SUICIDE!

Jerry Luckey Cuts His Throat with a Large Butcher Knife.

This community was startled, Tuesday evening, on learning that Mr. Jerry Luckey, who resides about four miles below Eugene, had committed suicide by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a butcher knife.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Warren Packard Shoots Himself Eleven times in the Head and Still Lives.

Many citizens of Eugene City will remember Mr. Warren Packard, who resided here with his uncle, Capt. N. L. Packard, several years since. He recently attempted to commit suicide at Coos Bay, the account of which we take from the Coos Bay News of Jan. 12th.

STATE UNIVERSITY.

A column devoted to the interests of the Laurean and Eutaxian Literary Societies, and the State University.

Vale. Having served the time for which I was elected, it is fitting that I should be released from service as Editor of this column.

Salutatory. Time in its ever varying cycle has brought about another change in our society, and transferred the editorial pen, from able hands to those unskilled and new.

Brevities. The correspondence of "Cuisque" will appear next week.—Ed.

Classes will soon commence in Trigonometry, Tacitus and some others.

The basement is visited but rarely in these days. Mr. Dudley is pining away for want of company.

Public meeting of the Laurean Society last night. Invited friends were present in goodly number.

The new book case has been accepted by the Trustees, and the books have been moved into it.

Nominations were made last night for the ensuing term. In the next issue the result of the election will be made known.

The Faculty are members of the Society. Why do they not attend unless specially invited? In no other one way could they make their influence more helpful and elevating.

The Eutaxian and Laurean corporation are considering the practicality of taking "Good Literature." Such a paper would be very convenient.

Yesterday afternoon the students gathered in the chapel to hear the public exercises. Several students from each rhetorical division appeared with declamations, essays and orations.

The question debated last night under the leadership of Messrs H E Courtney, affirmative, and Geo M Hoyt, negative, is one of interest at this time. It is, "Is the Laund League of Ireland a justifiable organization?" It was carefully analyzed, and thoroughly discussed by each side.

Mr. O. Brownson has leased the Belknap Springs on the McKenzie river, and is now prepared to receive visitors. These springs are famed for the medicinal properties of the water, and as they are situated in the midst of beautiful scenery, and fine hunting, and fishing grounds, promise to become a noted resort. Cottage Grove Items.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.] COTTAGE GROVE, Feb. 1, 1881.

More rain.

Business very dull the past week.

Sidewalks are things of the past since the flood in our little town.

William Scott, of Crosswell, had his leg broken one day last week.

Miss Belle Wallace of this place has been quite ill during the past two weeks.

H C Veatch lost about 3,000 rails, 30 bushels of potatoes, and about 10 acres of Fall sown wheat by the last flood.

Mr Aaron Letch and A H Spare went to Portland one day last week on business.

L B Whorton of this place has been quite unwell for the past month, but is slowly recovering.

Mr Frank Bouy had his foot cut with a food adz last week. At last accounts he was getting along very well.

Messrs Stophor & Markey, of Latham, will in a short time erect a new blacksmith and wagon shop in this place.

While working on the railroad near Roseburg last Monday week, Samuel Veatch had his right foot badly cut. With kind treatment he will be out again soon. Vox.

Two Children Hurt.

On Monday last while St. John Skinner was moving his family and household effects to a place which he has rented in Willamette precinct, an accident occurred that came near costing him the lives of two of his children.

While near here, one of the fore wheels of his wagon dropped into a rut throwing his wife and two children to the ground. By some unexplainable chance one child fell before the wheel, and the other behind, both of them being fastened by the wheel. His wife managed to get out of the way of the horses which began to kick when she fell.

After he had quieted the horses he raised the wheel while his wife took the children out. The little girl, three years old, had her collar bone broken, and the boy, six years old, had a leg broken below the knee. Dr. John Nicklin was immediately summoned, and under his care the little sufferers are recovering rapidly. It was a narrow escape, for had the horses become unmanageable, one of them, and probably both, would have been crushed to death.

MILITARY WAGON ROAD.

We learn that nearly all the principal bridges on the Military Wagon Road from Eugene to Southeastern Oregon have been carried away by the flood. Grades have been washed out, and land slides covered the road making it doubtful if wagons can travel the road until late in the Summer.

CASTATA.

Well filed houses witnessed the performance of the Castata last week. It was a success financially and otherwise.
