The Yamhill county Woman Suffrage Association will meet in McMinnville on Friday, January 14th. Extensive preparations are being made to have the meeting a successful and interesting one.

A. Finney and H. B. Luce have been elected to fill the vacancies in the Hillsboro town board, occasioned by the refusal of members elect to qualify on account of the license squabble that lately divided the town.

The school at La Creole academy has been closed until January 17th on account of fears entertained of scarlet fever. Several deaths from this disease have occurred in Dallas, so sudden as to create a panic.

The man Miller, who committed an outrage on the person of a little girl in Marion county a short time ago, has been captured at last. He had effectually eluded the officers and reached Vancouver, but desiring to get his mail from Aumsville, he wrote to the postmaster at that place to send it to him. The postmaster, Smith, had been a friend of Miller and he calculated that he would not be given away by Smith, but in this he was mistaken. Smith immediately armed himself with a warrant, proceeded to Vancouver and captured Miller, and will receive the $150 reward that was offered for his capture.

A High Priced Vote.

Col. Gillespie, of the U. S. Engineer Corps, in his enthusiastic Republicanism, voted for M. C. George for Congress last June, and the other day the U. S. Grand Jury indicted him for illegal voting, and being hauled up before Judge Deady he promptly pleaded guilty and was fined $200 and costs. Some lawyer had erroneously informed him that army officers could vote, and so he popped in one that cost him $270. The Standard says "it is but; due to Col. Gillespie to state that in voting as he did he was not guilty of a wilful violation of the law, but though he had a perfect right to do as he did. It was the Colonel's first vote, and no doubt it was the highest priced one polled that day.

That part of President Hayes' Message where he speaks of having accomplished so much reform in the New York Custom-house, will be read, says the Philadelphia Times, by Vice-President Arthur with exciting interest.
