Severe Criticism of Foster and the Ohl Convention-How it will Affect Grant.

NEW YORK, June 2 .- The Times and Herald to-day plainly intimate that Fos-ter, of Ohio is in the hands of machine politicians. Judicial Election in Illinois.

CHICAGO, June 2 .- A judicial election occurred in Illinois to-day, circuit judges being elected in the various districts and also three judges of the supreme court In this circuit there was a regular democratic and a regular republican ticket. The result will not be known before midnight ; for although there was a very light vote, there was a great amount of scratching, scarcely any of the tickets being straight-out partisan. The im-pression seems to prevail that the democratic nominees carried the city by a con-siderable majority and that the republican nominces received majority of votes in the country towns. Nothing whatever is known of results outside of this circuit. It was the original intention before the nominations to put a non-partisan ticket, as is usual in judicial elections here; but the democrats forced a party issue. The republicans were unfortunate in nominating two or three improper per-sons, whose dead weight on the ticket has been the cause of much injury to them.

was broken up, however, by the arrest and conviction of most of the members of the gang for other crimes. Then he organized a second gang, in which were Jimmy Hope, George Howard, John Dobbs, Jim Brady and others. They also had in league with them a man employed as watchman at odd hours in the bank. Two attempts were made by the gang to rob the bank, but each failed through the inability of the watchman to meet engagements. This gang also broke up; but Hope, convinced of the feasibility of the scheme, reorganized his forces. Dobbs ("Big Kid") again, and others equally skilled and desperate, joined him, and the work began in earnest. One Sunday morning when the friendly watchman was on duty in the bank, Hope was let into the building and used this opportunity to thoroughly examine the vaults. The next Sunday he returned and taught the watchman how to use wax in taking an impression of the key hole. The watchman, Pat Sleevin, was an apt scholar and soon returned the lump which the burglar had brought, with an impression from which the latter was able to make a key for the outer door on Bleeker street which was found to fit and put by for use. This attempt also failed for want of time ; but an entrance to the vault containing the safes was effected. Eight months later, negotiations were again opened with the watchman, Sleevin, and finally the job was put up for Sunday morning, the 27th of October, and in it were Jimmy Hope, Kelly and Dobbs together with the nightwatchman, Sleevin. It was thought that Sleevin would have charge of the bank that night ; but an accident frustrated it. The gang resolved, however, to carry out the plan after the nightwatchman had left, and when the daywatchman came on.

CHEVENNE, June 5.-Three renegade Chevennes who shot and killed Private Bader, and wounded Signal Sergeant Kennedy while en route to Fort Keogh, Montana, and who were turned over to the civil authorities at Mills City, Montana, to answer a charge of murder, were on Tuesday last sentenced to be hung on the 7th of July. The same evening two of them committed suicide by hanging in the cells of the guard house at Fort Keogh.

The Ohio Greenback Convention.

COLUMBIA (O.), June 5.-The state greenback convention adopted a resoluion directing the chairman to rule out of order any resolution looking to a coalition with the democratic party. The platform adopted declares against favor-tism in the distribution of civil and political rights on account of color, creed or condition; demands an ample issue by the government of full legal tender currency to meet business needs and pay all the country's debts; recognizes the appaling condition of the country, and holds the old parties responsible there-for; declares it to be folly to hope for relief from either of them; charges that recent legislation has been solely in the interest of moneyed aristocrats and corrupt corporations; denounces the whole refunding scheme as disastrous and iniquitous to all classes of labor; says the national bank system should be abolished; demands that a tariff for the protection of American industries be maintained until a free financial system shows it unnecessary to tax labor for the support of capital; favors an income tax; mands the calling in and payment of all U. S. bonds in full legal tender; asks the equalization of bounties; denounces all reference to the late civil war.

Gen. Sherwood presented the views of the minority against the platform, which was bitterly discussed and voted down, whereupon many delegates left the convention.

The convention nominated the follow ing ticket : For governor, General A. Sawyers; lieutenant governor, Hugo Pryor; auditor, Andrew Roy; treasurer, Charles Jenkins; supreme judge, A. M. Jackson; attorney general, James C. Crogan; member of the board of public works, George W. Platt.

Sen-ator Thurman, in behalf of the joint committee, submitted a report and explained its features and grounds upon which the committee had based their conclusions. In the course of his speech he scouted the idea that the adoption of the course proposed could be considered a backing down on the part of the democracy. The first of these sections prescribes the jurors' oath. There was practical unanamity of opinion in cancus that this section should be repealed. The other section authorizes judges of the U. Journed. Senate. WASHINGTON, June 6. The senate concurred in the house amondment to sonate bill No. 516, to extend the time of special postal service until service can be obtained by ad-vertisement, said amendment being to limit the extension to one year. Coke asked Bayard, chairman of the finance committee, what action had been taken on the Warner silver bill. Bayard said that no member had been instructed to report on the bill.

to report on the bil. Coke said that his sense of duty led him to offer a resolution to discharge the committee from con-sideration of the bill and to declare the bill before the senate for action.

sideration of the bill and to declare the bill before the senate for action. Edmunds objected, and the resolution went over. Edmunds resumed his remarks on the bill to re-peal sections 801, 820 and 821 of the revised stat-utes. He appeared to be atraid to leave the quali-fications of jurors with the states, but section 800 left them there, and by that section the law of Maryland would exclude blacks from the jury box. The republican party upheld and enforced that section, and did not find fault with it until 1875, when a law was passed forbidding any discrimina-tions for jurors in federal couris on account of race, color or previous condition. Now, if the set of 1875 prevented discrimination under the state law of Maryland, then it would still provent it, in spite of this bill.

revented discrimination under the state law of Mariand, then it would still provent it, in spite of this bill. In the course of Edmunds remarks Thurman in-ferrupted to say that unanimous consent could probably now be obtained to reconsider the vote so that it might still be amended. He intimated that Edmunds' amendment offered ysterday, which the third reading of the bill was ordered, so that it might still be amended. He intimated that Edmunds' amendment offered ysterday, while onsidered unnecessary, would not again be may be added to a state the court of the state on the bill.
