STATE NEWS.

High water has compelled a suspension of business at the Oregon City saw mill.

Mrs. Hand has sold The Dalles Mountaineer to an association of gentlemen for $5,000.

The Yamhill county woman suffrage association will meet at North Yamhill on the 16th inst.

Mr. Wallace, of Highland, Clackamas county, raised 400 bushels of fine potatoes on an acre and a quarter of ground.

A section of land under fence, together with two mule teams, were sold on Holdman gulch, Umatilla county recently for $13,350.

During the month of October, there was received at the warehouse in Oregon City, 2180 tons of freight and 1870 tons were shipped away from there.

There are now 120 pupils enrolled in Wasco Academy, and everything looks promising for a successful school year. In addition to the regular faculty, Miss L. Adams is teacher of instrumental music, and Mr. O. Mangold, professor of German.

The barn of Mr. Stronggreen, of Highland, by some means took fire one night last week and was burnt to the ground with all his hay, seed wheat, etc. The wind carried the flames in the direction of his house and granary, but by strong efforts those buildings were saved. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Following is a correct showing of the financial condition of Yamhill county for 1881: Gross value of property, $5,270,354; total indebtedness, $1,440,177; total exemption, $353,515; total taxable property, $3,486,662; school tax 3 mills, $10,459 99; state tax, 5 1/2 mills, $19,176 64; county tax, 9 mills, $31,379 96; county polls, $1,379; total, $62,495 59.

Just before the recent raise in the Willamette, James Cauthorn, of Corvallis, had sacked a large quantity of wheat, and placed it on his wharf ready for shipment, when the water commenced raising so rapidly that he could not get it out of the wharf until about 800 bushels of it had got wet, and has been compelled to sell it at half price. His loss will be about $500.

Chris Mater is building on his ranch at the foot of the mountains, one of the largest barns in Wasco county. The main barn is 40 by 72 feet, with sheds 13 feet wide on each side, thus making a building 72 feet square. There were 30,000 bricks used in the foundation walls. The sheds will accommodate 32 horses and the barn will hold tons of hay and grain, besides wagons and farm machinery.

The case of the United States vs Jesse Eaton, postmaster at Spanish Hollow, Wasco county, has been recently on trial in the U. S. Circuit Court. A little over a year ago a son of Mr. Eaton, who acted as his deputy, was arrested charged with robbing registered letters of various sums, amounting to about $900. He acknowledged his guilt and about $280 of the money was recovered, and he was sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment in the penitentiary. The present suit has been brought against Mr. Eaton for the recovery of the balance of the money stolen.

On Thursday morning about four o'clock the jail was discovered to be on fire, having caught by some means some time before it was noticed, as when first seen the entire inside was filled with smoke and fire. William Fisher had his preliminary examination Monday for burglary and was bound over to await the action of the Grand Jury and was then committed to jail. The fire was not discovered in time to admit of the possibility of rendering any aid to the unfortunate fellow, whose screams were heard before there was any knowledge of the cause, and he was literally roasted alive. When the fire burned down enough to admit of any examination his charred remains were found. The jail is a total loss to the county, and not much of a loss either.—Roseburg Plaindealer.

The Monroe Doctrine.

President Arthur sent to the Senate October 24, the report of Secretary Blaine, in answer to a resolution of the 14th, inquiring what steps had been taken to protect the right of the United States in the Panama canal. Secretary Blaine reports the rejection by the Republic of Columbia, of the protocol negotiated by the representatives of the United States and that Republic, and also that Columbia desires to terminate the treaty of 1846, and appeal to the powers for a joint neutrality of the isthmus and sovereignty of Columbia. In view of this action by Columbia, Secretary Blaine addressed letters to all American ministers in Europe, reiterating the principles established in the Monroe doctrine regarding the neutrality of the isthmus, and the provisions of the American treaty of 1845, especially the 35th article. Any movement in the sense of supplementing the guarantee of this section would necessarily be regarded as annulled, and an intrusion into the field where the local and general interests of the United States must be considered before those of any other power except the United States of Columbia alone.

Big Range.

The stock range of one firm in the south end of Grant county is fifty miles wide and one hundred and twenty five miles long. This firm by taking advantage of the nefarious swamp land laws of Oregon now hold possession of the watering places in this vast region, and as effectually keep settlers out, as if they had a patent to the whole region. There is much valuable land in this region on which settlers would gladly locate, but for the superior claim of these cattle kings. Six thousand two hundred and fifty square miles held by one rich company is startling but true. The poor man who wants 160 acres of 4,000,000 upon which to make a home for his family, soon finds that he is powerless to contend for his rights and sadly moves on. There is a condition of affairs in Southeastern Oregon of which our lawmakers and courts are as ignorant as of the domestic affairs of the inhabitants of the moon. An immigrant who settles in that region is made to feel that he must quit the country or be lawed out of his little property. The result is that nobody does settle on one of these range. How long this condition of affairs is going to exist, no man can tell.—Mountaineer.

QUARANTINED.—We understand that the town of Dayton, W. T., owing to the prevalence of small pox there, has been quarantined by the authorities no one being allowed to pass into or out of it except the mail agent, who no doubt feels highly honored by this unjust discrimination in his favor. The stewards of the boats plying on the Columbia have been ordered to keep a sharp outlook for cases of smallpox among the passengers, and several rooms have been set apart in which parties suffering from this disease, should any such be found, shall be placed and kept secluded from other passengers. Every means will be used to check the spread of this disease.

A heavy conveyance was recorded last Saturday in the County Clerk's office, wherein A. F. Brown & Co., transferred to the Oregon Cinnabar and Silver Mining Co., 10,000 shares of stock in said Co., and all the right, title and interest A. F. Brown & Co., had in and to all the property once belonging to the New Idria Cinnabar Mining Co. The consideration paid therefor being $90,300. This is the largest consideration of any deed ever recorded in this county.—Plaindealer.

THE INSANITY DODGE.—John Nymyer was tried in Lewiston last week for attempt to kill A. A. Fry, of that city. The defense had admitted the shooting, but put in the plea of insanity, and the jury regarded the plea as good, and so found him not guilty. The prisoner was immediately examined as to his insanity, and was declared insane, and is to be sent to the asylum for treatment.
