Testimonial.
Independence, Oregon, December 13, 1871

Both myself and wife have been for some years afflicted with disease of the Kidneys, and had tried many remedies without obtaining any permanent relief. About three months ago we were induced to try a package of your medicine, and after using it for some time we were cured of our disease. We are now taking it every two weeks to prevent a recurrence of the disease. We can heartily recommend it to others similarly afflicted, as we believe it will do all that is claimed for it.
M. L. WHITE.
Astoria, Oregon, December 28, 1879.
I take great pleasure in testifying to the fact that for the past three years I have been suffering from kidney troubles, and during the time have tried nearly every kind of kidney medicine in the market, almost without any relief. Having heard that the Oregon Kidney Tea possessed wonderful properties, I purchased a package and from the first dose obtained relief, and by the use of the one package feel completely cured.

Garfield's Record.

What Republican Voters of His District Thought of It in 1876.

On the 7th of September, 1876, the Republicans of the nineteenth congressional district of Ohio opposed to the return of James A. Garfield to congress met in convention at Warren, Ohio, and organized. A committee on resolutions was appointed, which, after mature consideration, submitted the following:

Be it by this independent convention of Republicans of the nineteenth congressional district of Ohio,
RESOLVED, First—That dishonesty, fraud and corruption have become so common, notorious and obvious in the administration of our national government, as to be not only humiliating and disgraceful in the estimation of every honest and intelligent citizen, but to imperil the prosperity of the people, if not the stability of the government itself.

Second—Resolved, That it is useless and hypocritical for any political party to declare for reform in its platform, paper and public addresses while it insists on returning to high official positions and power men who have been notoriously connected with the very schemes of fraud which render reform necessary and urgent; that to send those to enact reform who themselves need reforming to make them honest is worse than setting the blind to lead the blind.

Fourth—Resolved, That there is no man to-day officially connected with the administration of our national government against whom are justly preferred more and graver charges of corruption than are publicly made and abundantly sustained against James A. Garfield, the present representative of this congressional district and the nominee of the republican convention for re-election.

Fifth—Resolved, That since he first entered congress to this day there is scarcely an instance in which rings and monopolies have been arrayed against the interest of the people, that he has been found active in speech or vote upon the side of the latter, but in almost every case he has been the ready champion of the rings and monopolies.

Sixth—Resolved, That we especially charge him with venality and cowardice in permitting Benjamin F. Butler to attach to the appropriation bill of 1873 that ever to be remembered infamy, the salary steal, and in speaking and voting for that measure upon its final passage. And charge him with corrupt disregard of the clearly expressed demand of his constituents that he should vote for its repeal and with evading said demand by voting for the Hutchinson amendment.

Seventh—Resolved, That we further arraign and denounce him for his corrupt connection with the Credit Mobilier, for his false denial thereof before his constituents, for his perjured denial thereof before a committee of his peers in Congress, for fraud upon his constituents in circulating among them a pamphlet purporting to set forth the finding of said committee and the evidence against him, when in fact portions thereof were omitted and garbled.

Eighth—Resolved, That we further arraign and charge him with corrupt bribery in selling his official influence as chairman of the committee on appropriations to the DeGolyer pavement ring, to aid them in securing a contract from the board of public works of the District of Columbia; selling his influence to aid said ring in imposing upon the people of said district a pavement which is almost worthless at a price three times its cost, as sworn to by one of the contractors; selling his influence to aid said ring in procuring a contract to procure which it corruptly paid $97,000 "for influence," selling his influence in a matter that involved no question of law, upon the shallow pretext that he was acting as a lawyer; selling his influence in a matter so palpable and clear as to be so found and declared by an impartial and competent court upon an issue solemnly tried.

Ninth—Resolved, That we arraign him for the fraudulent manner in which he attempted in his speech delivered at Warren, on the 18th of September 1874, to shield himself from just censure in receiving the before named $5,000, by falsely representing, in said speech, that the congress of the United States were not responsible for the acts of said board, nor the United States liable for the debts created thereby, when in truth and in fact, as he then well knew, the said board of public works and the officers of said district were but the agents and instruments of congress and the United States were responsible for the indebtedness by them created.

Tenth—Resolved, That we arraign him for gross dereliction of duty as a member of congress in failing to bring to light and expose the corruption and abuse in the sale of post traderships for which the late Secretary Belknap was impeached, when the same was brought to his knowledge by Gen. Hazen in 1872 and can only account for it upon the supposition that his manhood was debauched by the corruption funds then by him just received and in his own purse.

Eleventh—Resolved, that the law of 1873, known as the act demonetizing silver, was enacted in the interest of gold rings, bondholders and capitalists and against the interest of the taxpayers and without their advice or knowledge. That this act, by a single blow, has seriously crippled our power to resume specie payments or pay our national debt in coin. That no sufficient reason has yet been given for this legislation, so dishonest and palpable in its discrimination in favor of the small creditor class and capitalists and against the great debtor class and the industrial interests of the country. That James A. Garfield during the last session of congress was the conspicuous defender of this crafty attempt to sacrifice the interests of the people to bondholders and foreign capitalists. That when it was proposed to restore the old silver dollar to the place it had held during our history as a nation as a legal tender for all debts public and private, he denounced the attempt as a "swindle on so grand a scale as to make the achievement illustrious" and as a "scheme of vast rascality and colossal swindling."

Twelfth—Resolved, That neither great ability and experience or eloquent partisan discussion of the dead issues of the late war will excuse or justify past dishonesty and corruption or answer as a guaranty of integrity and purity for the future.

Thirteenth—Resolved, That believing the statements in the foregoing resolutions set forth, we cannot, without stultifying our manhood and debasing our self respect, support at the polls, the nominee of the Republican convention of this district for re-election, nor can we without surrendering our rights as electors and citizens, sit silently by and see a man so unworthy again sent to represent us in the national legislature. That strong in the conviction of right we call upon the electors of the district, irrespective of former or present party attachment, who desire honest government to unite with us in earnest, faithful effort to defeat the reelection of Gen. Garfield and elect in his stead an honest and reliable man.

The result of this expose was a majority for Mr. Garfield of twenty-nine hundred and ninety one less than the head of the Republican state ticket received in the nineteenth district. Garfield's majority was 3,269 less in his congressional district in 1876 than Hayes received in it for president—Washington Post.

How Wall Street Sets It.
From the Wall Street Daily News.

The announcement of the nomination of Gen Hancock gave very general satisfaction to the Democrats in Wall street. In the stock exchange bets were $100 to $80 that Hancock would be elected and the brokers were very enthusiastic. Messrs. Bouvier & Wallace offered to wager $1,000 on the election of the Democratic nominee. R. S. Elliot offered to wager $500 to $450 on Hancock's election. Mr. Wormser offered to bet $500 the same way, and W. L. Kennedy offered to wager $250 that Hancock will sweep the state. No bets were taken. Wm. L. Scott has telegraphed an offer to bet $25,000 on the election of Gen. Hancock.

STATE NEWS.

R. D. Hume, of the Rogue river cannery, is building a new tug and steamer for Rogue River.

On account of fine crop prospects, business is beginning to boom throughout the entire valley.

The Linn county fair will commence at Albany on Wednesday, October 6th, and continue four days.

The Santiam canal, says the Albany Democrat, is getting to be quite a bathing place for the ladies. It is warm and not deep enough to be dangerous.

The farmers of Linn county are about through cutting their hay, and there is so much of it that the price is down to $6 or $8 per ton.

The Coast Mail is informed that A. M. Simpson & Bro. will soon commence the construction of a 500 ton vessel at their ship yard, North Bend.

Two deer were shot near the Eagle mills, Jackson county, last Saturday morning. They were within 150 yards of the mill and near the stage road.

The grain crop in Goose Lake Valley will amount to very little this year. It was planted late and scathed by the north winds until it could not recover.

Rev. W. C. Canter, of the Evangelical Church, who has been stationed for three years at Corvallis, has been changed to Albany, and Rev. J. Bowersox changed to Corvallis.

Mr. Cyrus Davis has been up the country toward Dayton and we are sorry to learn from him that the crops in that section has been badly injured by the recent intense heat.

C. D. Simpson, of Albany, has erected a large and commodious warehouse at Soap Creek station, on the W. O. R. R. and is prepared to store 100,000 bushels of grain.

The following named persons comprise the oldest inhabitants of Douglas county according to the late census: Mary Gilmore, 87; Philip Marion, 81; Gen. Joseph Lane, 80; Stephen Marsh, 80; James O'Neil, 80; John Lemmon, 80.

The population of Umatilla county is 9,520. Weston, Centreville, Greensewood and Blue Mountain, 3,350; Alta, Lena, Upper and Lower Butter Creeks, 1,287; Milton, Cottonwood and Umatilla, 2,061; Midway, Lower Willow creek and Meppner, 1,430; Pendleton and Meadows, 1,392.

Last Monday, says the Weston Leader, a man named Nelson eloped with the wife of Winton Permenter, who has been living up on Wild Horse. The lady left a note for her husband to the effect that he need make no attempt to follow her or bring her back. Mr. Nelson has been living in the vicinity of Pendleton, where he owns a good claim.

The Ashland Tidings says that Leander Neal was thrown under a hay rake on his father's farm one day last week, and narrowly escaped serious injury. The horse he was driving backed down a steep bank into a creek bottom, and Leander somehow came underneath. After some responsible scrambling he succeeded in making his escape without more damage than a peeled nose, but he doesn't want to try it again.

What Roscoe Thinks.
New York Express.

Senator Roscoe Conkling was seated upon the veranda of the Brighton Beech hotel, looking out upon the white caps and stroking his Venetian beard. An Express reporter approached him, and after a few moments' conversation on general subjects, asked:

"And what do you think of Garfield, Senator?"

"What do I think of Garfield? Well—"

And there was a pause, and the Utica Adonis stroked his beard again. "I think," he said, and again there was a painful pause.

"What is your candid opinion?" said the reporter.

"Well," was thereupon, "I think—"

And after a two minutes' pause, the Senator said, "I think I won't say anything about it."
