

CITY AND COUNTY

REMOVAL

Patrons of the GUARD will take notice that the office has been moved to the building formerly occupied as a store, by J. W. Cleaver, a few doors north of the post office.

Agent at Portland.

Mr. W. L. Eppinger is our authorized agent at Portland.

BRIEF MENTION.

Spring.
Locals scarce.
Candidates for city offices are becoming numerous.

Our merchants are beginning to receive their stock of Spring goods.
Attend the primaries to-day and induce your neighbor to do the same.

Mr. John Winters photographed Charles Lauer's residence one day this week.

J. W. Nesmith is not a candidate and will not accept nomination for Congress.

Mr. F. B. Dunn is engaged in painting and otherwise renovating his store room.

J. J. Walton, Sr., is willing to serve the dear people as marshal. See his announcement.

Eight or nine of the bad boys of Junction got into the calabash of that place Monday night for fighting.

The highest price paid in CASH for Hides, Furs, Deer Skins and Chickens, at the store of S. Rosenblatt & Co.

Patronize John Lenger if you want good milk. He furnishes a first rate quality at a reasonable price.

The I. X. L. Store means business, as will be seen by the perusal of their extensive "ad." in this issue.

Jerry Ream intends building, for rent, a neat residence on the lot back of his undertaker shop, during the coming Summer.

A carload of stone for fire places, and other purposes, was brought down from Oakland, Friday morning, for Mr. Hickett.

Mr. S. H. Friendly is just commencing to receive a large and well assorted stock of clothing equal to any heretofore offered for sale.

The public school of Junction, will commence the Spring term next Monday, with Mr. A. C. Nichols as principal and Miss Akers assistant.

Let every delegate to the Democratic County Convention attend. A full Convention will give better satisfaction than one made up of proxies.

The Willamette Farmer of last week contains an excellent article on wheat raising, from the pen of Mr. Geo. Belshaw. We should like to reproduce it, were it not too lengthy.

Business men should not forget that blank notes, bill-heads, statements, letter-heads, and every description of commercial printing are neatly and promptly executed at the GUARD office.

The St. Charles Restaurant is a cosy place kept by Mrs. A. Renfrew in the brick building adjoining the old St. Charles hotel. A number of neat lodging rooms also belong to the house. Meals and lodging, 25 cents each. Board lodging by the week on reasonable terms. Give her a call.

Last Wednesday night, says the Junction Republican, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis retired to bed with their little girl babe about two and one-half months old in its apparent usual health. Mrs. Lewis was awake and nursed it about 1 o'clock. In the morning on awaking about 4 o'clock the babe was found dead and cold. It was subject to the knees and probably this had something to do with its death.

SKIPPED—The Baker City Democrat relates how A. M. Cornelius, a washing machine man, and a former resident of this city, skipped out leaving numerous mourning creditors. He was interested in a butcher shop, and after paying but for a small percentage of the cattle used during the winter, collected all he could and left for parts unknown. He played the Sunday School teacher, and temperance advocate role to win the confidence of the people, having won a high standing in the religious circles of that benighted city.

RATHER OFF—The Palouse Gazette makes note of a communication received in that county, from Mr. C. Ness, of Junction City, which contains the statement that wheat is worth but 40 to 75 cents in Junction. The editor of the Gazette has allowed his credulity to lead him to giving publicity to a falsehood. At no time since harvest, has merchantable wheat sold for less than 80 cents, and at one time was worth $1.10. Good wheat can be now easily disposed of, for over 90 cents per bushel.

WHEAT PROSPECTS—The farmers are taking advantage of the present pleasant weather in plowing and seeding. Two weeks of fine weather will be sufficient to allow the farmers generally to finish the work; already in some localities the work is completed. The Fall sown grain does not present the best appearance, the cold freezing weather experienced during the winter having in some places lifted it from the ground and otherwise injured it.

FAREWELL MEETING—The Eugene Social Club held its last party last evening. As was fitting, it was equal to any of its predecessors in the attendance and enjoyment of the evening. A fine supper was spread at Mrs. Renfrew's restaurant to which ample justice was done. The party broke up at 3 o'clock. The amusement furnished by this club will long be remembered as pleasant episodes in their existence by the participants.

CONTRACT LET—Mr. Joel Ware, our County Clerk, intends building a handsome residence this Summer, on the site of his present residence. The contract for performing the work, and furnishing materials has been let to Mr. S. W. Miser at $1,250.

Band Entertainment.

The University Cornet Band will give an entertainment at Lane's Hall, next Saturday evening, that promises to be unusually interesting. The following is the programme:

Grand March—University Cornet Band.
Solo—"Dashing White Sergeant," Mrs. Hemenway.
Solo—L. G. Adair.
Comedy—"Who is Who, or All in a Fog," by Messrs George Noland, Jasper Stevens, and Misses Maggie Gray and Helen Bushnell.

Selection—By Band.
Bass Solo—E. E. Burke.
Duet—Misses Irene and Lulu Dunn.
Gus Williams's "Little German Band," in character.

"Hints on Courtship," in character, Geo Hill.
Violin Solo—J. H. McClung.

Duet—"Two Merry Girls," Misses Alice and Mary Dorris.
The performance will conclude with the farce, "Kansas Immigrants."

The energy and enterprise of this band is indeed commendable. The band boys for the first time ask our citizens for their patronage, which we think, taking into consideration the object and the excellence of the programme to be rendered, should draw a crowded house. The price for admission is, for reserved seats 50 cents, back seats 25 cents. A large number of tickets have already been sold. Tickets for sale at the store of A. V. Peters & Co.

BLUE RIBBON SENATE—The president of the Blue Ribbon Club, at the meeting Wednesday evening, appointed the following senate to transact all business, and select a ticket for the coming city election: J. H. McClung, J. M. Nelson, B. C. Pennington, T. W. Harris, Chas Goodchild, J. J. Walton, Jr, Marion Wilkins, L. G. Adair, and J. W. Jackson.

THE ENTERTAINMENT—A tolerably well filled house greeted the University societies, Saturday evening last, on the occasion of their annual entertainment. The different parts of the programme were executed creditably, the rendition of the drama deserving special mention. The net receipts were $72.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH—Rev. S. Monroe Hubbard will deliver next Lord's day his introductory sermon, to his year's work, as pastor of the Christian Church of this city. Theme, morning, "Christian Brotherhood," evening service, lecture, "Motes and Beams." Seats free. All are cordially invited to both services.

TO DEMOCRATS—When you are in town attending conventions call and subscribe for the GUARD, if you do not take it already. If your neighbor does not take it, induce him to send in his name. No person should be without their county paper, when it can be secured at a trifling cost.

DELEGATES—Outside precincts will confer a favor on this office by sending us as soon as possible, the list of delegates, from their respective precincts, to the County Convention.

A CHANGE—The hack and truck business, heretofore owned by Scott Christian, has been purchased by Mr. S. D. Coats, who took possession last Monday.

HEED IT—Sheriff Eakin calls upon the delinquent taxpayers to settle up or he will commence to ride and assess costs.

Homicide at Albany.

On Monday evening at Albany, Charles Taylor, a young man 27 years of age, was shot and instantly killed by Frank Wheeler. The particulars of the shooting are as follows: Shortly before 11 o'clock, Taylor, while under the influence of liquor, entered the saloon kept by a man named Gillmore, and on seeing Wheeler sitting there began to abuse him. He tried to raise a row with Wheeler threatening to whip him, but the latter not desiring to engage in any conversation with his drunken abuser, started to leave the saloon but was prevented by Taylor who cornered him and again commenced the tirade of abuse and advanced toward Wheeler in a threatening manner, who thinking that his assailant intended to attack him after preventing his leaving the place, drew a pistol and fired, the bullet piercing the neck of Taylor, who fell to the floor, when he again fired another leaden messenger of death into the body causing almost instant death. After the shooting Wheeler walked out of the saloon and surrendered himself to an officer. The shooting attracted a great crowd and for some time considerable excitement prevailed. The coroner was speedily summoned and an inquest was held on the body of Taylor as it lay upon the floor. Taylor was a blacksmith by trade and was born in Albany, but had been east of the mountains for several years. Taylor had accused Wheeler of an improper intimacy with his wife and from this came the quarrel. Taylor and his wife had not been however living together for about a year.

An examination of Wheeler was held before Judge Johns, Wednesday, and he was bound over in sum of $2,000 to appear before the grand jury, on charge of manslaughter.

Enterprise in Oregon.

There is considerable of it shown in Oregon in the way of building mills, railroads, and other needed requirements of the present day, but no enterprise has yet been started that will hold a light to the many cures effected by the use of the celebrated Oregon Kidney Tea. Ask for it and use NO OTHER medicine. This is an Oregon production, composed of herbs.

It is a Parent's Duty

To see that their children take, particularly during the Spring Season, a dose every morning of that great Spring regulator, DR. HYDE'S GOLDEN BLOOD PURIFIER. You can rest assured they will have no filthy sores upon their little faces, and it will impart natural bloom to their cheeks.

Our Children.

God bless them! Not knowing what moment they will be attacked with Whooping Cough or Croup, good mothers also have handy a bottle of that truly children's blessing; Dr. Young's Yankee Cough Syrup, so pleasant to take.
