

Democratic State Ticket

For Presidential Electors, J. K. WEATHERFORD, of Linn, T. G. OWEN, of Coos, J. G. FULTON, of Wasco.

Our Only Salvation

We have met the enemy and have been badly beaten. The superior organization of the Republican party in this state, their possession of all Federal offices, and disunion in our own party, are causes that operated largely to produce the result.

The Irish Question

Mr. James Redpath, who has been traveling in Ireland investigating the famine, as a Tribune correspondent in a lecture in New York the other evening summed up the Irish question in this way, and we judge it embodies the gist of the Irish trouble.

Nobel Civil Service Reform

Of the Delegates to the Mississippi Republican Convention, eight, the New York Times, Republican, alleges, were employees of the Treasury Department, six were Postmasters or postal route agents and one was a United States District Attorney.

JOHN WHITEAKER—than whom no better man lives in Oregon has done more for this State and the farming community than any two of his predecessors in Congress, and in the face of it all has been defeated at the polls where men are supposed to show their intelligence.

To Long Tom and Mohawk precincts belongs the doubtful honor of beating A. J. Goodman for sheriff. The recent Democrats of those precincts should blush for shame.

The Democrats of Lane county did nobly in electing their State Senator. He is the only Democratic Senator that has been elected in Western Oregon.

The entire Republican state ticket is elected.

The Republican Nominations

James A. Garfield, the Republican nominee for President, was born in Cuyahoga county, Ohio, November 19, 1831; graduated at Williams College, Mass., in 1856; was President of a literary institution for several years; studied and practiced law. He entered the Union army in 1861, as a Colonel, and was promoted to the rank of Major General in 1863.

Chester A. Arthur, for Vice President is a schemer of the Conkling Cameron school, and was undoubtedly placed on the ticket to placate that sorely defeated ring. He was removed from the office of Collector of Customs of the Port of New York by President Hayes for disregarding the Civil Service order, and was succeeded by Meritt.

So Has't Party

No man, the Harriaburg Patriot avers, will dictate to the Cincinnati Convention who shall receive the Democratic nomination. On this point there need be no uncertainty. The Delegates who have been chosen to represent the several States in that body, will select from among the many distinguished statesmen of the party candidates for President and Vice-President according to the best judgment they may possess.

Not a Favorable Time

A Presidential year the Washington Post asserts, isn't a favorable time for third parties. There isn't room for them to skirmish between the two great political armies. We notice that the Greenback Conventions of this summer show a thinness, a sort of general flavor of mild decay.

Is this a Confederate Administration? The Rebel Col. Key retires from the Cabinet to become a United States Judge, whose duty it will be to expound the laws of the Government he tried to overthrow. Mosby, the guerrilla, holds up our dignity at Hongkong. Longstreet, the Rebel General, who was put through a probation in the New Orleans Customs House and a back country Post-office, goes to represent us at the Turkish Court.

The real gravity of the Presidential campaign lies in the fact that the result involves the occupancy of about one hundred thousand offices, and the receipts of about four hundred millions in salaries to the incumbents thereof. When the anxious politician talks about the liberties of the country being in danger he means that his party's hold on the offices is in danger.

There is a grain of truth in this observation of the Boston Traveller. Independent Republicanism is political sea-weed—always limpest just before a storm.

It was better to let the Pennsylvania bribers go, the Detroit Press suggests, than to have them convict the whole Republican party.

The farmers of Oregon it seems prefer a wily smooth tongued lawyer, before a gentleman of their own class.

J. A. GARFIELD was one of the members of the electoral Commission that counted in Hayes by 8 to 7.

The result of the election in Lane proves that the county is about evenly divided politically.

The Democrats have a majority of the next county court.

Election Returns

Douglas county elects the entire county Republican ticket except sheriff, clerk and treasurer. George, 150 maj. Jackson county gives Whiteaker about 300 maj. Lake and Josephine will swell his majority in Southern Oregon to about 500.

Linn, 290 for Whiteaker. The Republicans elect Humphrey for state senator, and probably the entire county ticket.

Yamhill, 154 for George. Galloway, Dem., is elected to the legislature. Washington county, 344 for George. Entire Republican county ticket elected.

Multnomah, 1,160 for George. Entire county Republican ticket elected. Benton, 200 for Whiteaker. 100 for Yantis. Most of the Republican county ticket elected, including King for sheriff and Wilson for clerk.

Clackamas, 400 for George. From the returns at hand George has received about 2,900 majorities, and Whiteaker 1,700, giving George a majority of about 1,200. The rest of the Democratic state ticket is considerably behind Whiteaker.

The Boston Globe says: Ninety-one years ago, Saturday, George Washington was inaugurated first President of the United States, an office to which he had been almost unanimously elected. There was no fraud about his election.

THE OREGON KIDNEY TEA. Read the following testimonials, not from persons 3,000 miles away, whom no one knows, but from well known and trustworthy citizens of Oregon, whose names, written with their own hands, can be seen at our office.

PORTLAND, Or., July 29, 1879. My kidneys were in a very bad condition. The urine was like brick dust, and I suffered a great deal with my back. All remedies were unavailing until I tried the Oregon Kidney Tea, which gave me almost immediate relief.

PORTLAND, Or., August 2, 1879. Having a severe backache last winter, I was induced to try the Oregon Kidney Tea. I found it very beneficial in its results. It is not more unpleasant to take than other tea. I would recommend it to those afflicted as I was. JOHN P. FARMER.
