CITY AND COUNTY.

REMOVAL.

The patrons of the GUARD will take notice that the office has been removed to the room across the hall, from its former place. The office is now above the Grange store.

BRIEF MENTION.

The jail is again without an occupant. The velocipede mania is again rampant. Chew Jackson's best sweet navy tobacco. Charley Williams is teaching school at Goshen. Look out for the chills and fever. We've had 'em. Mr. A. Goldsmith returned from San Francisco Tuesday. Recorder Knox has commenced the work of assessing the city. Uncle Dave Newsome was in town this week in company with McDonald.

The regular meeting of Eugene Hook and Ladder Company next Monday night. Henderson a "Print" on the State. The firm of which Mr. E. L. Bristow is a partner, at Salem, lost $200 by the recent fire at that place. There will be service in St. Mary's Church on Sunday at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. and at Friday at 7:30 P. M.

The steamer McCully came up Tuesday bringing a light freight. She carried over 200 barrels of flour away on her down trip. Old debilitated men, whose youthful indiscretions have brought upon them disease of an incurable character, can find new life and vigor in Pfunder's Oregon Blood Purifier.

A petition has been circulated here this week asking for an increase in the mail service, from this place to Bridge creek, Wasco county, from a weekly to a semi-weekly. Johnny Gray came near furnishing us with a first class item this week. His horse became frightened and ran away with him, running over a hack and throwing Johnny off, but not injuring him.

Business men should not forget that blank notes, bill-heads, statements, letter-heads, and every description of commercial printing are neatly and promptly executed at the GUARD office. Wm Preston has purchased the building, formerly used as a saloon, one door south of Dunn's brick building and has removed his stock to that place. Preston keeps a large stock always on hand.

Mrs. Henry H. Giltry will be a passenger on the outgoing steamer Oregon for San Francisco, where her husband will join her about the 1st of June, prior to the final departure for Washington City. We acknowledge a call from Calvin B. McDonald a former editor of the Salem Statesman, and a veteran journalist of the Pacific coast. Mr. McDonald is among us looking in the temperance cause. Dont forget that Baker at the Astor house sets a good table, and at prices that the granger can eat and be happy. He is an accommodating landlord, and all who patronized him may rest assured of the best of treatment.

Grant Osburn has got back from his grouse hunting expedition. Grant was in demand during court week, but the grouse and the pleasures of the rural retreats overbalanced all other considerations, and he remained in retirement during that week. Young girls budding into womanhood and suffering from complaints so prevalent at that particular time, need gentle medicines to strengthen the constitution and build up the system. Pfunder's Oregon Blood Purifier is truly the ladies' blessing.

The fourth quarterly meeting will be held at the M. E. Church to-day and to-morrow. Preaching to-day at 2 P. M., and also preaching to-morrow at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. by Rev. J. S. McCain. Subject, "Mode of Baptism," morning and evening. Peter Kerns has vanished and now indeed is the life of the average Eugene liable to become monotonous, but as Spanwick tore himself away, and lingered not a moment us but made haste to depart, so Peter has shook the mud of our city from his boots, and resolved henceforth not to act in the role of an exposé.

The Old Fellow's picnic last Saturday was well attended and all seemed to enjoy the occasion. The pleasure of the day was however somewhat marred by the failure of the steamer with the Harrisburg delegation to arrive. The steamer stuck on a bar and was compelled to return. Navigating the upper river at this season of the year is like the game of chance. We have heard of considerable dissatisfaction in regard to the time that the mails leave here for Isabel post office. The mail carrier leaves here Friday morning and as all the papers in the valley, are published on Friday or Saturday they have to remain at this office for one week and are old when they reach their subscribers. The schedule should be changed so as to make Monday morning the time for leaving this office.

A man was arrested in Linn county last week, and brought here charged with appropriating a horse to his own. The grand jury, which was in session at the time, brought in an indictment against him; the time being too short to go to trial, that term of court, he was bound over in the sum of $500 to appear at the next term of court. He readily furnished the bonds and was released. BLUE RIBBON CLUB.—At the meeting of the Blue Ribbon Club last Wednesday evening Calvin B. McDonald lectured on temperance. A crowded house greeted the lecturer, and the audience appeared well satisfied with the effort.

Band Music.

Some time ago a challenge appeared in the Trumpet Notes, published at Elkheart, Indiana, at the instance of the "University Brass Band," Eugene City, challenging any band in the state to play, except the East and West Portland, and the Aurora bands. The Lakeview cornet band has accepted the challenge, and also includes every other band in Grant, Umatilla, Baker, Josephine, Curry, Coos, Clatsop, Tillamook, Union, Polk, Washington and Wasco counties. If the University Band does not "take water," the quiet hills of Southern Oregon may be awakened in the near future with as lively music as was made by the Modoc band, years ago.—Statesman.

Open Air Concert.

The fifth open air concert by the Eugene City brass band (weather permitting) from the balcony of the St. Charles this evening at 7:30 o'clock, sharp. The following programme will be rendered: 1—Quickstep, "Harry Quit Your Fooling." 2—Selection, Mixed Candy, by Caywood. 3—Quickstep, Mocking Bird, by special request. 4—Waltz. 5—Polka. 6—Quickstep, "Sweet By and By, by F. Renfield. By order of the Band.

At Colfax.

From the Palouse Gazette Colfax, we take the following in regard to some of our former fellow townsmen: Mr. Frank Harrington arrived in Colfax last Sunday, with his wife and family, and a stock of goods, on his way to his future home at Farmington. Mr. Harrington has chosen a good location, and we expect to see him become one of the prominent merchants of the Palouse country. Geo. S. Washburne, Esq., a lively young disciple of Blackstone, and Mr. M. C. Felsh, both of Eugene City, Oregon, made us a pleasant call on Tuesday. They are both looking for business locations and fortunes. We hope they may not be disappointed.

Celebrate.

We notice that several towns in the valley have already commenced preparations for the celebration of the Fourth of July. Why cannot Eugene be made the point for a grand celebration this year? We have fine groves, shady streets and accommodations that are ample to satisfy all who may come. Instead of spending our money in excursions to other towns, let us celebrate at home and draw the crowd to us. To do this preparations should be commenced.

The Hyers Sisters.

The Hyers Sisters combination gave one of their entertainments at Lane's hall last Monday night. The many handsome compliments that have been paid this company by the press of this state and others have not been amiss as all who witnessed the entertainment can testify. The songs were excellent and won the applause of the large audience that filled the hall.

Rain.

The late rain has been very beneficial to nearly all our farmers; while not heavy enough to stop them from work it has loosened the ground and will start the grain already sown. The farmers are all working busily and we believe the acreage sown will be up to the average.

Enterprise.

The Daily Standard of Portland, on last Sunday printed an 8 column paper, with illustrations of the wreck of the Great Republic, and a full account of the same. Mr. Noltner is one of the most enterprising publishers in this state; and Democrats, should give the Standard a generous support.

For Sale.

Two hundred head of fine stock sheep for sale. For further information apply at this office.

The Berger Family.

This famous company of musical artists, as will be seen by an advertisement in another column, will appear at Lane's hall on Thursday evening of next week. This is one of the largest, most elegant, and expensive entertainments given by them and of the highest order of merit. This company came out from the East under engagement to Chas E. Locke of the Bush Street Theatre, San Francisco, who is under contract to pay them $1,000 per week, together with their entire expenses. This is the largest contract ever made by Mr. Locke since his advent on the Pacific Coast, and it is owing to a combination of circumstances that our citizens are enabled to hear them prior to their appearance in Portland. The troupe number 16 artists, and are accompanied by the celebrated comedian, Mr. Sol Smith Russell. We hope our citizens will show by their attendance that they are not slow to appreciate a good thing when the opportunity offers. Seats can be obtained at Crain Bros.

Serious Question.

EUGENE CITY, May 1, 1878. EDITOR GUARD:—Will some one advise the citizens and taxpayers of this city who influenced the free students at the State University to swear that they were "permanent residents of Eugene City," etc., under the law, when the law by which they are free scholars explicitly says they shall be citizens from the county from which they were appointed. And further will the Board of Regents explain why they, as the custodians of the peoples money and the rights of the commonwealth, allow under the law and constitution of this State those who swear on oath that they are citizens of Eugene to exercise the right of free scholarship when they know positively that they have to be citizens of other counties to exercise said right of free scholarship. Will some one answer, and at the same time we refer him to Judge Deady's lecture on "Cities and Towns." Cos.

The Forgetfulness of People.
