"A full vote, a free ballot and a fair count."-Hancock to Sherman, December 28, 1876.

THE army should have nothing to do with the inauguration of Presidents. The people elect the Presidents. Congress declares in joint session who he is! We of the army have only to obey his mandates, and and are protected in so doing only so far as they may be lawful -- Hancock to Sherman, December 28

I was not in favor of the military we tion in South Carolina recently, and if General Ruger had telegraphed to me or asked for advice, I would have ad vised him not under any circumstance to allow himself or his troops to determine who were the lawful members of a State Legislature .- Hancock to Sherman, December, 1876.

We have just received from the Eastern factory, direct, a sarge stock of window shades and wall paper; among the latter are many very pretty styles embracing Grained Pannels, Embossed, Gilts and Lace Patterns, Satin and Common Blanks, all of which we sell cheap, and no charge for trimming paper.
