

Democratic Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT:
GEN. WINFIELD S. HANCOCK,
Of New York.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:
WILLIAM H. ENGLISH,
Of Indiana.

For Presidential Electors,
J. K. WEATHERFORD, of Linn,
T. G. OWEN, of Coos,
J. G. FULTON, of Wasco.

Governor Whiteaker.

Governor Whiteaker,—"Honest John," as he is familiarly known throughout our State—arrived in Portland Monday afternoon fresh from his field of labor in the Halls of Congress. Stern sense of duty to his State, is said by some to have, to a certain extent, defeated him for re-election, as George having the ears of the whole State within reach, and without fear of contradiction, was unable to pour in a great deal of telling stuff that might otherwise have been successfully met by a well informed adversary, like his distant opponent. In his defeat for re-election, "Honest John," nevertheless, comes home a victor; and lashed to his chariot wheels are appropriations in number and richness never before equalled, and upon his brow are the imperishable laurels that a grateful State in its esteem and deep sense of appreciation ever bestows upon faithful champion.—Standard.

A comparison of the vote for congressman of 1878 with that of the vote cast for the same office in 1880 shows an increase of 4539 votes. The increase in the various counties is as follows: Baker 215, Benton 189, Clackamas 153, Columbia 62, Coos 44, Curry 8, Douglas 280, Jackson 122, Josephine 69, Lane 130, Lake 216, Multnomah 979, Polk 193, Tillamook 36, Umatilla 491; Union 365, Wasco 799, Washington 142, Yamhill 239. The following counties show a decrease in the voting population as follows: Clatsop 46, Grant 58, and Marion 126.

With the patriotism that has always signaled his career, Hon. S. J. Tilden withdrew from the Presidential contest when he saw that his candidacy might be antagonistic to the best interests of the Democratic party, whose trusted leader he has been so long. His letter of withdrawal is able, comprehensive and satisfactory to the millions of his fellow-citizens who desired to see him vindicated. The memory of this great statesman will live in the history of our country long after his traces have sought their sepulchres, unnumbered and unsung.

It is notorious that Garfield voted against the bill, says the Examiner, to pension the brave and meritorious veterans of the war with Mexico, the gallant and heroic men who won the grand victories that gained to the Republic the priceless vast Territories of New Mexico and California, now famous as the richest in mineral and agricultural wealth of any portion of the continent.

The Republicans all admit that the Democrats have a good ticket. What can they say of Garfield's record the man who is snatched by such questionable schemes as De Golyer contracts, Credit Mobilier and back salary pay, not saying anything of his damnable record on the Chinese question.

HANCOCK and English clubs should be organized in every precinct in Lane county. If the Democrats will work from now until the second Tuesday in November for Hancock and English, we will carry Lane county by 50 or 100 majority.

Oakes Ames is dead, but his note book lives in that section of the Congressional archives labeled Credit Mobilier. For further information inquire of General James Abram Garfield, Republican nominee for the presidency.

The Oregonian dispatches admits that Grant says that Hancock will be elected president

The Corrupt Candidate.

From the N. Y. Tribune, (Rep.) Feb. 1873.
Let us gather up the ends from all this snarl of testimony and see, if possible, just where we stand. Read the evidence. With varying degrees of guilt or guilty knowledge, every man of them, with one exception (Mr. Blaine), has been obliged to confess that at some time he had held this stock, and at some time—under stress of conscience, let us hope, though that is not fully proven—got rid of it. Now let us go slowly over the list:

James A. Garfield, of Ohio, had ten shares; he never paid a dollar; received $329, which after the investigation began he was anxious to have considered as a loan from Oakes Ames to himself.

These men betrayed the trust of the people, deceived their constituents, and by their evasions and falsehoods confessed the transactions to be disgraceful. Pass no resolution. Drop it where it is. Remand the whole business to the people.

From the N. Y. Times (Rep.) Feb. 19 1873.
Of the members referred to Messrs. Kelley and Garfield present a most distressing figure. Their participation in the Credit Mobilier affair is complicated by the most unfortunate contradictions of testimony which the committee do not undertake to unravel. The only possible comment do not undertake to unravel. The only possible comment on their cases is that had they taken a perfectly upright course in the matter, and refused to have anything to do with the stock, no occasion for contradiction could have arisen.

Arthur's Testimonial.

"You have made the Custom House a center of partisan political management."—R. B. Hayes to Collector Arthur, Jan. 31, 1879.

"With a deep sense of my obligations under the Constitution, I regard it as my plain duty to suspend you in order that the office may be honestly administered."—R. B. Hayes to Collector Arthur, Jan. 31, 1879.

"Gross abuses of administration have continued and increased during your incumbency."—John Sherman to Collector Arthur, Jan. 31, 1879.

"Persons have been regularly paid by you who have rendered little or no service; the expenses of your office have increased while its receipts have diminished. Bribes, or gratuities in the shape of bribes, have been received by your subordinates in several branches of the Custom House, and you have in no case supported the effort to correct these abuses."—Secretary Sherman to Collector Arthur, Jan. 31, 1879.

The late Election.

The following is the official vote, on the State ticket, as certified to by Secretary of state Earhart:

Member of Congress—Whiteaker 18,181, George 19,578, Sears 301.
Supreme Judges—Kelly 17,709, Prim 17,969, Burnett 18,168, Waldo 19,689, Lord 19,636, Watson 19,609.
State Printer—Merry 18,052, Odell 19,462.

Extract from Hancock's order published at New Orleans La., Nov. 29 1867: "The right of trial by jury, the Habeas Corpus, the Liberty of the press, the freedom of Speech, the Natural rights of persons, and the rights of property must be preserved."

Colfax is in favor of Garfield and says he is supposed to be in favor of a tariff, but Sumler is particularly enamored with Arthur. Birds of a feather etc.

GARFIELD is a second Hayes. The voters will bury him so deep that he will have no chance to become a second Fraud.

Belknap's Springs.

Mr. O. Brownson has leased the Belknap Springs on the McKenzie river, and is now prepared to receive visitors. These springs are famed for the medicinal properties of the water, and as they are situated in the midst of beautiful scenery, and fine hunting, and fishing grounds, promise to become a noted resort. The springs are situated 62 miles east of Eugene, and 6 miles from the McKenzie Bridge.

I wish Everybody to Know.

Rev. George H. Thayer, an old citizen of this vicinity known to every one as a most influential citizen, and Christian Minister of the M. E. Church just this moment stepped in our store to say, "I wish everybody to know that I consider that both myself and wife owe our lives to Shiloh's Consumptive Cure." It is having a tremendous sale over our counters and is giving perfect satisfaction in all cases of Lung Diseases, such as nothing else has done. Bourdon, Incl. May 15, 1878.

A Good Thing.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boscobel, a celebrated German Physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in Medicine. It quickly cures Coughs, Colds and all Lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Beware of imitations of similar names, lately introduced by Boscobel's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1858, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cents. Sample bottle, 10 cents.

Haunted Me.

Debt, poverty and suffering haunted me for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring, which did not go well. I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I procured Hop Bitters and commenced their use, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have been sick a day since; and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost.—A Working man.

THE OREGON KIDNEY TEA.

Read the following testimonials, not from persons 3,000 miles away, whom no one knows, but from well known and trustworthy citizens of Oregon, whose names, written with their own hands, can be seen at our office:

Silverton, Or., March 27, 1880.
I have been afflicted with a kidney trouble for twelve years, during which time I have used almost every remedy I could here and but obtained no relief until I tried the Oregon Kidney Tea. I am now using the second box and am free to say that I am much better and have no hesitancy in recommending it as a pleasant and safe kidney remedy.
W. B. COX.

GLENDALE, W. T. March 31, 1880.
I have had the diabetes for thirty years. Have had many physicians prescribe for me, but failed to get relief. I tried the Oregon Kidney Tea, and the first dose gave relief. I am now almost well, and would recommend it to any one suffering from this disease.
MOSSES PIKE.
