

THE EUGENE CITY BOARD
EUGENE CITY, OREGON.
SATURDAY, JULY 24, 1890.

Democratic Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT:
GEN. WINFIELD S. HANCOCK,
Of New York.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:
WILLIAM H. ENGLISH,
Of Indiana.

For Presidential Electors,
J. K. WEATHERFORD, of Linn,
T. G. OWEN, of Coos,
J. G. FULTON, of Wasco.

The Secret Military Tribunal.

Some of the Republican organs of the State have had the hardihood and shamelessness to assert that General Hancock was the president of the secret Military Tribunal which helped in the murder of Mrs. Mary E. Surratt. It is simply infamous to charge Gen Hancock with any responsibility for that atrocious murder, which was chiefly the work of the subsequent self murderer, Edwin M. Stanton, the Republican fiend incarnate who earned for himself everlasting damnation as Secretary of War. Gen. Hancock had no connection with the Secret Military Tribunal which condemned that innocent lady to death after the wretched mockery of a trial. That accursed Tribunal was presided over by Gen. Hunter, the MouraviEFF of the war, whose atrocities upon widows and orphans and defenceless old men and young women in Virginia, at the close of the strife, have no parallel in Modern history outside of Poland or the ravages and cruelties of the late Bashi-Bazouks in the late Turkish war. Upon it were General Lew Wallace, also notorious for savagery in war; General Kauz, General Howe, General Foster, General Ekin, General Harris, Colonel Tompkins, Lieut-Colonel Clendenin. Joseph Holt, justly execrated for his many inhuman acts, was Judge Advocate, and John A. Bingham, of Ohio, and Colonel Burnett, two leading Republicans of that period, the prosecutors of the guileless lady who was so diabolically murdered. As the Republican organs are just now very fond of quoting Judge Jere S. Black as authority to exculpate their candidate for President from guilt in the Credit Mobilier affair, it may be of great interest for them to learn that that great jurist and profound law-giver declared that every member of that secret Military Tribunal was an accessory to the murder of Mrs. Surratt. But General Hancock had no connection whatever with that Tribunal.

Gen. Hancock's Pedigree.

From the Rochester Union and Advertiser.
John Hancock was born in 1670, died 1750, aged 80 years. He was a minister at Lexington, Mass.
John Hancock was born in 1703, died 1744, aged 41 years. He was a minister of Braintree, Mass., and a son of the preceding.
John Hancock LL.D., was born in 1737, died 1793, aged 56 years. He was the first of the signers of the Declaration of American Independence, a son of John Hancock of Braintree, and the grandson of John Hancock of Lexington. He was a native of Quincy, Mass.; graduated at Harvard College in 1754; Member of the House of Representatives for Boston in 1766; President of the Provincial Congress of Massachusetts in 1774; President of Continental Congress in 1775; Governor of Massachusetts in 1775; Governor of Massachusetts in 1780 to 1784 and 1787 to 1793.
Benjamin F. Hancock was a son of John Hancock, LL.D., signer of the Declaration of American Independence; was a lawyer at Norristown, Montgomery county, Pa., in 1828; was a member of the Baptist Church and Superintendent of the Sunday school.
Winfield Scott and Hilary Hancock, twin brothers and sons of Benjamin F. Hancock, were born in Montgomery township, Montgomery county, Pa. in 1824.
In every quarter Republicans are announcing their intention to vote for Hancock. It is a perfect stampede. Who knows of any Democrats who are going to vote for Garfield?

The Victory Assured.

St. Louis Republican.
Hancock and English will get such a majority of the electoral votes that there will be no margin this time for a contest about the result. The States that may be set down now as absolutely certain are as follows—those that the Democrats are sure of, on the left; and those that the Republicans are sure of, on the right:

DEMOCRATS.	REPUBLICANS.
Alabama.....10	Iowa.....11
Arkansas.....10	Kansas.....5
Connecticut.....6	Michigan.....11
Delaware.....3	Minnesota.....5
Florida.....4	Nebraska.....3
Georgia.....11	Nevada.....3
Indiana.....15	Rhode Island.....4
Kentucky.....12	Vermont.....5
Louisiana.....8
Maryland.....8	Total.....47
Missouri.....15
Mississippi.....8
New Jersey.....9
New York.....35
North Carolina.....10
South Carolina.....7
Tennessee.....12
Texas.....8
Virginia.....11
West Virginia.....5
Total.....203

This insures a Democratic majority of thirty-seven electoral votes, with the following states that may be put down at doubtful and fair fighting ground, to increase the majority:

DOUBTFUL.	Total.....
California.....6	Ohio.....22
Colorado.....3	Oregon.....3
Illinois.....21	Pennsylvania.....29
Maine.....7	Wisconsin.....10
Massachusetts.....13
New Hampshire.....5	Total.....119

The Democracy can lose all the states here classed as doubtful, and Connecticut and New Jersey besides, and still have a majority of seven votes.

THE Republican papers, says the Clackamas Democrat, are recovering from the set back inflicted by the Chicago nominations and now are trying to recollect that Garfield and Arthur are men without spot or blemish. They however close their eyes to the fact that Garfield stands convicted of selling himself while holding office and that Arthur was thrown out of office for fraud and corruption.

THE PROOF.—Some of our Radical friends have been doubting the testimony published by Democratic papers in relation to the connection of James A. Garfield with the Credit Mobilier fraud. If any of the doubting brethren will take the time to call at this office we will show them the proof in the Congressional Records of the 3d session, of the 42d Congress, for the year 1872-3.

The Chicago Journal says: "It is a surprising fact that the census returns from portions of the interior counties of the older western states of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin show a decrease of population as compared with the census of 1879. This is accounted for by the mania of the past few years for moving into the new States and Territories of the further west."

The cases of the State Board of Land Commissioners have been decided by Judge Deady, the referee. The verdict gives the State a judgment of $3,000. From Judge Deady's decision, it appears that the delinquencies were caused by the carelessness of the Clerk of the Board, and not by any intentional dishonesty of the Commissioners.

A PENNSYLVANIA paper says: "The tide has set in for Hancock in a way that is almost without precedent. The Democrats are bubbling over with enthusiasm—won't listen to a doubt about carrying Pennsylvania, while the Republicans are as glum as a man with a tooth-ache, or, as a heartless fellow puts it, a man paying alimony to his divorced wife."

STATE ELECTION.—The following States hold elections prior to the election for President: Alabama, first Monday of August; Arkansas, first Monday of September; Maine, second Monday of September; Colorado, first Tuesday of October; Indiana, Ohio and West Virginia, second Tuesday of October.

The Republican journals that have been heaving mud by the cart-load at Samuel J. Tilden, and have been waiting for the opportunity to renew the congenial work, whine piteously whenever allusion is made to Garfield's Credit Mobilier bribe and the De Golyer paving fee.

THE State Zetling, of this city, which has heretofore been a very radical Republican paper, has come out for Hancock. The great majority of the Eastern German papers are enthusiastic in the support of these patriots.—Portland Standard.

SENATOR Slaton will stump Oregon for Hancock and English. Good!

Declaring for Hancock.

Special Dispatch to the Post.
NEW YORK, June 27.—Yesterday morning the executive committee of the German-American Independent association held a meeting and adopted the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the past history of Garfield and Arthur, the nominees of the Republican National convention, at Chicago, does not, in our judgment, offer any guarantee of a pure administration, in the event of the success of the Republican ticket, and

WHEREAS, The unblemished character and indisputable integrity of Hancock and English, the nominees of the Democratic National convention, are guarantees of an honest and efficient administration under their leadership.

Resolved, That we hail with delight the nominations made by the Democratic National convention as recognizing the principles indorsed by us.

Resolved, That we form a central committee to be known as the German American Hancock and English Central campaign committee.

Resolved, That we invite the several districts to forthwith organize themselves into district campaign clubs.

Resolved, That we invite co-operation of independent citizens so that the cause of honest government may be triumphant next November.

The Mexican war veterans are declaring for Hancock; Grant clubs are going over to him in a body; Peter Cooper and Samuel F. Cary, the Greenback advocates, have promised their support in a personal interview; and Leonard W. Jerome, one of the founders of the Republican party, writes thus in a personal communication to our nominees:

"For years a vast number of us, good Republicans, have been compelled to be helpless supporters of a policy we believe to be the very worst that could be devised. An opportunity is presented us now, for the first time with any show of success, to vote in accordance with our convictions, and I am sure we shall do it most joyfully."

So goes the campaign.

Republican Comrades for Hancock.

Among the many congratulatory messages General Hancock received was this, from Utica, New York, Senator Conkling's home:

"The Veterans of Oneida congratulate you. The Pioneer Hancock Club has just been organized with General James J. Gridley, of the Fifth Corps as President. General Gridley is a prominent Republican, and was Chairman of the Convention that elected Senator Conkling a Delegate in February last. Gettysburg and victory. FIFTH CORPS.
