FORNIX.

Telegram.

London, Aug. 15.—The house of J. P. Morgan has just learned that the United States and the Bank of England have decided upon the construction of the Grande-Pont Bridge. The bridge will be completed, it is said, by the end of the year. The United States government will pay the cost of the bridge, and the Bank of England will receive the lease of the bridge.

Foreign Exchange.

London, Aug. 15.—Morgan & Co., the American bankers, have decided to raise the price of the United States government bonds, which are selling at par, to 92. This is the first time in the history of the United States government that the price of the bonds has been raised.

In a Word.

Boston, Aug. 15.—The Boston Stock Exchange has decided to issue a new bill of exchange, which is to be sold at par. The bill will be sold at par, and the proceeds will be used for the construction of the new Boston Stock Exchange.

The United States government has decided to issue a new bond, which is to be sold at par. The bond will be sold at par, and the proceeds will be used for the construction of the new United States government.