EUGENE CITY, OREGON.

One of Brady's Bombs

Below we give a statement as reported by telegraph to the S. F. Chronicle. It is needless to say that so far it has failed to appear in the Oregonian. The Oregonian is always ready to hurl stone at Hipple-Mitchell, but when anything appears to still further smirch the infamous record of Credit Mobilier Garfield it refuses to publish it. Of course Garfield must nothing wrong as he is not capable of such a thing, and will do as he did about the Credit Mobilier scandal and call it only a a loan. It is possible that it may have been written by the author of the Morey letter. If so, the villain should be found and punished, though he resided in the White House.

CHICAGO, May 4.—The Times' Washington special says: Last August, after the Republican reverses in Maine while gloom was overhanging the Republican campaign, there was a lamentable lack of the sinews of war, owing to indifference on the part of usually liberal donors from New York. J. M. Hubbell, Chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, realizing the danger, called upon Second Assistant Postmaster-General Thomas J. Brady and asked that he raise in his department the sum of $50,000. At first Brady positively refused, but finally consented on condition that Garfield should, in writing, approve of the plan. That night a detailed account of the situation was started westward. The return mail from Mentor brought the following.

[Private.]

MENTOR, O., August 12th, 1880.

My Dear Hubbell: Yours of the 10th just received and the contents noted. Please say to Brady that I hope he will give us all the assistance possible. I think he can help effectively. Please tell me how the departments in general are doing. As ever, yours, J. A. GARFIELD.

Hon. J. A. Hubbell, Washington D. C.

Mahone's Description of Himself

Here is a complete answer to John Sherman's recent speech denying that Mahone was a Democrat, and so elected in a party sense. It is from Mahone's own organ, the Richmond Whig and published ten months after Mahone had been elected Senator:

He is no Republican. There is no Funder in Virginia who has fought the Republican party with half the vigor and effect with which General Mahone has; there is no Conservative in Virginia who has done more to save the State from Radical rule; and there is no Democrat within our borders whose long record of brilliant service for Democracy so elevates him above all suspicion. There is no suspicion of his Democracy anywhere.

Brady is struck down, not because he is a thief, but because he owns the National Republican, and has assailed Garfield's anti-Chinking policy through its columns. Here again the record of the unhappy man in the White House is thrown with cruel force into his face. When the Republicans make, as it doubtless will: "Who is this Garfield of Credit Mobilier and De Golyer fame that he should put on airs about the honesty of other people? the insolent question will unbiddingly fall on echo in every mind. Garfield has been in office but a couple of months and already one prominent organ of his party has reprinted the scathing denunciation of him by the Republican press of 1873. Long before the first of his term has expired the whole American people will feel in all its bitterness the humiliation of having a spotted man at their head.—Standard.

There are seventy-three engineers and four hundred subordinate workmen, of various grades engaged in making a detailed survey of the Panama Canal route. At the point where it is proposed to dam the Chagres river they have sunk a shaft one hundred feet, without finding bedrock, and are getting services, as no other foundation will be suitable for the great dam, which is to be the largest ever built.

What's in a sign? Not every one who reads a chemic knows what is in it. The Medical Journal vouchsafes the information that a sign contains acetic, formic, butyric, valeric, propionic acids, prussic acid, cresalic, carbolic acid, ammonia, sulphuretted hydrogen, dyridine, vinoline, picoline rubidine." And yet the dare-devil fool of carrying all that in their mouths.

The Democrats are not only likely to carry New York this fall but Pennsylvania as well. In the "Keystone" State the fight will be over the State Treasurer. The Philadelphia Press (Rep.) declares that the leaders of the party, for some purpose of their own intend to allow the election to go by default.
