

CITY AND COUNTY.

REMOVAL.

Patrons of the GUARD will take notice that the office has been moved to the building formerly occupied as a store, by J. W. Cleaver, a few doors north of the post office.

Agent at Portland.

Mr. W. L. Eppinger is our authorized agent at Portland.

BRIEF MENTION.

Three persons confined in the county jail all awaiting the action of the grand jury. Patronize John Lenger if you want good milk. He furnishes a first rate quality at a reasonable price.

The proprietors of the I X L store have leased their present quarters for a term of two years, and will soon commence fitting it up more conveniently.

Business men should not forget that blank notes, bill-heads, statements, letter-heads, and every description of commercial printing are neatly and promptly executed at the GUARD office.

Billy Casteel the Junction drayman attempted to cross the railroad track with his dray, Saturday morning, just as the train was backing up, and was caught by it, throwing the dray to one side, without material injury. A lucky escape.

The St. Charles Restaurant is a cosy place kept by Mrs. A. Renfrew in the brick building adjoining the old St. Charles hotel. A number of neat lodging rooms also belong to the house. Meals and lodging, 25 cents each. Board lodging by the week on reasonable terms. Give her a call.

Christian Church.

Eld. Hubbard still continues preaching at the Christian Church to an appreciative audience. Nine additions to the church have been made since the commencement of his ministry in this place. The following are the themes for the week:

Sunday morning, "The Son of God a Revolutionist"; Sunday evening, "The Saviour's Sufferings"; Monday evening, "God's Day-Book and Ledger"; Tuesday evening, "The Imperative Command"; Wednesday evening, "The Devil's Opium"; Thursday evening, "The Witch of Endor"; Friday evening, "Through Passport to Heaven"; Saturday evening, "The Christian Race. Also services at 2 P. M. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

The Alliance.

Wednesday's trains brought to this city a large number of delegates to the State Temperance Alliance. The visitors by the evening train were met at the depot by a reception committee, and formed in a procession headed by the University Band, in which order they marched to the M E Church. The exercises so far have been interesting and some lively debates have been indulged in. The evening meetings have filled the house to overflowing, all the standing room even being utilized. Over 200 delegates were in attendance.

A Card.

To the citizens of Eugene City:

There was some talk that the hotels could not accommodate the invited Society. Justice always tells the truth. The Astor House could accommodate 35 more and the St. Charles Restaurant 13. It

JUNCTION MASQUERADE.—The Junction Republic of Feb. 18th, has the following notice of a recent masquerade ball at that place: The masquerade ball on last Friday night, gotten up by Harry Cronin, was a grand success. We would like to give a synopsis of the characters represented, but cannot do so, they not having been handed in. The Junction Republic was represented by Miss May Guthrie and the EUGENE CITY GUARD by Miss Nina Milliron, who were the observed of all observers. Their paper suits suited the occasion so well that many a young man's heart beat time to the music of their footsteps.

SERVICE ORDERED.—We learn that a telegram has been received here ordering the tri-weekly mail service from Eugene to Camp Fork continued. Since about the middle of December no service has been rendered, further than the McKenzie Bridge. The settlers on the other side of the mountains will doubtless be glad to learn of the new state of affairs. Mr. B. F. Powers now has the contract and as he is an energetic and active gentleman will doubtless send the mail through on time.

MASONIC GATHERING.—On last Monday a number of Masons from Albany, Harrisburg and Junction came up on a fraternal visit to the Royal Arch Chapter of this city. After the work of the evening was disposed of, they adjourned to the splendid supper prepared for them at the Astor House. They returned home Tuesday morning.

OREGONIAN CARRIER.—Grant Osburn is now carrier for the Oregonian, with headquarters at Steinheiser's grocery store. The daily delivered any part of town for 25 cents a week. He will also receive subscription for the weekly.

SCHOOL MEETING.—Robt. S. Bean, clerk of this school district, gives notice of a school meeting to be held Monday, March 1st, for the election of a director and clerk, and the transaction of such other business as may come before it.

TWINS.—The wife of T. G. Mounts, living near Smithfield, gave birth to a pair of twins, January 26th. The pair are well provided with toes and fingers, together having 47 of those useful appendages.

NEW MUSIC.—We have received from Bartsch's music store Portland the "Bric a Brac Waltzes." Price, $50 cts.

PUB. DOCS.—We are placed under obligations to Congressman Whiteaker for public documents.

Grand Larceny.

Charles Sargent, an Ex-Convict, Again in Trouble--Bound Over in the Amount of $500.

A youth named Charles Sargent, who has before been ground through the mills of Justice in a fair way to again suffer punishment for his kleptomaniac impulses. The facts of the case are as follows: He had been working for his board on the farm of Mr. John Robinette, about six miles above Cresswell, and on Monday last during the absence of Mr. Robinette broke open the bureau drawers, and abstracted notes to the value of about $600, together with some deeds and other papers. The entire "haul" being of no value to him as nothing could be realized from the papers. Immediately after committing the deed he went to the home of Mr. Knox, whither he was followed by Mr. Robinette, who had in the meantime discovered his loss. He was caught attempting to secrete the papers, and taken to Cottage Grove where a preliminary examination was held before a Justice. He was bound over in the amount of $500 to await the action of the grand jury. Not being able to secure the bond he was brought to this city, and confined in the county jail. The culprit is not yet of age but has already served a term of one year in the penitentiary.

Mysterious Disappearance.

John Mauts Missing --- His Friends Fear Foul Play.

About the middle of last December, John Mauts, who worked at blacksmithing for Ben Rush during the last Summer, started to return to his home and family in Rochester, Missouri. He sailed from Portland on the steamer for San Francisco, and in that city stopped at the International Hotel, and has not since been heard from. His wife received a letter from him dated December 25th, informing her that he would start for home the following day, and though nearly two months have elapsed the sorrowing wife, and also mother since her departure from here, has received no further intelligence from him. Fears are entertained that he has been foully dealt with. Mr. Mauts is about 5 feet 8 inches in height, weight about 215 lbs., and had lost the right index finger.

The Band Concert.

The Eugene Band on the occasion of the Saint Valentine concert, last Saturday evening, was favored with a fair and appreciative audience. The programme prepared for the occasion was excellent, and nothing occurred in the rendition of the several parts to mar the enjoyment of the evening.

The band in its new and beautiful uniform sustained the reputation previously earned, and won merited applause. The sacred music introduced for the first time by the band in Eugene was really fine, and its adaptation for the concert hall is no superior.

"Over the Hills to the Poor House," by Miss Maggie Gray, in appropriate costume, was feelingly rendered and portrayed; the smooth and beautiful face of youth giving place to the wrinkled features of age.

Mr. Wass recited in his usual pleasant manner "The Legend of the Shirt."

"How He Saved St. Michael's," a recitation by Miss Maude Atwater, won merited and favorable comments from the auditors.

Master John Hemenway, in the declamation, "Dot Paby uv Mine," received an enthusiastic encore, he being the only one favored with that distinction during the evening.

The vocal music of the evening was well rendered, although in some of the parts it seemed to lack spirit and strength. The lack of the piano, with its advertisement, used on the occasion, was certainly not "a thing of beauty," and a better position should have been assigned it on the stage.

The receipts netted about $55.

Personal.

"Billy" Mansfield, of Albany, made us a pleasant call this week.

Mrs. A. J. Danniway reported the Alliance for the Oregonian.

Dr. J. P. Gill on Monday took a trip out to the New Idrian Cinnabar Mines.

S. Warshauer, of San Francisco, manager of the I. X. L. store, was in town last week.

Mr. P. C. Reufrew, of McKenzie Bridge, has been in town this week. He reports much snow in the mountains.

We acknowledge a call from Chas. Watts, of the Statesman. He reported the proceedings of the Alliance for the Statesman.

Ben Simpson, Postal Agent, was in town last Saturday attending to business connected with the postal department.

"Elder" Jas. Evans let the light of his countenance shine upon his old friends in Eugene, Monday. He started below for Portland Tuesday.

Capt. N. B. Humphrey, ex-Sheriff Herren, of Albany, came up Monday, and took part with their Masonic brethren in the work of that evening.

"Ike" Steinheiser has accepted a position as clerk in the store of Newstader Bros., Portland. "Ike" is a bright boy, and we predict for him a successful life.

RETIRED.—W. H. Parker has severed his connection with the Junction Republican. Mr. O. T. Porter is now sole proprietor.

Robbery or Rape.

A Black-Hearted Villain Enters the Chamber of a Lady at Night—Is Caught and Now Languisheth in Jail.

We learn that Junction City, and particularly the lodgers at Gilmore's Hotel were thrown into a white heat of excitement, Friday night, Feb. 13th, by an attempt of a man giving his name as John Lance, to commit robbery or rape. About 12 o'clock that night the inmates were awakened by the piercing shrieks of a female boarder. The gallant landlord and boarders rushed to the rescue and found that her room had been entered by her next room neighbor, Lance, he having crawled through the window of his own room, out on a shed and raised the sash of her window. The villain attempted to place her under the influence of chloroform, but before that subtle drug had time to perform its work she aroused sufficiently to cry for help. He attempted to silence her, but failing crawled out through the window, and in his haste to regain his own room slipped and fell to the ground, a distance of about twelve feet. While Mr. Gilmore was loading his shot gun, Lance managed by the aid of a ladder to get back into his own room, where he was found and covered with the aforesaid gun. The marshal was summoned, and on search being made, a razor and a vial of chloroform were found on his person. As the lady was known to have some money in her possession it is questionable as to the nature of the crime contemplated. But giving him the benefit of the doubt concerning the magnitude of the crime, the facts are sufficient to procure him lodgings in the penitentiary. A preliminary examination was held Saturday, before Squire Lafferty resulting in binding the accused over in the sum of $300 to await the action of the grand jury. The lady was also bound over in the amount of $100 to appear as prosecuting witness, which she readily secured. Lance failing to secure bonds was brought up Monday by Marshal Casteel, incarcerated in the county jail.

From Long Tom.

LONG TOM, Feb. 16, 1880.

EDITOR GUARD—Well I have been swinging around the circle for my health. I emerged from the dense forests of the acidic fir and sought the bracing breezes of the big prairie. We found the farmers engaged in plowing and sowing, but somewhat disappointed in not having pleasant weather in February to complete their sowing.

We brought up at Grand Prairie Grange located at the cross roads, Saturday, Feb. 9th, and found the members out in force and much encouraged at the future prospects of the Grange. The Grand Prairie Grange has apparently taken new life.

On Sunday we attended Sabbath School and church at the same. The people of this section are second to none in their efforts to cultivate and maintain institutions of culture and learning.

Monday evening we attended the Taxpayers Club at the same place, expecting to hear a speech from Hon. J. M. Thompson, but he failed to appear. There was a fair turnout, and a number of excellent speeches were made. As for ourself having a better faculty for hearing than speaking, we did not respond to the call. The club has a long list of members, and while there are no candidates among them we are of the opinion that there are several of its members who, if insisted upon would sacrifice their time, and consent to serve the dear people.

On Tuesday evening we attended a social party at Isaac Zumwalt's. The instrumental music rendered by Prof. Quimby and Misses Zumwalt and Green was most excellent. The party continued till 3 o'clock in the morning.

A party came off at T. J. Holland's Friday, Feb. 13th.

Wm. N. (Bobb) Crow has been surveyed in land in this section, giving entire satisfaction.

J. F. McCoy forwarded to-day to Representative Whiteaker, at Washington, a petition for increase of service on Mail route No. 44,138, the route from Eugene to the western part of the county—containing 489 names, and measuring 13 feet and 4 inches in length. He is determined to keep fresh in the minds of the postal department the wants of our people.

A Valuable Horse Drowned.

Last Saturday, Feb. 14th, as Mr. Presley Cheshire was fording a branch of the Willamette river near Eugene, the horse stepped with his hind feet into the root of a tree that was partly covered over with wash gravel. The horse could not get his foot loose, and trying to free himself fell with his rider, breaking the leg that was fast in the root. Mr. Cheshire, anxious to prevent the horse from drowning used his best exertions to free the animal until the horse kicked him, knocking him almost senseless. He floated down with the current quite a distance before recovering sufficiently to swim ashore. Had he not been a good swimmer he would probably have drowned, as he was forty minutes in the water, and was so exhausted as to be barely able to reach home.

B F Dorris was appointed to secure a place of meeting. On motion adjourned until 9 A M to-morrow.

Thursday, Feb. 19.

MORNING SESSION.

On motion a committee of five was appointed to arrange for a childrens temperance society to-day.

The report of committee on constitution and by-laws was taken, and after several amendments were made, it was adopted as a whole.

A number of resolutions were read and referred to the committee on resolutions.

Mr. Whitmore then made a short speech.

B F Dorris, in behalf of the faculty of the State University, extended an invitation to visit the University.

On motion of J A Hanna the invitation was accepted with thanks and that the alliance in compliance with the above invitation to-morrow morning at 8:45 o'clock and return at 10 o'clock.

On motion a special committee of three was appointed to report a synopsis of the present laws on license on the statutes of Oregon, consisting of Capt. Humphrey, J J Walton, R S Bean.

Capt. Humphrey and Mrs A J Danniway were selected to address the childrens meeting at the Brick Church this evening.

G W C T, C A Schelbrede presented the claims of the Valley Fountain, a temperance publication of this State.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Alliance met at 1:30, President Watts presiding.

The committee on resolutions submitted a report which was disposed of as follows: Resolution 1. That we favor the passage of a more stringent license law, and recommend that clubs be organized to secure a better enforcement of the laws; adopted. 2d, That while we are not in favor of a prohibition party we believe it to be the imperative duty of all temperance workers to use their political influences in the cause of temperance; adopted. 3d, That no temperance man should vote for a drunkard or one who will not pledge himself in his official position to do all in his power, in securing and enforcing suitable restrictive legislation until the people are ready for entire prohibition; adopted. 4th, That the Valley Fountain be adopted as the official organ of this alliance; adopted.

It was moved and carried that an overflow meeting be held this evening at the C P Church, with Capt Humphrey B J Sharp, Dr. Rowland and C A Schelbrede as orators. Adjourned to 7 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

Called to order by the President at 7 P M. The Eugene Brass Band entertained the alliance with music.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted: That the thanks of this Alliance be tendered to the good people of Eugene City for their kind hospitality toward members of this Alliance, and to the Pastor and members of M. E. church of Eugene City for the use of their house; also the thanks be extended to the O. & C. R. R. for half fare rates over their line.

It was moved and carried that a committee of five be appointed to draft a bill to be presented to the next legislature, and that the President be given time on the appointment. After several short speeches the Alliance adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Friday morning was devoted to the discussion of a women's suffrage resolution, which was finally indefinitely postponed.

Portland was selected as the place of meeting of the next Alliance.

Female Diseases of years standing cured in a few months by wearing over the womb a Parker's Pad.
