Shot by the Indians.

The Walla Walla Statesman, prints the following letter from Andrew McCalley, who formerly resided here, but who is now in New Mexico. The letter explains itself:

"DEAR FATHER:—I am now lying on my back with my leg all shot to pieces. I have already had two operations performed on my leg, and about to have the third. The Indians shot me about two months ago when they raided the country. I was at the time prospecting, and the Indians jumped on me unawares. Four of the boys stood by me, two of whom were killed and the other two escaped without injury.

Your Son,
ANDREW."

ARRESTED.—Deputy Sheriff Clinge, of Polk county, passed through the city yesterday with Jas. L. Sheldon, whom he arrested Thursday in Lane county. Some time ago Sheldon was arrested for stabbing a man but gave bail for his appearance. His bondsman asked to be released, hence his arrest, and the prospect of lingering in jail loomed up before him unless he gets bonds—Salem Statesman.

Irving Items.

April 23, 1881.

Business in and around Irving is very dull.

We had the pleasure of witnessing a fight this week.

Crops look fine, and our farmers are in better spirits.

Irving wants a grist mill, dry goods store and a wagon shop, besides a few $20 gold pieces. Who will be the lucky man to venture upon these enterprises.

The school here is under the management of Mr. J. N. Goltz, and is progressing finely.

The patrons of this school district are decidedly opposed to an exchange of school books any more. We would like to hear from their sister districts. Those who buy books are the ones who have the burden to bear. Now is the time to sound public opinion, before the next Legislature convenes, so we may send men there opposed to continually changing books. SUBSCRIBERS.

Report of Grand Jury.

We the Grand Jury for Lane County, State of Oregon, do submit the following as our final report: That we have examined the various public offices of the county, including the Clerk's, Sheriff's, and Treasurer's offices, and that we find each of them in good order and neatly kept. The records of the County Clerk's office we find in good order and neatly kept; also the books of the Sheriff and Treasurer. We would recommend that the door of the vault in the Clerk's office be repaired so that it can be closed and locked.

The county jail of this county, we report as being unfit for the safe keeping of prisoners therein.

Eugene, April 22, 1881.

J. M. STILES, Foreman Grand Jury.

ARRESTED.—A man who lives with a squaw near the river, by the name of Jim McFarland, was arrested Wednesday by Deputy Marshal Underwood for giving whiskey to an Indian, known as Saslaw George. He afterwards escaped, but was re-captured Thursday, and taken to Portland, Oregon, Friday to answer to the charge. He will undoubtedly be sentenced to the penitentiary, as this is his third offense.

INSANE.—Last Thursday Mrs. Cynthia A. Landrite, of Saslaw, was examined before the County Court and pronounced insane, and was the same day taken to the asylum at East Portland. We understand that she has recently had a severe attack of fever, and apparently recovered, but soon she began to show symptoms of insanity, and becoming worse was brought to town with the above result.

CONFIRMED.—Bishop B. Wister Morris, of the Episcopal Church, confirmed the following named persons as members of that church, last Sunday morning: B. C. Van Houten, Mr. D. Smith and wife, Mrs. Mary J. Odell, Miss Estella Whiteaker, Mr. Jas. Slater. Bishop Morris preached an excellent sermon after the confirmation. He also preached in the evening.

Mrs. D. F. SMITH.—The entertainment given by this lady last Wednesday evening, at the M. E. Church, was really splendid. Mrs. Smith possesses rare elocutionary powers, and we would not be surprised if some day she became a distinguished elocutionist.

COYOTE CLUB.—Persons who favored the forming of a Coyote club met at the Court House last Saturday and adjourned to Saturday May 7th. It is to be hoped that a large number of our sheep raisers will be present.

ACCEPTED.—Mr. Wheeler, who has been studying telegraphing under Mr. L. G. Adair at the depot here, has accepted a position of the Narrow Gauge Railroad Co. at the new town of Dundas, at a salary of $35 per month. We wish him success.

ACQUITTED.—C. R. Sayre, who was indicted by the Grand Jury for the burglary of some bacon from Mr. James Holt, was acquitted last Tuesday. He has been in the county jail since the 1st of January.

SUICIDE AT JUNCTION.

D. D. String in a Fit of Insanity Hangs Himself, at Junction.

Friday morning, Mr. J. R. Ream, coroner of this county, received a telegram from Junction stating that Mr. D. D. String had committed suicide. Coroner Ream went down on the train, and held an inquest developing substantially the following facts: Mr. String arose about five Friday morning, dressed and left his bed room. Not returning for some time his wife became alarmed and went to the barn, the door of which was open, to search for him, and found him hanging to a beam. She gave the alarm to the neighbors, but too late as the unfortunate man was already dead. He had been troubled the day previous about some of his business transactions, having obligations soon to fall due which he thought he could not meet. Mr. String was a steady, industrious citizen, a butcher by trade, and about middle aged. He was a member in good standing of Junction Lodge A. F. & A. M., by whom his funeral obsequies were conducted. The following is the verdict rendered:

Wg, the jury summoned to inquire into the cause of the death of D. D. String, say that he came to his death on the 25th day of April, 1881, by strangulation, caused by hanging by his own hands walls in a fit of temporary insanity.

C. W. Washburn, E. Van Vranken, W. S. Lee, V. Kraus, T. O. Thompson, Jas. Hoffman, Jury.

J. E. Housen, Clerk.

I. O. O. F. Anniversary.

The sixty-second anniversary of the institution of Odd Fellowship in the United States was appropriately celebrated at the hall of the order, in this city, Tuesday evening, by the Odd Fellows, their families and numerous guests. A short address was delivered by J. J. Walton, P. G. H., and vocal and instrumental music was furnished by the choir and string band. The feature of the evening however was the supper, prepared by Charles Baker at the St. Charles Hotel, to which about 70 couples sat down. After supper all returned to the hall where social converse and amusement was indulged in until a late hour. The hall and dining room were finely decorated and trimmed with evergreens and mottoes. The ladies of the Rebekah deserve credit for the excellent manner in which the celebration was carried out.

FINE PROSPECTS.—Last Saturday we paid a short visit to Willamette Forks precinct, and were glad to observe that the crop prospects in that section are splendid. Nearly if not quite all the grain is sown and looking finely. While there we enjoyed the hospitality of M. Thomas Vaughn, and can assure any wandering pilgrim, that chances that way that for solid comfort for the inner man the boarder's board spread by Mrs. Vaughn cannot be surpassed.

CLUB MEETING.—The next regular meeting of Lane County Sportsmen Club will be held at the club room, next Saturday evening, May 7th. A proposition to disorganize the club will be introduced, and it is requested that every member be present and vote on this question. It is to be hoped that the members of the club will see fit to continue the organization, as in time it will no doubt be productive of much good.

THE MODOC WARRIORS.—Schonchin, in a letter to the Council Fire of the 25th ult., gives some interesting particulars of the survivors of the great Modoc war, who were taken to Indian Territory to be civilized. "B. Gus Charley died on the 25th of October last. Successorly Jim died on the 14th of last month. Both died of consumption. Steamboat Frank is preaching."

BASE BALL.—The University and Town nines again met on the diamond field last Saturday, for a match game; last Saturday, resulting in a victory for the town nine, by a score of 19 to 11. The third game of the series will be played to day, when it will be decided which are the victors, as each have won a game. All who enjoy the sport should be present.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—A daughter of Mr. Cass Hubbard, of the McKenzie, aged about 17 years, met with rather a singular and unfortunate accident a few days ago. While crossing a foot log, carrying a glass jar, she fell breaking the jar, and cutting the end of her back off with one of the fragments.

1000 HOGS WANTED.—Kratz & Washburn, of Junction City, desire to purchase 1,000 head of hogs, such as will do to butcher this coming winter. Cash paid down on all purchases.

A CHANCE.—The usual preaching service of the First Baptist Church, which heretofore has been held at 7:30 o'clock, will from this date, and until further notice, be held at 5 o'clock.

PARALYZED.—We learn that Mr. Jacob Hampton, an old resident of this county, received a severe stroke of paralysis Monday. He is now lying in a precarious condition.

COURT ADJOURNED.—The Circuit Court adjourned last Wednesday at noon. All the lawyers, jurymen and witness have returned to their homes, and town seems a trifle dull.

FINED.—Frank Snider, of Cohurg, who committed an assault on John Long, plead guilty last Tuesday, and was fined $50 and costs by Judge Watson.

CLOSING EXERCISES.—The closing exercises of the public school will be held at the M. E. Church, Friday, May 6th.

There is quite an excitement on the street this Friday evening, on account of Mr. R. H. Huns taking one of his children away from the home of his divorced wife.

Business men should not forget that blank notes, bill-heads, statements, letter-heads, and every description of commercial printing are neatly and promptly executed at the GUARD office.

STATE UNIVERSITY.

A column devoted to the interests of the Laurean and Eutaxian Literary Societies, and the State University.

DE-ETTA COGSWELL,.....EDITOR

Time has marked another period in our Society. We are called upon to occupy the vacant desk, and wield the pen in behalf of Eutaxians. We acknowledge the honor and shall endeavor if possible to deserve it; for although our hands are unskilled our heart is willing. And if we do not expect to appear before the public as our Brother Laureans, yet we gladly accept a share of the public interest through the medium of this column. D. E. C.

Brevities.

Vacation is a thing of the past. Extra sessions are in order this week. Strawberries are ripe on the University campus.

The Botany class is exceedingly interesting. Who is counting the weeks until commencement?

We rejoice in the fragrance of the first Spring roses.

The Trigonometry class was examined by Professor Bailey, this week.

Miss Ida Dunn is again among us, having almost recovered from her late illness.

Public rhetorical in the auditorium next Friday; all who feel interested in the welfare of the University are respectfully invited to attend.

The mystery is solved: the Eutaxians now know why the Laureans do not take off their hats to them—the German saying "they have sparrows under their hats."

Miss Mae Underwood who is, teaching near Junction came home last Friday. Her many friends feel the loss of her presence, and gladly welcome these short returns.

On Thursday of last week, the class in Livy passed an examination under Professor Johnson, and also the second Caesar class. Having finished Caesar they began Sallust.

Miss A. D. Smith, who was formerly a student of the University, and who is now teaching at "Link Heller" was in Eugene Sunday. These flying visits are short but sweet.

Mrs. Herbert McCormack, of the class of 1878, who has been spending the winter in Eugene is now visiting friends in The Dalles, and intends to make her future home in Walla Walla.

Miss Emma Cornelius departed last Saturday for Brownsville, near which place she will take charge of the district school for the next three months. We wish her success in this her first attempt at training the juvenile minds.

Hall of Eutaxians.

April the 15th. This being the first meeting after vacation, there was a full attendance, and more than usual interest manifested among the members. The opening song was perfectly enchanting. Ohi that a Laurean had lingered near. Under the new business came the election of officers for the ensuing term. Miss Charlotte Roberts was duly elected President; Miss Eva Rogers was elected to the office of Vice-President after the second ballot; after the first ballot on the names of the nominees for Secretary Miss Alice Dorris and Miss Emma Cornelius were left as contestants, Miss Dorris was finally elected. Miss Mary Dorris was elected Treasurer by an almost unanimous vote. After balloting several times the society at last succeeded in casting a two-thirds vote for Miss Frances O'Neil, this electing her Sergeant-at-Arms.

Question chosen for debate two weeks hence, "Resolved that scandal ought to be punishable by law." Leader on the affirmative, De Etta Cogswell, colleagues, Alice Dorris, Carrie Walker, and Eliza Spencer; Leader on the negative, Jennie Spencer, colleagues, Anna Whiteaker, Mary McCormack and Mary Dorris.

April 22d. Today our new officers assumed their respective duties. The exercises were somewhat at a variance from the usual programme there being no debate we listened an hour to the reading of Ivanhoe, in which we become more interested each week, especially in the characters of Rebecca, the beautiful Jewess, and the disinherited knight.

In order to vary the monotony of our regular debates, the society chose a question having three sides. Three leaders were therefore appointed, entitled to but one colleague each. The question reads as follows, "Which does the most to make the orator, knowledge, nature or art? After recess, during which time an "exceedingly amusing" visitor arrived, the society listened to some very appropriate and interesting rhetorical.

Although our number is small our courage is great, and we are glad that we can truthfully say, there are no drones in the hive.

The Laureans.

At the last meeting of the Laureans, the following list of officers were elected. President, Wallace Mount; Vice-President Geo. M. Hoyt; Secretary, B. B. Beekman; Assistant Secretary, Frank A. Haffey; Treasurer, H. C. Courtney; Editor A. L. Fraser; Censor, C. P. Richard; Sergeant-at-Arms, G. A. Dorris. The Eutaxians offer their best wishes of success to their brother society, and feel confident that they will wax strong under their valiant leaders.
