George will address the people of Lane county on the political issues of the day in Eugene, Friday May 7th at 1 P. M., and at Junction on the same day at 7:30 P. M. The Vernell Troupe performed here two evenings this week to slim houses. Their entertainment was good and deserved a better patronage. They will return in about one month. A Row.—The serenity of the city was disturbed on Monday, by a scrimmage between two men named Chapman, and Bywater. After some preliminary quarreling, Chapman knocked Bywater down, and in the melee received a wound in the back of his right hand from a pocket knife held by Bywater. A warrant was sworn out for Bywater's arrest, which was accomplished with considerable trouble. He was given a hearing before Judge Humphrey, Tuesday morning, plead guilty to the charge of assault and battery, and was fined $15 and costs. The wound received by Chapman, though not dangerous, was extremely painful. UNION MEETINGS.—A series of special religious services under the auspices of the Cumberland Presbyterian, Presbyterian, Baptist, and Methodist Churches, was begun at the M. E. Church last Sunday. Rev. B. S. McLaugherty, who has conducted meetings at points down the valley with great success, is present, and preaches each evening. TO THE LADIES.—You will find at the Ball the most reasonable lot of Millinery ever brought to this city.

Suicide.

Charles Hayden Commits Suicide by Hanging.

On last Wednesday information was brought to town that Chas. W. Hayden a young man of about 28 years of age had committed suicide at the home of his mother, near the upper McKenzie bridge, by hanging. There being no qualified coroner in the county, Justice of the Peace E. P. Henderson summoned a jury and proceeded to the scene where the young man had violently severed the thread of his life, and held an inquest. Mrs. Hayden, the mother of the deceased, testified as follows: I am the mother of the deceased. His name is Charles W. Hayden. He had been to Harrisburg and just got home this morning; his feet were blistered; he laid down on the bed and, I brought him some breakfast; he ate it, went to sleep and slept awhile; I missed him and called, but he did not answer; I then went to the barn and found him hanging; I got a knife and cut him down, but he was dead. Other witnesses were examined but nothing further material was elicited. The jury rendered the following verdict. We, the jury summoned to inquire into the cause of the death of Chas. W. Hayden, find that death was caused by hanging, committed by his own hands, on the 28th day of April, 1880, at the McKenzie bridge. J. C. WHITEKAKER, J. M. SPORIS, J. E. ATTEBERY, J. H. GILBERT, J. Final Report of the Grand Jury.

The grand jury for the county of Lane would respectfully submit the following as their final report: That we have examined into the condition and management of the county jail and find the same well kept, but in our opinion the jail is an unsafe and insecure place to keep prisoners, and we would recommend that the county court have competent person or persons examine the jail and make such improvements as the county court deems necessary to make it safe. And we further say that the outside wall of the jail is in our opinion in a bad condition, and that it may be necessary to replace the jail with a new one. That we have examined into the condition and management of the various county offices and find the same well kept, so far as we are able to judge from a casual inspection. A. D. BERTON, A. J. CRUZAN, J. F. MCCLAIN, CHAS. BENNETT, F. L. GRAY, J. A. BRISGLE, G. W. TORNBOW.

Officers Elected.

The Laurean Society has elected the following officers for the ensuing term: President, J. F. Hill; Vice President, L. F. Wheeler; Secretary, W. Mount; Assistant Secretary, J. M. Neville; Treasurer, A. L. Frazer; Censor, C. A. Wooddy; Sergeant-at-Arms, W. L. Boise and A. C. Woodcock or vice versa. A NIMROD.—Willie Evans, 11 years of age, living eight miles east of Dexter, in this county, has killed this winter without any assistance except his dogs and gun, one cougar, length seven feet, two wild cats, two coons and one deer while herding his grandfather's sheep. BURNED.—An old shanty at Springfield, belonging to John Powers burned down Sunday night. It is thought that it caught from fire carelessly left by children playing about. For a time the residence of Mr. Joe Stewart was in danger. RETURNED.—On Saturday last sheriff Eakin returned J. A. Peak, who was brought from the penitentiary as a witness before the grand jury, to that place. He also took down Chas. Sargent, sentenced to five years for burglary. LOST.—A pair of dental forceps between Rhinehart's residence and shop. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving the same at this office. INSANE.—Deputy Sheriff McCormack conveyed a young lady by the name of Simmons to the insane asylum last Monday.

Correspondence.

ED GUARD.—Now that the city election is over for which my case was trumped up, and everything is quieted down, I wish to submit to the people of this vicinity the following facts in regard to the pint of alcohol I sold to "Joe Miller," about two and one half months ago. The facts which I shall present are substantially the same as I testified to in the U. S. court, so far as they relate to the disposition of the alcohol, and are as follows: About Feb. 1st last, "Joe Miller," who I supposed was a half-breed Indian, and who as I knew had lived at Hulin Miller's for 8 or 10 years, called at my drug store for a pint of alcohol. To make sure that I was not mistaken as to the Indian, I asked him if he was not living at Hulin Miller's, and he told me he was. On receiving this information I gave him the alcohol, supposing it was for the Miller family—he having been at the store before—and not thinking for a moment that I was violating any law in doing so. For this act I was taken to Portland to answer to the charge of selling alcohol to an Indian. I at once admitted to the U. S. marshal, and attorney what I had done, but denied that I had violated any law. Under the law as construed by the court, a fine was imposed, but in doing so the Judge placed the fine at $1, the lowest possible amount, as he was satisfied no violation of law was intended. It was reported on the streets of Eugene election day, that I had attempted to put "Joe Miller," the witness out of the way, and a like report was sent to the Salem Statesman. All of any prominence who circulated these reports have either taken back what they said, or denied that they ever said anything, and the correspondent of the Statesman has retracted his former statements through the columns of that paper, as follows: "Your honorable correspondent begs leave to make reference to a former article concerning the Indian affair in which the names of Hon. R. B. Cochran and Mr. Frank Osburn were mentioned. No reflections or imputations whatever were intended, and the off-hand article based on information received outside of our own personal knowledge, is void of proof, as Mr. Osburn says he had different motives altogether than what were seemingly insinuated in our note. It ill becomes any man to peddle hearsay. Mr. Osburn has been acquitted of any intent to do wrong, thus giving the lie to this gratuitous information." In conclusion I will say that it has always been my purpose to attend strictly to my own business in affairs of a private nature, and if others would always do the same they at times might be saved an immense amount of trouble. F. W. OSBURN.

Advertising Cheats.

It has become so common to write the beginning of an elegant, interesting article and then run it into some advertisement that we avoid all such cheats and simply call attention to the merits of Hop Bitters in as plain honest terms as possible, to induce people to give them one trial, as no one who knows their value will ever use anything else.
