EUGENE CITY, OREGON.

The Ohio Man.

The latest story about an enterprising Ohio man is told by a gentleman who was recently in one of the new towns on the line of railroad in New Mexico. He says one of the elect reached there some time ago without a dollar or an acquaintance, but so generally was he deferred to as an Ohio man that within three months he was elected City Physician, County Coroner and public Administrator, and, as an admiring constituent remarked, he had a "dead sure thing" on each man in the district. As a physician he can kill him, as a Coroner he can determine the cause of his death, and as Public Administrator he can get away with all his earthly goods. The divine right of kings seems to have descended upon Ohio men generally. The new Consul to Jerusalem is to be an old gentleman who taught Garfield in Sunday school. From Washington to New Mexico, and from the Holy Land to Hades, Ohio men are in command.

Wall street is indebted to Secretary Windom for a new slang phrase, "Old proprietary interests" is his convenient form of words for describing Windom & Company's recent issue to themselves (without payment) of 180,000 hitherto dormant shares of Northern Pacific stock of the par value of eighteen millions of dollars and of the market price on the day of issue—March 18th last—of about nine millions of dollars! Wall street has run the changes on "watered stock" until the phrase has become quite pounded and worn down, "Old proprietary interest stock" has a sound as of some rare old brand of highly particular Madeira. It is a fine conservative phrase, too. Who but a communist, or at least a desperate "anti-monopolist," could object to the issue of a fine old reserve of railway shares by a select knot of stockholders to themselves in the capacity of "old proprietors"!

A young man in Russia of decided ability was recently attacked by an acute disease brought on by excessive dissipation. After his recovery he was found to have lost all his mental faculties except calculation and memory. These were increased to such a degree that he could surpass all mathematicians in power of mental calculation, and could repeat poetry which occupied several minutes in reading, after hearing it only once. In all other respects he is a helpless idiot.

Following is a list of the Generals of the Army: General of the Army, Wm. T. Sherman; Lieutenant-General P. H. Sheridan; Major Generals—W. S. Hancock, J. M. Schofield, Irvin McDowell; Brigadier-Generals—John Pope, O. O. Howard, A. H. Terry, E. O. C. Ord, C. C. Augur, Geo. Crook.

Meeting to Further Improvements on Yaquina Bay.

A large meeting of Linn and adjoining counties was held at Albany last Thursday, April 21st, to take into consideration the wants of the people of the Willamette valley in the matter of improving the Yaquina Bay and harbor entrance. Mr. R. A. Irvine was elected president of the meeting and C. H. Stewart, Esq., secretary. Mr. Wallis Nash, of Corvallis, made a speech explaining the condition of the improvements and the advantages to the contiguous counties if the proposed improvements of the bay are carried out. A series of resolutions were adopted, embodying the sentiments of the people, in favor of more government appropriation to aid in completing the harbor and setting forth its advantages to the prosperity of the valley.

A Committee representing six counties and consisting of the following persons were appointed: Hon John Whiteaker, Lane county; Manly Carrier, Benton; Hon Ralph C. Geer, Marion; Hon Robert Clow, Polk; Hon W. R. Bilyeu, Linn; Hon J. C. Braley, Yamhill. They were instructed to prepare a petition to the government, praying for additional appropriations for the improvement of the Yaquina bay, and to circulate the petition in every quarter of the counties mentioned, and in other sections of the State as they see fit. The people of those sections are interested in the proposed improvements and in deed earnest about securing an outlet at Yaquina Bay.
