOOD, J. ROBINSON, J. G. GRAY, THOS. COXTON, J. R. CAMPBELL, B. F. DORRIS, H. C. PERKINS, R. G. CALLISON, S. M. TITUS, N. L. PACKARD, C. W. FITCH. RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, The construction of a harbor of refuge at some point between San Francisco and Puget Sound is and absolute necessity for the shipping interests of the country; and

Whereas, During the last year many valuable lives were lost and much valuable property destroyed for the want of such a harbor; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we respectfully recommend Cape Foulweather, on the western line of Benton county, as the most available point on the coast, from the Golden Gate to the Straits of Fuca, for a harbor of refuge.

Resolved, That while a harbor can be constructed on the north side of Cape Foulweather for the sum of $656,221 20, to construct one at Port Orford will cost over three millions of dollars.

Resolved, That as the report of Col. Wilson shows that the principal injury to shipping is caused by southwest winds therefore Cape Foulweather would be of any practical use to the shipping interests as a harbor of refuge.

Resolved, That the admirable report of Assistant Engineer Robert A. Habersham shows that there is a natural harbor on the north side of Cape Foulweather, and with the expenditure of less than one sixth of what it would cost to construct a harbor at any other point on the coast, a safe and convenient harbor can be constructed at that point sufficient for all purposes.

Resolved, That we earnestly call the attention of the board of engineers, who are to select the point at which the appropriation made by the last congress is to be expended, to the natural advantages that Cape Foulweather possesses over any other point on this coast for a work of this kind.

Resolved, That we will not allow the patent facts to be perverted or turned aside—that Foulweather is the most suitable in its position on the coast for the purpose intended to be accomplished contiguous to a large agricultural district; its cheapness of construction, as well as its capability of being rendered immediately useful, with the small means appropriated for the purpose, all indicate with unerring certainty that that is the place designed by nature as the harbor of refuge.

Resolved, That we will place fairly, truthfully and prominently the facts of its favorability surrounding before those having this great work in charge, not doubting but they will lead to the desired end and secure the expenditure of the money in the right place.

Resolved, That we look with profound astonishment upon the far seeing policy of the Portland Board of Trade—seeing advantages in any place rather than the one at home.

Resolved, That we accept this expression of the Portland Board of Trade in ignoring entirely the bay north of Cape Foulweather as a sincere but unwilling testimonial of its fitness and importance as a harbor of refuge.

Resolved, That we cordially invite the people of the Willamette valley to unite with us in presenting the simple facts of this work.

Resolved, That we do not look upon the conduct of the Board of Trade in this matter as friendly to the interests of this valley, and that we do not believe any portion of the people of the valley will look with favor upon any effort to rivet the shackles and bind permanently upon their backs burdens now borne by the trade of the valley.

Resolved, That it is our hope that this conduct of the Portland Board of Trade does not fairly represent the sentiment of the good people of Portland, but that in case we become satisfied that Portland is hostile to the development of the natural advantages of our coast and outlets to the ocean, we will labor with determination and unceasing vigor to induce our people to unite and trade directly with San Francisco, and seek the aid of that city, which we hope will be able to see and appreciate our natural advantages. JOHN BURNETT, JOHN RAY, F. A. CHENOWETH, Com.

Pine Creek is in the Palouse country.
