STATE NEWS.

Strawberries are ripening in the vicinity of Eola, Polk Co.

The Roseburg Independent has entered upon its sixth volume.

Wm. Percival, near Monmouth, has a field of barley which is now fully headed out.

Tri-weekly service has been placed on the route from Gardiner to Florence on the Siuslaw. The service from Florence to Collins has been discontinued.

The Catholic fair recently held at McMinnville was a grand success. Archbishop Seghena was present the first evening. The proceeds amounted to about $500.

The number of persons of the age to draw money for school purposes in Coos county is 1838. The school fund of that county, recently apportioned by the superintendent amounts to $1718. This is 93 1/2 cents for every child reported.

Riverside: Last Saturday afternoon as a number of children were at play on the railroad bridge between old and new Independence, little Bennie a 7 year old son of A. Wing, fell through the trawler work to the ground beneath a distance of over 25 feet. Strange as it may appear no bones were broken.

Mrs. Huff, matron of the Indian school at Forest Grove has resigned in consequence of her husband having accepted the pastorage of the Baptist church at Pendleton. Rev. Mr. Huff leaves for his new field of labor this week, but Mrs. Huff will remain until June. A new organ has just been added to the attractions of the school.

John Sax has let the contract for the erection of his new flouring mills at McMinnville, and work will commence on them next week. Messrs Kirkpatrick, Buck & Tyler of McMinnville are the contractors. Seven bids were put in upon the work, and among the whole lot there was not more than $75 difference, the above named getting the job at $15,000.

Itemizer: On Sunday last the wife of Thomas Stakely, of Salt creek, was visiting at Mrs. Butler's, and was sitting near the stove with her infant about seven months old, in her arms when Mrs. Butler, in trying to pour some water from a large tea kettle, upset the same, the contents drenching the child and scalding Mrs. Stakely very severely on the face and limbs. The injuries sustained by the child has produced internal inflammation, and its recovery is extremely doubtful, the attending physicians thinks there is some chance for its recovery.

Albany Democrat: Samuel H. Williams, aged 1 1/2 years, a son of H. S. Williams, of Seio, was out hunting the other day, and his rifle having been loaded for some time, he fired at a mark, wishing to reload, and in the act dropped his patching, which he stopped down to pick up. The powder horn was still unstoppered, and the old patch which had just been shot had taken fire and was lying on the ground, still burning. Some powder ran from the horn, which contained a quarter of a pound, and came in contact with the burning patch. The whole exploded, and the boy lay senseless on the ground from 12 o'clock, until 3 P. M. He has recovered from the shock and sustained no serious damage, except being badly powder burned.

Roseburg Independent: The remains of Mrs. Polly Lane were brought in from the mountain rancho of Gen. Joseph Lane on last Saturday, and escorted to the vault prepared for herself and husband, by her children and other relatives. When the coffin was exhumed the wood was discovered to be perfectly sound, and the body of the deceased was found to be in a perfect state of preservation, though it had laid in the grave within a few months of 11 years. Mrs. Lane was born in 1802, and died August 17th, 1870. There was no display in the transfer of the remains to the vault quiet, in keeping with the life of one whose history is that of a pure woman, a faithful wife and noble mother, the second cortege went its way to the cemetery.

Umbrella flirtation: to place your umbrella in a rack indicates that it is about to change owners. An umbrella carried over the woman, the man getting nothing but the drippings of the rain signifies courtship. When the man has the umbrella and the woman the drippings it indicates marriage. To carry it at right angles under your arm signifies that an eye is to be lost by the man who follows you. To put a cotton umbrella by the side of a nice silk one signifies, "exchange is no robbery." To carry an open umbrella just high enough to tear out men's eyes and knock off men's hats, signifies, "I am a woman." To lend an umbrella indicates, "I am a fool."

Senator Edmunds, in passing through South Carolina, gravely told the public through a newspaper interviewer, that what South Carolina, and the South wants, is people. And yet, when the census recently taken proved that South Carolina was having its wants supplied pretty largely in this respect it was this Senator who set up a cry of fraud, and refused to be convinced until the census was taken a third time, and by a Vermont man. But doesn't Vermont want people! She has almost stood still during the last decade.

The losses by fire in the United States during the year 1880 aggregate $79,838,000. For the last five years they foot up $496,269,700, or an average of $81,253,940 a year. This is at the rate of nearly $226,000 for every day in the year. The man who could devise a means of rendering fires impossible would be entitled to a good sized fortune every day of his life, and for every day of the lives of his heirs to all generations.

Officers of the Senate.

Following is a list of the officers of the Senate. It will perhaps explain why it is necessary to fight over the organization:

Secretary of the senate, $4,500, and for compensation as a disbursing officer of the salaries of senators, $396; chief clerk, $3,000; principal clerk, principal executive, minute and journal clerk, financial clerk and enrolling clerk, $2502 each; librarian and six clerks in the office of the secretary, $2220 each; assistant librarian, $1440; five clerks, $2100 each; keeper of the stationery, $2105 40; assistant keeper of stationery, $1800; two messengers, $1206 each; one assistant in the stationery room, $1000; chaplain, $900; secretary to the Vice President, $2102 40; messenger to the Vice President's room $400; clerk to the committee on appropriations, $1600; clerk and stenographer to the committees on finance, $2500; clerk of printing record, $2220; clerks to the committees on claims commerce, judiciary, private land claims, pensions, military affairs, postoffice and post roads, district of Columbia, naval affairs and census, $2200 each; sergeant-at-arms and door keeper, $4390; assistant door keeper, $2592; acting assistant door keeper, $2592; three messengers acting as acting assistant doorkeepers, $1800 each; clerk to the sergeant at arms, $2,000; postmaster to the senate, $2250; assistant postmaster and mail carrier, $2,088; four mail carriers, $1200 each; superintendent of the document room $2160; two assistants, $1440 each; superintendent of the folding room, $2160; one assistant $1200; messenger to the committee on appropriations, $1440; twenty four messengers, $1440; messenger to the official reporters room; chief engineer, $2160; three assistant engineers, $1440 each; conductor of elevator; $1200; eight skilled laborers, $1000 each per annum, twenty-four clerks to committees, $6 per day.

Fine Writing.
A short hand competition was recently opened in England, the system being Pitmann's, and the object to inscribe as many words as possible on one side of a postal card, the writing to be legible to the naked eye. The first prize was awarded to a correspondence clerk in a great mercantile house, whose postal card contained 32,263 words, including the whole of Goldsmith's "She Stoops to conquer," and essay by John Morley and Holcroft's "Road to Ruin."
