

Proposed Ovation to Grant.

In a few months more, it is known the great American traveler, Ulysses S. Grant will land in San Francisco after finishing his trip around the world.

Much of the fruit in the vicinity of Ashland and Phoenix has been destroyed by the frosts of the past week.

John Hannan, in the Grave creek district, is now cleaning bedrock and will probably realize $2,500 from the past season's work.

M. Colwell, the sub-contractor of the Ashland-Lakeview route, refuses to give up the ghost and makes an occasional trip to Linkville.

The M. E. Church South will immediately commence the erection of a church building at Phoenix. It will be 24x50 feet in size, with a bell-fry.

A party of Chinamen attempted to go into the laundry business at Ashland last week, but were assaulted with stones and sticks and compelled to go away.

Salem Statesman: People who are complaining about so much rainy weather for May would do well to think back to 1875. In that year there was but two pleasant days during that month.

Homer D. Harkness of Grave creek has discovered rich diggings in his field, finding several $3 and $4 nuggets. He is now engaged in bringing a ditch to this location and will put up a small hydraulic next season.

We are assured by a semi-official organ that "despite his gentleness of manner, Mr. Hayes is a man of stern purpose and iron nerve." And yet, remarks the Washington Post, there was a time when this granite formation was eruptive with a lava-tide of tears.

THE GOLD RING. THE SAN DOMINGO RING. Corrupt Politicians. Corrupt Politicians.

Large Bottle of "CROOKED WHISKY". Box of Cigars. Wagons containing the presents received by the General, from wealthy men, during his term of office, and which most people regard as a kind of quid pro quo for favors received or to be received.

SOUTHERN CARPET-BAGGERS. Large concourse of people from all parts of the country, composed mainly of political charlatans, dead-beats, and those in favor of a corrupt, dishonest and tyrannical administration of the affairs of State, singing in their glee, "All Hail to the Chief."

ZAC "BOSS" CHANDLER SHEPPARD JIM BLAINE and other Presidential aspirants walking in solemn silence. STATE NEWS. Grain prospects in Polk county are very flattering.

Siletz Indians are said to be suffering for muckanuck. Bear, deer and cougars are plentiful at Yaquina Bay. A fine limestone quarry has been found near Linkville.

Five marriage licenses were granted in Polk county during April. Many new buildings are making themselves seen at Independence. Mr. Kelly, living near Independence has a mare which recently gave birth to twins.

Albany will have the biggest kind of time on the 22d when the Odd Fellows dedicate their temple. The boat-puller of Badollet & Co's boat No. 36, was drowned a few days ago while attempting to come ashore, the boat having capsized in the surf. The other man being a good swimmer reached the shore.

About seventeen miles of the grading on the west side railroad is ready for the iron which will arrive about the first of June. Last Friday the place formerly belonging to Mr. Sel. Cravens, deceased, living about three miles east of Salem, was sold at administrator's sale for $15 65 per acre. The low price secured was due to special causes, and not to depreciation in the price of land.

It's a poor mule that can't kick both ways.

Considerable rain has fallen in Josephine county recently which enables the miners to continue operations.

Then the lacrimal flood burst its barriers, and he wept "not for himself, but for the poor colored people of the South."
