Why pay traveling dentists to practice on you? Go to Davis; get good work. The residence of Mr A G Hovey is beginning to assume fair proportions.

The railroad spike driver has been at work driving spikes near the mill this week. Something new—lace kid gloves at S. H. Friendly's. Call and examine them.

The Pacific opera house, of Albany, was burned to the ground on Monday morning last between one and two o'clock. Supposed arson. It belongs to Lon D Froman. Loss $1,200. No insurance. Business men should not forget that blank notes, bill-heads, statements, letter-heads, and every description of commercial printing are neatly and promptly executed at the GUARD office.

On Monday and Tuesday of this week, Mr E J McClanahan dragged the ferry boat from this place to Springfield, where it will be used by Miller & Son in constructing the pier for the Springfield bridge. There are one hundred and fifty named and described varieties of wheat and yet one half the people who grow the grain don't know the difference—such is the lack of training in the natural history of plants.

Mr Cornelius, who was shot in the streets of Portland, on the 4th, died the following day from the effects of the wounds received. Mr Cornelius was a very worthy citizen, and his death will be deeply mourned by a host of friends. His remains were carried to Forest Grove for interment.

We take this means to say that Dr. Holman's liver pad for all stomach and liver troubles, was the first article of the kind introduced to the public, and from the wonderful success it has in curing all diseases of the liver and malaria, in all its various types, it has become a stomach remedy; and can now be had at our drug stores.

ESCAPE OF "TRUSTIES."—Within the past week there has been two "State Prison convicts who are allowed perfect freedom to go wherever it is their pleasure, and who would not be known from any other citizen, except that the "trustee" wears a striped suit—made their escape; one on the 4th and one on the 10th.

LOW WATER PREDICTED.—Steamboat men are predicting early low water in the Willamette this season. The absence of snow in the mountains is the fact upon which they base their judgment. It has been many years since so light a covering of snow was left in the Cascade range at the opening of spring.

BEAK.—To the wife of A L Jackson, Monday July 11, a son.

On motion, adjourned. H. C. HUMPHREY, Recorder. What Newspapers Do.

One of our contemporaries says the columns of a paper are a publisher's stock in trade, and the parties who ask to use them for their special benefit must expect to pay for the same. Every public spirited citizen of a place should have a pride in seeing his town and surroundings improve; every new house every road, every new manufacturing establishment erected, every new business opened, enhances the value of property in our midst. Every reflecting mind knows this to be true, and it should not be forgotten that the local paper is an index to the general wealth and prosperity of the place, as well as increases the reputation of the town abroad. It benefits all who have business in the place, enhances the value of property, besides being a desirable public convenience, even if not conducted in the interest of the ruling political power. It increases trade, cautions against impositions, saves you from loss, warns you of danger, points out different advantages and increases your profits. The local press is the power that moves the people; therefore support it by advertising in it liberally, subscribing for it and paying for it.

Premiums. Several ladies of Eugene took premiums at the State Fair as follows: Mrs Kirkland, tea covey, collar and cuff, silk embossed, 1st; lambrequin, applique, 2d; Mrs W T Shelton, display of mineral cabinet and specimens in natural history, 1st; mosses and lichens, 1st; herbarium 1st; pressed ferns, 2d; Mrs F M Wilkins, ottoman in applique, 1st; toilet set in darned netting, 6 pieces, 2d; set of table napkins; largest display of machine and hand sewing, 1st; display autumn leaves 1st.

The Portland-China Line. It is generally bruited, and the information is said to come from some official source that the O R & N Co will have a line of steamships established between this city and some port in China by October next. The steamer Mississippi will form one of the line. The enterprise, it is thought, will be successful from the first.—Mercury.

ISRAEL.—Joseph Gates, an elderly German, was examined by a board of physicians Tuesday and adjudged insane. It appears that he is subject to paroxysmal fits of insanity, during which he has morbid propensity to kill some one, and after he masters that feeling, he has a strong desire to kill himself. He was taken to the asylum Wednesday.

SENSATIONAL.—The last Portland Mercury has a sensational story about there being a fight here on the Fourth, at which pistols were drawn and fired. The Mercury has been misinformed. Although an immense crowd was here, no disorderly conduct took place.

Survey on the O. & C. R. R. Extension.

Several parties of surveyors are now at work on the proposed extension of the O & C R R seeking for passes through the mountainous regions of Southern Oregon. It is now found that the extension tunneling and bridging heretofore deemed necessary on this route is a mistake. A route through the canyon has been found with a grade of less than 100 feet to the mile, while another over the Cow Creek Hills is reported to have a grade of 20 feet less to the mile. By the route now being surveyed a tunnel three-quarters of a mile in length through the Sixty-four 400 feet below the lowest pass will be necessary. Howard's surveyors are now operating in the vicinity of Coles, Cal, having passed the state line on the 6th, inst, about one mile east of the stage road. They expect to reach the Klamath river in about four days, when they will retrace their steps and commence surveying toward the Rogue river. This party found part of a mail sack in the vicinity of Pilot Rock recently, which still had some matter in it. The supposition is that it is the remains of the bag rifled by robbers a year ago. An express way-bill receipt from the Jacksonville office was found among the papers.—Standard.

Grave Charges. A long letter appears in the Portland Mercury of Sunday last, charging Professor Walker, President of the college at Philomath, and a minister of the gospel, with being a libertine and a liar. It is signed by Isaac Belknap, ex-pastor of the church at Philomath, and a member of 21 years standing, and concludes with the following appeal to Prof Walker:

Sir—I charge you of circulating among your friends reports that are as false as your own heart, and thereby trying to break down the character of the innocents whom you had previously sought to ruin. These and all the foregoing charges are of such a nature that no honest gentlemen will rest under them, and I have but to add that if you think that your past record will bear inspection and wish to enter into a legal investigation of the matter, you will find me in life-size at my residence at Philomath. Then give no longer private lessons. To a female class of one, in the chapel of the college, 'neath the setting of the sun.

Dexter Items. Dexter, July 14th, 1881. The loggers have started their "drive." Mr Will Williams has rented J A Bringle's farm.

Mrs E B Hunsaker of Spokane Falls, is visiting relatives and friends here. They say it is necessary to "man a ship" or a Briggs' 37; yes, in a Horn.

W R Parker killed a large cougar yesterday. Did you say it was more than twenty feet long? Now "Rees" you must know that is a "whopper" (not alone the animal but the story), and we'll bet he measured up one side and down the other.

Who Saw it First? The question of who discovered the present comet has become a most momentous one. Over 500 persons have laid claim to the honor and the Warner Prize of $200, and all of them are within comparatively the same time. It is desirable that no injustice be done in this matter and to this end all parties who saw the comet during the week ending June 25th, or previously, will please forward their claims without delay to Prof Swift, Director of the Warner Observatory, Rochester, N. Y. If it is certain the discovery was made by a private individual, but who that individual is remains to be seen.

Cow Ordinance.—The city council has concentrated the wisdom of its members, and given the people a law that will make the lawgivers famous. We refer to the ordinance compelling widows and poor people to keep their cows confined at night. What question, vital to the interests of the city, will next engage the attention of these Solons? We have a dog law and a cow law, would it not be well to experiment on cats?

FISHING.—A party consisting of B C Van Houten, E J McClanahan, and J R Campbell of the GUARD, started this morning on a fishing trip up the McKenzie. They take a boat with them which they will put in at the Toll bridge, 50 miles east of this place. They will be gone nine days, and will make the speckled beauties suffer.

COLT SHOW.—The colt show advertised by Mr H G Hadley came off last Saturday, quite a number of fine looking colts putting in an appearance. The prize of $20 was awarded to Geo Hadley; the colt he exhibited was 2 1/2 months old, and weighed 430 pounds. Mr Hadley offers three premiums for next years colts, viz: $15, $10 and $5.

Mr Jas H Shinn, formerly of the state land office at La Grande, passed Saturday and Sunday in Eugene. Mr Shinn was delighted with the country around our town, and declared that it was the finest section of country that he had seen in the state.

Salem Flouring Mills. We are informed that on Tuesday a company was organized in this city for the purchase of the Salem Flouring Mills, capital stock $200,000, which was all paid in. The stockholders are named in the order of their interest in the stock as follows: Wm Reid; W Scott of Liverpool, W S Sibson, Robert Bell, W S Ladd, A Bush, Mr Cochran, of Dundee, Mr Lawson, of Dundee; Wm Dunbar and Geo Beattie. The company seems to have been re-organized by Mr Scott, who was a large stockholder before the death of Mr Albert Kinney, whose death has probably made such a movement necessary. Mr Geo Beattie has been for many years chief miller and continues his direction. The directors of the company are Wm Reid, who is president, Robert Bell, who is secretary, W S Ladd, A Bush, and Geo Beattie. We are informed by one of the company that the intention is to extend the business of the company materially another year. It is possible that this mill company will own its own boats so as to be independent on the score of its transportation facilities. It is a strong concern and the purpose is to carry on an extensive business with the best possible facilities.—Standard

The Latest.

The President Better.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The president is better than since he was shot. Bliss sees marked improvement. His condition is nearly normal. The president ate some woodcock and toast to-day besides his milk and rum. He is now steadily and necessarily slowly improving. This is the twelfth day, and the day on which a turn usually occurs. Surgeons say the indications are of a change for better. The 1 o'clock bulletin shows that the hot weather does not arrest continued improvement. Fever lower than lately in the middle of the day; pulse below 100, temperature scarcely 100, and surgeons think the increase this evening will be very slight. Dr Bliss says that if no new complications arise the president will be substantially out of danger by Saturday.

Doctors Opinions.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—While doctors in charge do not pretend that the president is out of danger, they grow more hopeful daily. The president has shown uneasiness at his slow recovery only two or three times. Yesterday he inquiringly remarked that it was doubtful if the few years he would get at best were worth all the hard struggle he was making, but Mrs Garfield urged him not to talk that way, as his life was worth all that could possibly be expended to save it. The president promptly replied that he did not have any idea of relaxing any of his efforts, but his remark was more reflective than otherwise. The president gets occasional information about the excitement outside and knows what deep interest is taken by the people, and once asked if the excitement was as great as when Lincoln was killed. A Washington special has the following. Dr Reyrburn, upon being shown the statement of Dr Bliss published this morning to the effect that strong indications existed by which the location of the ball will be exactly determined very soon if they continued, said that such was the fact, or at least that the suspicions heretofore entertained of its course were greatly strengthened. He declined, for professional reasons, to enter at length into a description of these indications. It was thought best to await further developments in the case. He was asked: "Will you make an effort to extract the ball soon?" "Not until it become necessary, or until the patient is so far recovered as to be able to sustain an operation without danger. If it is in the interior wall of the abdomen it is not likely to give us any trouble at present."

"Does it give the president pain where it is?" "The president's body just now is pretty sore, from head to toes. His feet and legs pain him, and his back feels as if broke in two, while the abdomen is of course tender. He would probably fail to detect just now the exact spot of soreness due to the bullet, at least it would not do to depend upon such a feeling."

"Do you expect a speedy recovery?" "I am encouraged by every day's report, and I expect to be able to say when the week is gone that our patient is absolutely out of danger."

Dr Frank H Hamilton this morning states that the latest symptoms in the president's case indicates nothing but gradual improvement. Referring to the Washington dispatch printed in the Evening Post, Saturday evening, in which the president's symptoms were spoken of as more serious than the public supposed, Dr Hamilton says the account was exaggerated. Garfield was not a well man by any means, but the present symptoms were not alarming to the surgeons. More precautions were taken to prevent excitement in the case of the president than in an ordinary case, and these precautions are what alarm laymen. The president is getting along well, and nature may be expected to do almost all that remains to be done. There will be no necessity for probing unless the healing of the wound is not healthful and indicates internal abscess or concealed suppuration. If the healing of the wound seemed to be natural and healthful and nothing need be done.
