CITY AND COUNTY. BRIEF MENTION.

See the change in W. C. Myers ad. Judge Deady came up on Friday train. Chew Jackson's best sweet navy tobacco. Five pounds of Coffee for a dollar at R. G. Callison's. M. C. Felch was registered at the St. Charles hotel at Portland one dry this week. Subscriber for the GUARD. Thirty columns of reading matter for $2.50 per year. Thos. C. J. B. Alexander, and Mr. Landrig started for the Siuslaw Wednesday. A disastrous fire swept over the Dalles Wednesday evening. Loss estimated at $100,000. Some vandal broke one of the large glass in the front of Mrs. Renfrews brick, one night last week.

The meetings that have been held at the Brick church this week, will be continued through next week.

The probabilities are that Eugene will celebrate the Fourth of July at Junction, go a fishing, or stay at home.

Mr. J. C. Church, and Dr. T. W. Shelton went to Albany Monday to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F.

What's in a name?—"Will you Joaquin to my parlor?" said the spider to the fly. "Oh, no, you're only Joaquin," the latter did reply.

Preaching in the M. E. Church to-morrow at 11 p.m. by the pastor, Rev. A. Atwood. Sunday School at 3 p.m., L. G. Adair, superintendent. Evening service at 7:30 p.m.

Servants at the Baptist church to-morrow morning and evening. Morning subject, "Searching the Scriptures;" evening subject, "Christian Baptism." Sunday School at 3 p.m.

L. G. Adair, the O. & C. R. R. agent at this station has been taking a rest this week visiting places in the valley. Mr. T. F. Albee conducted the business during the absence of Mr. Adair.

Mr. George Herbert, who has been attending the University, left for his home at the Dalles yesterday. He was a recipient of a serenade on the evening previous to his departure. He will return to school next year.

A monster hail and rain storm passed over Salem Wednesday evening about 6 o'clock. Every skylight in the city was broken, and a number of stores deluged with water. One of the hailstones weighed 163 grains. The loss is estimated by the Statesman at $7,000.

The friends of Mr. George Humphrey made him a handsome present in the shape of a gold headed cane as he started for the Soda springs Monday. Crain Bros. engraved the head of the cane in a manner that proves them to be skillful workmen. The cane cost $65.

We publish to-day the ordinance enacting the Sunday law, which prohibits the sale of liquor on Sunday, except on the prescription of a practicing physician. We understand that it is the intention of the council to pass an ordinance closing all places of business on Sunday.

We call attention to the advertisement of Miss McCorkle in this issue. Those wishing work done in her line, millinery or dressmaking, will do well to call on that lady. Shop in the building formerly occupied by Misses Holloway and Linder, one door south of R. G. Callison's.

The Eugene City Brass band has been engaged to play at Junction City on the Fourth of July. They furnish 12 pieces and receive $125. Both of the Eugene bands are engaged for the occasion at Junction, and we can assure the people who attend that the music furnished will be the best, as our bands are second to none in the state.

"He that hath not music in his soul nor is not moved by concord of sweet sounds," should keep away from Eugene on the evening when the bands give their open air concert if he does not desire to have his nature radically changed. The concerts last Saturday were really fine and were appreciated by all lovers of music.

We learn of an occurrence below town that happened Saturday came near being fraught with serious consequences. Two young men were keeping company with a young lady when one of them became jealous, and after a few words shot at his more fortunate rival, the ball passing through his coat sleeve in two places. The man with the pistol now "holds the fort," the other one not wishing to venture back. No arrests.

THE MARIQUETTES.—The Royal Mariquettes will perform here June 2. They come well recommended by the press. The Oakland, Cal. Star says of this troupe: "There the clergyman can 'split his sides' laughing, the care-worn mother can take her little ones and just go into hysterics over the fun. The dyspeptic will there find the best remedy for all his ills—the lean man can 'laugh and grow fat,' and the fat man can laugh and grow lean. It is good for the boys and girls, it is good for everybody, and we are going again to see them when they return here."

NEARLY DROWNED.—Miss Tilda Scott of Creswell, came very near being drowned last Friday, a week ago, while crossing the Coast Fork on horse back. The horse went into swimming water, and commenced to rear and plunge throwing Miss Scott from the saddle; fortunately she succeeded in catching the stirrup as she fell, to which she held until the horse swam ashore.

UNFORTUNATE.—The accident to Mr. Skaggs of which a notice was given in last weeks GUARD, we regret to say, more serious than we at that time supposed. The ankle of one leg was crushed, and the other leg sustained a fracture below the knee. Mr. Skaggs, in his misfortune, has the sympathy of the whole community.

ENLARGED.

With this issue of the GUARD we take a new departure by enlarging the paper to double the size it has been heretofore. We can now give to our readers, besides our local news, all important congressional, and other telegraphic news, with well selected miscellany. The subscription price will remain the same, although the extra cost to us will be considerable.

To enable us to carry out this measure we are compelled to call on those of our subscribers, who are delinquent, for the several amounts due this office. It takes money to run a newspaper, and we are becoming tired of sending our paper to men who are from one to five years behind. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

Council Proceedings.

COUNCIL ROOMS, EUGENE CITY, May 17, 1879. Council met pursuant to adjournment.

Present—President Dorris; Councilmen Dunn, Sloan, McClung, Edris, Church; Recorder and Marshal.

Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

On motion the Recorder was authorized to draw warrant in favor of Wm. Withrow for $15 for services as night watch.

On motion the order of miscellaneous business was taken up and the council provided to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Underwood. Mr. Underwood was re-elected as a member of the council sworn in, and assumed his duties.

On motion the vote by which ordinance No. 11 was adopted was re-considered. The ordinance was rejected, and another substituted in its stead.

On motion the matter of building a fence and sidewalk on ground leased from the county was referred to committee on streets.

A petition to gravel Oak street was read and referred to committee on streets.

On motion the bills of P. H. Farrel, $38.80, and $19; were ordered paid.

The Recorder reported the assessment of the city at about $500,000 and a tax of 5 mills on the dollar was levied.

A resolution requesting the Marshal to measure gravel beds used in hauling for the city, and see that each load contains one cubic yard was offered and adopted.

On motion the judiciary committee was authorized to prepare an ordinance in regard to the taxation of dogs in the city.

The following bills were presented. John Christian, $11.50; Wm Christian, $16.50.

On motion the council adjourned. H. KNOX, Recorder.

Siuslaw Items.

Our correspondent at Siuslaw, under date of May 20th, sends us the following items: The Siuslaw grange commencing building a hall sometime this summer.

The Spring fights opened last week between Tom Jones and Terry Johnson.

Preliminary steps have been taken to hold an agricultural fair in Siuslaw next fall.

Robt. Baker had to blister his thorough bred stallions heels to keep him from kicking down all the barns in the valley.

Last Friday night an itinerant minstrel show held forth at the green door school house which by the way was a complete fiasco.

The late constant rain, it is feared is not doing the Fall sowed grain any good, and the average farmer is anxious to see old "Sol" come out from behind the clouds and show his hand.

The grading on the new wagon road from Siuslaw to Cottage Grove has been pushed rapidly forward. Already the hardest part of the grading has been completed. Mart Wingard, the superintendent, is the right man in the right place, being a miner of long experience. In addition to directing the work of the road, he does not scruple to lay hold of the pick and shovel and say "follow me I am the way."

Irving Items.

The dance on the 16th we learn was an enjoyable affair. About 30 tickets were sold. Joseph Beatty has employed some men to burn a coal pit, from which they will draw about 6000 bushels.

The Lacelle troupe gave one of their entertainments here on the 19th, but owing to the inclement weather it was ably attended.

The public school at this place has an attendance of about 30 scholars. Both the patrons and pupils are manifesting quite an interest in the school. There is besides the day school an evening school which meets every Wednesday evening. The young folks have found this to be both interesting and instructive.

Last Friday morning, a week ago, as Mr. Ed Murphy was passing the residence of Mr. Hill he stopped at the house for a few moments, and soon became engaged in a dispute with Wilford Bywater, a man in the employ of Mr. Hill; from words soon came to blows, when Bywater drew a revolver and fired at Murphy, the ball passing through his coat sleeve.

Anniversary Meeting.

SPRINGFIELD, May 18, 1879.

EDITOR GUARD.—By the request of Springfield grange No. 12, P. H., I send you the following resolution passed at our last regular meeting: Resolved, That we have an Anniversary meeting the first Saturday in June, dispense the rules, bring our families, invite all members of good standing, in other granges, through the Eugene papers and otherwise, and have a jolly good time. Bro. M. H. Harlow was appointed to secure music for the occasion. P. WILCOX Secretary.

The Band Controversy.

EUGENE CITY, May 22, 1879. EDITOR GUARD.—I desire with your permission to occupy a little of the space of your valuable paper, and also to trespass on the patience of your many patrons. I offer as an apology for so doing the necessity of being a replicant to a low, slanderous and scurrilous communication that appeared in the Journal bearing date of 13th ult., and signed by the members of the Eugene City Brass Band.

I have endeavored at all times in the discussion of matters pertaining to Brass Bands, to avoid all personalities, and I am sure every person that has read my communication to the press on this subject, will not differ with me when I say that I have written fairly, openly and candidly stated. The members of the Eugene City Brass Band evidently, are disposed to pursue a different course from what I have taken and instead of entering into a fair discussion of the band question seek rather to gain notoriety by an unwarlike and unjustifiable attack on me, inasmuch as I am the leader of the University Band. I shall take up the charges as they appeared in the Journal and shall before I get through, "give honor to whom honor is due," and show the people to whom the members of the Eugene City Band, that wrote, signed and procured the signatures of the other members of said to the slanderous communication that appeared above their signatures.

The first charge is, that in my communication to the Trumpet Notes I stated that the Eugene City Band had dwindled from twelve horns to one horn and drum. This charge I deny inasmuch as the communication I sent to the Trumpet Notes bearing date of July 10, 1878, I stated that the Eugene Brass Band had dwindled from 12 horns, to 7 horns and drum, being the actual number of persons at that time were bona-fide members of the band. I gained my information from Mr. Chas. Horn who told me that the pupils that Mr. Farrell was then training were not considered members of the band, and that it made no difference whether they paraded with the band on the 4th of July or not, they would not be entitled to any pay, and what is more Trumpet Notes did not say the Eugene Band had only one horn and drum, but as printed—one horn and drum.—(It take but little thought to discern that I singular and horns plural, and in setting up type this figure I might be very easily inserted for the figure 7, showing that it was nothing more than a typographical error, for which the publishers of the Trumpet Notes are alone responsible. This explanation I have made to the members of the Eugene Band, time and again and should I think be accepted as it is the truth. In my communication to Trumpet Notes bearing date of March 17, 1879, I copied it as it appeared in the city paper with the addition of a parenthesis (ten dollars) as I was persons of showing what this "enormous expense" amounted to. Mr. Chas. Horn informed that his band had levied an assessment of ten dollars to buy music, and if my communication to Trumpet Notes is erroneous, let me be blamed. The members of the band in this communication, only in the kind of type used in printing my letter inasmuch as a portion of my letter was printed with nonpareil type, when it should have been printed with small pica type, thereby making my own communications appear as an extract from some grand sales.

This explanation I have offered many times but it seems that the members of the Eugene City Brass Band are not willing to accept anything reasonable, but will, instead resort to vilifying me for which I am not in the least responsible. In order to show your readers that I have been a welcome contributor to one of the band magazine in the United States or Canada, I have only to submit the following letter from C. G. Conn, Esq., editor and publisher of Trumpet Notes: J. H. BROWN, Eugene City, Dear Sir:—We duly received your communication for Trumpet Notes and will publish the same in our next number. Accept our thanks and write again as often as once a month if possible. Yours &c. C. G. CONN.

The members of the Eugene City Brass Band deny the fact of my having organized their band. Let us see who tells the truth this time. But before I enter into discussing this subject, desire it to be distinctly understood, that I do not intend to slander any one, but shall lay the blame and censure on the party that deserves it, inasmuch as P. H. Farrel, Wm. Christian, Ed. Dorris, Al. Jackson, J. B. Rinehart, Ike Steinhiser and George Smith were not in any way connected with the organization of the Eugene City Brass Band and what they know concerning the same is only hearsay. It becomes my duty to say that their evidence in this particular part of the case, is not admissible and that they placed their signatures to a document that contained charges of a grave nature without having any information or knowledge of charges therein contained. Let me give those persons a little advice: be careful gentlemen in the future about attaching your names to documents the nature of which you are not well acquainted with. Now, Mr. Chas. Horn as you was not a member of the Eugene City Band at the time of its first organization; you cannot be in possession of any information whereby you can accuse me of taking a cap or prove me to be guilty of any other misdemeanor, of which I am charged in a certain document that bears your signature among other members of the Eugene City Brass Band. Your love for the truth, and for the sake of your own honor, you will be compelled to admit, that you know nothing of the circumstances mentioned in the document, document, and your love of the truth will also deter you in denying that on Saturday evening, May 17, 1879, you told me in your own workshop, that you knew very little of what the letter contained (that bears your signature) before its publication in the Journal; also that K. Peters "seemed to know most about this business" and I. K. Peters brought the letter to your Band room and obtained your signatures with that of other members of the band. This you stated to me most explicitly. It now appears your yourself, J. H. Christian and George Hill have also been duped into signing a low scurrilous document, without knowing but very little of the contents of the same. Now, Mr. Wm. Killingsworth, please tell the public, who were the parties engaged in the price fight mentioned in the letter in the Journal, having your signature, with that of other members of the Eugene City Brass Band and write you are in so signing; you deny the fact that I organized the band of which you are now a member, I beg leave to refresh your memory with a few of the facts now in my possession. I arrived in Eugene City, March 23, 1872, and was hired as leader of the Eugene band in a few days after my arrival. I was appointed a committee to draw up a constitution and by-laws for the government of the band which was adopted and entered in the band book in my handwriting, and if not destroyed is still in the possession of your band. The statement that Prof. Francis was present at the first meeting of the Eugene City Brass Band held over the store of A. V. Peters & Co. is very erroneous as I was present myself, and played for the persons that afterwards composed the band and tuned their horns for them, and it was at this very meeting the terrible mistake was made in connection with Ed. Dorris. Mr. Thos. Belshaw can testify to these facts.

You also stated in your communication that the old band book shows an entry "Paid Dr. Renfrew, May 17, $25.75 for four weeks and two days board," and you say "this proves that he was here four weeks and two days before the 17th of May and which altogether proves the fact to have been organized here." This statement is false, for I received my first month's salary from the Eugene City Brass Band on April 28th, 1872 and if the band members did not pay my board bill before May 24th, it proves for a certainty they were delinquent in paying their debts. Please see Mr. L. K. Peters bill as stated; yourself, Mr. McClung and Mr. Felch organized the Eugene Band the reason why yourself Mr. McClung and Mr. Felch were nearly a month in getting your horns in tune, and how at the time I took charge of the band your band was trying to play "Home, Sweet Home" with your Ed. Tubey in Dflat, your Ed. Tubey in C natural and your Ed. Tubey in A natural! Please also explain the reason why (if your band was organized some considerable time before I came here) you were all so ignorant concerning the scales of your instruments, so much so, that you were only able to make open sounds on your horns. The mistake with the scales resulting from the inability of the person blowing it to discern the difference between an open sound and a valve sound. You say I refused to play the string band for the benefit of the Eugene City Brass Band. You are in error. You want to know by what right we use the name of the University for our band? By an unanimous vote of the band.

You say I took one of the caps purchased for the Eugene Band by the young ladies and that I have always refused to give it up. I answer: that you know this to be a falsehood, as I was elected leader of the band before the caps were purchased and more than that the cap was given to wear by one of the young ladies that composed the committee. You also say I had a suit made contrary to the desires of the young ladies and had it charged to them. Read this and you who paid for that suit.

EUGENE CITY, June 25, 1874. J. H. BROWN bought of A. V. Peters & Co. 3 yards of red flannel @ 75c. $2.25 1 yard of blue do. @ 1.00. 1.00 Buttons and thread.37 2 1/2 yds drilling @ 50 cents. 1.00 $4.87

Rec'd payment, A. V. Peters & Co. In addition to this I paid Mrs. Watkins $3.00 for making the shirt and pants showing that altogether what I spent at the band social amounted to over $10. Does this look like taking a cap and a suit from the young ladies. You say I have not made a musician in the whole eight years I have been in Eugene. I have proven to the satisfaction of the people of Lane County that there is not a person that is in any way connected with the Eugene City Band that can lay claim to the title of a musician.

Yes, Mr. I. K. Peters, hush up all you can from the musty leaves of your old band book, and you will make the fact appear as clear as the noonday sun that you did not hesitate to swindle Mr. Thos. Belshaw out of ten dollars, which was his rightful portion of the money earned by the band in their summer engagement; you will also find a rich lead in connection with your swindling operations practiced on Mr. George Kinsey, in depriving him of his portion of the band property, amounting in the aggregate to $23. You say I wrote to the Oregonian and signed leader E. C. Band I answer; I signed nothing of the kind to my letter. Every communication I have written has been signed U. C. Band, and if it appeared otherwise in the Oregonian I am not responsible. If I was voted out of the Eugene City Band it was done after my informing your band, that I should have nothing to do with it. Even if it is true as you allege it shows that the members of the Eugene Band paid more attention to this transaction than they did to your feelings, at the time they got rid of you, when you were the figure head of the band as leader of the band, without asking or giving you time to offer your resignation.

No one, after reading your letter, Mr. L. K. Peters, will accuse you of undue familiarity with "Webster's Unabridged;" hereafter your statements should be taken by the public at large as grand sales.

In conclusion let me say to the Eugene City Brass Band, that I have never received any invitation from any member of their band to visit them at their band room; and as for fighting the Eugene Band I can assure you that I have had something else to do during the past eight years. I have always endeavored to be friendly with the members of the Eugene Band, and the leader of the band can testify that I transposed his music for the band for some considerable time after he had accepted the position as leader, and helped as much as possible, to ensure the success of the band. I regret very much that my zeal for good music should be regarded as an overbearing and domineering act, and I must say that I have had no other motive in view but the elevation of music, and that also of the bands of Oregon. As for my communication to Trumpet Notes, I shall always feel at liberty to give expression to my opinions concerning the bands of Oregon. I also hope the Eugene City Brass Band will accept the challenge of the State University Band and come forward in a friendly manner and assist in making the conditions under which we may contest. We will do anything in our power to facilitate business and shall only be too glad to contest for a cash prize as well as the honor. J. H. BROWN, Leader University Cornet Band.

Junction City Items.

The new brewery has commenced operation.

The Junction base ball club will contest the field, in a match game, with Muddy club this afternoon.

Junction will have a gang of "Plug Uglies" on the Fourth.

A couple of young men named Mann and Lamb had two fights near Monroe in one day. A woman was the bone of contention.

Mr. John Jeans of Long Tom, on last Monday sold to Mr. Salomon, the bacon of a hog which weighed 423 pounds. The sides weighed 183, the hams 121, and the shoulders 119lb.

Sheriff Eakin last Tuesday sold at public auction the furniture of Geo. H. Kaiser to satisfy a judgement in favor of F. S. Dunning of Albany.

Mr. G. H. Marshall had a narrow escape from drowning last Tuesday. In crossing a slough the horses got into swimming water, and came near swamping the entire concern.

The arrangements for celebrating the Fourth at Junction City are progressing as rapidly as possible. Hon. John H. Mitchell, of Portland, will deliver the oration, Rev. J. P. McCorkle will officiate as chaplain, and it is expected that W. S. McFadden, of Corvallis, will be the reader of the day. Both of the Eugene bands have been engaged for the occasion and no effort will be spared to make this one of the best celebrations ever held in the central Willamette valley.

Veterans Mexican War to the Front! EUGENE CITY, May 22, 1879. There will be a meeting of the surviving soldiers of the Mexican way held at Salem June 17, 1879, at the same time and place of the meeting of the Oregon Pioneers Association, for the purpose of organizing a re-union, and devising means for their mutual interests. A full attendance is requested. J. F. AMIS.

Ladies' Attention. Berlin Fashion Patterns at Dunn & Stratton's.

Do not be induced to endanger your life by using mercurial "blood purifiers," they may dry up old sores, but leave a death snap in the system. But Pfister's Oregon Blood Purifier, which is a purely vegetable one, and, in fact, will remove, by continual use, all mercurial poison from the blood.

Pfister's medicines are made from Oregon roots, herbs and barks, and are not potent specimens, but purely vegetable family remedies.
