

CITY AND COUNTY

BRIEF MENTION. If you wish to buy goods cheap call at S H Friendly's.

This has been rather a wintry week; rain, ice and snow. Ladies' dress goods for sale cheap at Rosenblatt & Co's.

A number of delegates to the State Temperance Alliance went from this place Saturday and Monday. Mr S H Friendly will pay the highest cash market price for wheat.

Mr. A. V. Peters, of this city, and Robert Cochran, of Cottage Grove, went to Portland Monday to act as trial jurors in the U. S. District Court.

Mr. S. Miller & Son were allowed $50 for the plan and specifications which they furnished for the consideration of the County Court.

Hats, caps, boots, shoe, clothing, ladies' dress goods, notions, etc, for sale at auction prices by Rosenblatt & Co. They are closing out and must sell.

Business men should not forget that blank notes, bill-heads, statements, letter-heads, and every description of commercial printing are neatly and promptly executed at the GUARD office.

Don't you forget that all who have tried the Durkee Woven Wire Mattress accord it the highest praise, Perfectly clean, noiseless, and durable.

H. C. HUMPHREY, Recorder.

Willamette Forks Items.

COBURG, Feb. 13th, 1881.

There is a great deal of talk of a new saw mill going up in the Spring near Mr Wm B-garts.

Hiram Smith intends to haul back to his mill the logs that the flood carried away, as soon as the weather permits.

Coburg is improving some again. Mr Skinner has got a complete stock of groceries, and is making preparations to have a fine stock of dry goods in the Spring.

There was a little excitement at Coburg on last Friday. Jo. Indian, better known as Jo. Miller, tried to get some one to perform the marriage ceremony between himself and his intended, but he failed and hid to go to Eugene.

A justice of the peace is wanted very bad in Willamette precinct. It is a troublesome office, and everybody wants some one else to take it. Robert Vaughn will serve if appointed. The County Judge ought to look after the matter and appoint one.

Public School.

The Eugene public school for the month ending Feb 10, 1881, had the following enrollment and average daily attendance, notwithstanding the stormy and inclement weather:

Prineville Letter.

PRINEVILLE, Feb. 12, 1881.

EDITOR GUARD:—The disasters in consequence of the elements have not altogether missed this locality, and this section has fared far worse than was ever before known to the present settlers.

Our little town is now working under a charter, and our "City dais" expound dog laws with the wisdom of Diogenes, and coerce their disobedient children with the hand of justice.

The Bridge.

The County Commissioners Court met Monday and after a thorough survey of the situation decided to adopt the plans for the repair of the Eugene bridge, as presented by W. T. Campbell. A crib, 10 feet square, of heavy timbers, and about 200 feet long will be built across the chute just above the bridge on the bank of the river.

Commissioners Court.

Monday, Feb 14, 1881, the court met pursuant to adjournment. Present—Hon C W Fitch, County Judge; J M Spores and J A McMahon, Commissioners.

Carried Off the Coin.

Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, says the Standard of Wednesday, Sheriff Buchtel took charge of the property belonging to the Chinese firm known under the name and style of Coong Yu Loong Company, under a number of writs of attachments gotten out by the creditors of the firm.

Settled.

A false impression might have been created by the notice last week, that Mr. A. D. Burton had been arrested. From all accounts the trouble appears to have been purely a personal one, and should not have been settled at the cost of the State.

Notice.

On Monday March 7th, 1881, I will apply to W. W. Thayer, Governor of the State of Oregon, for a pardon for the offense for which I am now serving a term in the penitentiary.

Notice.

DIED.—Mrs. Susannah Rickard, mother of Casper Rickard of Junction, died at her son's residence in Benton county on the 11th day of February, and was buried at the Monroe cemetery on last Sunday. She was aged 79 years and eleven months, and leaves a large circle of friends and many relatives to mourn her loss.

Notice.

On Monday March 7th, 1881, I will apply to W. W. Thayer, Governor of the State of Oregon, for a pardon for the offense for which I am now serving a term in the penitentiary.

Notice.

DIED.—Mr. J. C. Hawthorne died at his residence in East Portland, Tuesday, from a paralytic stroke by which he was stricken Saturday, and from which he never rallied.

Notice.

GRANGE MEETING.—There will be a special meeting of Lane County Pomona Grange, in Eugene City, on Wednesday, Feb. 23d, at 1 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Convention of Farmers, to meet in Salem on March 2, 1881.

STATE UNIVERSITY.

A column devoted to the interests of the Laurean and Estarian Literary Societies, and the State University.

EDITORS: C. A. WOODY, REUBEN F. SPILLER.

Resolutions.

At the meeting of the Laurean Society, Feb. 11th, the following preamble and resolutions were passed:

WHEREAS, There appeared in the Eugene City GUARD, in the University Column, a certain article over the nom de plume of "Quisque," written by a member of the Laurean Society, purporting to be its friend, and

WHEREAS, The aforesaid article freely advertised this society as being at present in a very demoralized condition, and after laying several severe charges against said society, proceeded to ask, "Why the Laurean Society continues to exist?" And

WHEREAS, By reason of the aforesaid article the Laurean Society has been made to appear before the public in an odious light, and from the effects of said article has suffered much in its reputation, therefore be it resolved:

1st, That we, the members of the Laurean Society, do solemnly assert that the charges and insinuations contained, in the aforesaid article, are false.

2d, That the writer of the aforesaid article is unknown to the members of this society, but, whoever he may be, we unite in esteeming him our worst enemy.

3d, That our Editor, in allowing the publication of the aforesaid article in our column, erred in judgment and deserves the censure of the society.

4th, That we take pleasure in announcing to the public that we are not in need of the reforms pointed out by the writer of the aforesaid article; and to further maintain our honor we do declare, that never in our history has our general order been better, our attendance larger or our general condition more prosperous than at the present time.

5th, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the next issue of the Societies column in the GUARD and Journal.

Laurean Election.

The last election in the Society passed off quietly and quite unanimously. The only close vote was for Treasurer, when the vote was 28 to 24. The officers elect are as follows: President, Arthur L. Frazer, of Yamhill; Vice President, James D. Slater, of Union; Secretary, John McCornack, of Lane; Treasurer, W. W. Cardwell, of Jackson; Censor, James M. Neville, of Union; Editor, H. H. Hendricks, of Jackson; Sergeant-at-Arms, William C. Taylor, of Benton. They were inaugurated in the prescribed manner on yesterday evening. Thus dawns a new dynasty; under it, may the Society grow and prosper.

Notice.

The obnoxious article, in the last issue of the GUARD, relating to the Laurean Society, was published without my knowledge or consent.
