The citizens of Cottage Grove and vicinity celebrated the 104th anniversary of of the signing of the Declaration of Independence with becoming spirit. The manuer in which $700 it was carried out did credit to the county and town, and especially to the committee of arrangements, to whose energy and public spirit are due its success in a great measure. At an early hour the people began to arrive from the country, and by 10 o'clock the crowd at least numbered 1500 persons. The procession was formed on Main street, in front of the Cottage Grove Hotel, the Cresswell and Cottage Grove brass bands in front. followed by the liberty car beautifully decorated with banners and evergreens, in which $923 were seated little girls from six to ten years of age, dressed in white, representing each State in the Union, and in the midst of them stood a young lady representing the Goddess Dr. Owsley has gone to Prineville, where of Liberty. Next came the President of the day, orator, reader of the Declaration of Independence and Chaplain, followed by vehicles of all descriptions, and pedestrians indiscriminately mixed. The procession then marched to a delightful grove on the farm of Mr. Oscar Knox's, about two miles from town, where a stand and seats had been prepared. After the call to order, a fervent prayer was offered. The Declaration of Independence was then read by Mr. Robert Dillard in a full round tone. Although familiar as household words, the occasion and well timed emphasis of the reader gave it the freshness of originality. Hon. Binger Herman, of Roseburg, followed in an oration abounding with historical repress wagen, has returned from east of the miniscences, sound philosophy and logical deductions free from the inflated style and The high est price paid in CASH for Hides sky-reaching rhetoric almost universal on such occasions. It is useless for us to attempt to give even a synopsis of it as nothcou $60. ing short of the entire address could do the and Pennington, had huckster stands at the speaker justice. Mr. Herman's delivery is almost unexceptional and his voice sufficient. ly strong to have been easily and distinctly heard by every one in the large audience. After the oration then came some music after which the crowd dispersed for dinner. After dinner the Plug-uglies paraded the ground in all kinds of paraphernalia, much to the amusement of the people generally and to the boys especially. An entertainment was given at 7.30 P. M., at the Farmers' warehouse, by the Cottage Grove brass band. It was well attended, and was a perfect success. In the evening a baloon was to have been sent up but in the operation of inflating, it caught fire and burned up. The ball at the Farmer's warehouse, which was largely attended, closed the celebration. Before closing our report, however, it is but just to say that we did not notice any drunkenness or fights on the grounds, the best of order being his departure his creditors immediately sent maintained.
