

Captain J. C. Ainsworth, lately shipped ninety young bass from San Francisco to Mr. W. B. Blackwell, of Tacoma, to be placed by him in America Lake near that town. Owing to the water not being changed in the barrel in which they were placed, unfortunately they died before reaching Kalama. Capt. Ainsworth has already introduced the Eastern speckled brook trout with which he has stocked a lake near his residence on the Sound, where they are doing well, and it is a pity he has failed in the attempt to introduce this other splendid game fish.

Collector Robertson, who a few weeks ago, went around Albany bearing Arthur for taking a hand in the Senatorial row, now tells a reporter that he is certain Arthur will make one of the best Presidents the country has ever had. It is amusing how much more respect an office-holder has for a President than for a Vice-President. How quickly they discover virtues of whose existence they had never dreamed before.

THE BEST REMEDY

FOR
Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL
In diseases of the pulmonary organs a safe and reliable remedy is invaluable. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is such a remedy, and no other so eminently merits the confidence of the public. It is a scientific combination of the medicinal principles of the finest drugs, chemically united, of such power as to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniformity of results. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt relief and rapid cures, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it readily. In ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergymen's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, It is Catarrh, the effects of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household for the protection of the family, and is adapted to Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

Low prices are inducements to try some of the many mixtures, or scrums, made of cheap and ineffective ingredients, now offered, which, as they contain no curative qualities, can afford only temporary relief, and are sure to deceive and disappoint the patient. Diseases of the throat and lungs demand active and effective treatment; and it is dangerous experimenting with unknown and cheap medicines, from the great liability that these diseases may, while so trifled with, become deeply seated or incurable. Use AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and you may confidently expect the best results. It is a standard medical preparation, of known and acknowledged curative power, and is as cheap as its careful preparation and fine ingredients will allow. Eminent physicians, knowing its composition, prescribe it in their practice. The test of half a century has proven its absolute certainty to cure all pulmonary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid.
