

CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEF MENTION.

Business dull. Warm weather. Drums numerous. Hon L F Grover has our thanks for congressional records.

Will the wheat rust? is the conundrum heard on all sides.

Jas McClaren is improving his place by building a new fence.

About 20 persons are at the Foley Springs on the McKenzie river.

We understand that Mr Frouk, of Harrisburg, will soon reopen the St Charles Hotel.

Frank Osburn has been at Astoria the past week attending the Grand Lodge of the A. O. U. W.

The highest price paid in CASH for Hides Fur Deer Skins and Chickens, at the store of S. Rosenblatt & Co.

Messrs J W Cherry and Wm. Irving have bought a horse and buggy and are now ready for engagements.

Jas H Evans, formerly of this place, but now of Lakerville, has been appointed agent for the O & C Land Co.

Wm. Foley, of the Portland Standard, was in town a couple of days this week, canvassing for that excellent paper.

Mr. Lewis Behrens has been driving the delivery wagon for the past two weeks. He is attentive to business and fills the place with honor to himself.

We doff our hat to Mr Sol Steinbeiser for a fine box of strawberries this week. He has a lot of them, which he sells lower than they can be bought in Portland.

Wm Renshaw has bought out the interest of Phil Miller in the firm of McCornack & Miller, butchers. Messrs. McCornack & Renshaw will continue the business at the old stand.

Business men should not forget that blank notes, bill-heads, statements, letter-heads, and every description of commercial printing are neatly and promptly executed at the GUARD office.

The first number of the North West Tribune has come to hand. (It is very neat typographically, and, judging from its general tone, is destined to meet with success.)

Lucien E Kellogg is the publisher, an old newspaper man. It is issued at Colfax and is independent in politics.

The St. Charles Restaurant is a cosy place kept by Mrs. A. Renfrew in the brick building adjoining the old St. Charles hotel.

A number of neat lodging rooms also belong to the house. Meals and lodging, 25 cents each. Beard lodging by the week on reasonable terms. Give her a call.

Celebration At Cottage Grove.

The citizens of Cottage Grove and vicinity will celebrate the 104th anniversary of American Independence at Cottage Grove, Monday July 5th.

The President of the Day is Mr. J C Wallace, assisted by Vice Presidents from Cottage Grove, Drains, Latham, Siuslaw, Creswell and Goshen.

Committees of arrangements, on programme, music and reception have been appointed.

The Procession will be led by the Cottage Grove Brass Band. Thirty-eight young ladies will appear in the procession, representing the 38 States in the Union; also one representing the Goddess of Liberty.

Creswell Items.

CRESSWELL, June 23, 1880.

Cattle drivers are wending their way eastward.

Gabe Chrisman drove on Monday, 518 head of yearlings, and Major Chrisman drove on Tuesday, 545 to Eastern Oregon.

Cresswell boasts of the best roads in the State, and we acquire this fame by downright labor. A L Goodman is now our supervisor and he is bent on doing good for his people, even though his manly hand grasps not Lane's doorkeys of authority.

The sharp report of the rifle is heard on every hand, and "bull's eyes" are perforated by the score.

Dr. J C Gray, of Cottage Grove, paid us a flying visit on Monday.

The boys are querying as to how that 21 yards dwindled down to 12. The supposition is that I by hook or crook got ahead of that 2.

A B Woodcock left us for the Dalles on Monday. Success to you, "Beb" for the eyes of Cresswell's "fair ones," and the lonely howl of the watch dog breaks the stillness of midnight.

LAKE COUNTY.—We call the attention of all to the correspondence of Mr. A T Hawley to the S F Bulletin, published on the first page of the GUARD to-day. Mr Hawley is the only California writer that has treated Oregon fairly, and we wish him a happy trip through the rest of Oregon, and we assure him if he ever revisits this place, he will meet with a cordial welcome from our citizens. Everybody should read the correspondence.

CAMPMEETING.—The camping, commenced last Sunday near Springfield, under the auspices of the Christian Church has been largely attended. The meeting will continue over to-morrow.

Hancock and English!

The People Ratify the Cincinnati Nominees.

Speeches by Messrs. Cochran, G. B. Dorris, Walton, Fitch and B. F. Dorris.

Great Enthusiasm, Etc., Etc.

With anxious suspense the action of the Democratic Convention of Cincinnati was awaited by our citizens. Many prophecies were ventured by those who lay some claim to forecast the future from past events, as to who would be the coming man.

But when the wires announced that Winfield S Hancock had been selected as the standard bearer of the Democracy, every loyal and liberty loving heart beat with enthusiasm. Immediately it was resolved to ratify.

Messrs R B Cochran, G B Dorris, J J Walton, Jr., C W Fitch and B F Dorris were called for and each, in his peculiar manner, set forth the excellencies of the Democratic nominee, Gen W S Hancock.

The meeting adjourned with three hearty cheers for Hancock and English.

THE OREGON KIDNEY TEA.

Read the following testimonials, not from persons 3,000 miles away, whom no one knows, but from well known and trustworthy citizens of Oregon, whose names, written with their own hands, can be seen at our office:

Independence, Oregon, December 13, 1879.

Both myself and wife have been for some years afflicted with disease of the Kidneys, and had tried many remedies without obtaining any permanent relief.

Having heard that the Oregon Kidney Tea possessed wonderful properties, I purchased a package and from the first dose obtained relief, and by the use of the one package feel completely cured.

Not the People's Choice.

Four or five prominent Republicans met at Chicago, who were the choice of the vast majority of their party, and because not one of them would surrender to the other in the struggle for the nomination for the Presidency, they cut off their noses to spite their faces, and forced upon the voters of the Republican party a man whom they had not asked for.

The Republican voters wanted Grant, Blaine, Sherman, Edmunds and Washburne, and in their jealousy of each other the candidates and delegates settled upon a compromise candidate who was "neither fish nor flesh nor even a good red herring."

The Republican voters called for bread and the envious men—jealous of each other, rather wishing a log for chief ruler than one from among themselves; threw them a stone. Their conduct, in a way, calls to mind the fable of the lion and bear struggling for the dead deer until they were completely exhausted; and who then saw an insignificant fox who had never been dreamed of having so much audacity, sneak off with the venison from under their very noses.

Belknap's Springs.

Mr. O. Brownson has leased the Belknap Springs on the McKenzie river, and is now prepared to receive visitors.

These springs are famed for the medicinal properties of the water, and as they are situated in the midst of beautiful scenery, and fine hunting, and fishing grounds, promise to become a noted resort.

The springs are situated 62 miles east of Eugene, and 6 miles from the McKenzie Bridge.

A Good Thing.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boeche, a celebrated German Physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in Medicine. It quickly cures Coughs, Colds and all Lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition.

It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually.

A few of medicines of similar name, lately introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cents. Sample bottle, 10 cents.
