For many hours did the physician and attendants labor with hopes wavering, and the unfortunate man lingering between life and death. The effect of the poison was partly neutralized, and Mr. Prettyman pulled through almost exhausted. His face, neck and body is swollen beyond recognition, and he is unable to speak, yet by careful nursing he will recover. The rice was examined, when it was found, especially the broken grains, to be per fectly green, from contact, it is thought, with copper while being prepared for market in China. The firm is in no way to blame, as they knew not of the condition of the rice .-- Portland Telegram

Reicased from Custody

As had been generally anticipated, the Grand Jury has refused to find an indictment against Harry J. Lynch, of together with heroic thousands of offi- the Keystone House, for the killing of cers and soldiers, lower in rank, yet no Thomas Watts last week, and yesterday afternoon he was, upon the Grand Jury reporting to the Court that no true bill had been found against him, released from custody. A thorough and impartial investigation of the circamstances of the slaying of Watta by Lynch was made by the Grand Jury, and the evidence tended to show that Lynch was compelled to do as he did, as his own life was in danger. In fact, Lynch has been in constant danger of his life through Watts for a year past, and has been compelled to leave his own home more than once, knowing that Watts was hid in a room, armed with a hatchet and intent on murdering him in his sleep. The wife of Lynch is greatly to blame for this, and it is stated that she seconded the attempts upon her husband's life, even giving him the money to purchase the hatchet, and hiding him in a closet in her sleeping apartment for such a purpose. After his discharge from custody Lynch was warmly congratulated over his release by a number of his friends, and it is to be hoped that the fearful ordeal through which he has passed will be at tended with beneficial results -- Standard of July 4th.
