Portland Fort Charges

Washington Territory are awakening such. The same journal hints that a to the fact that the excessive tolls that member of the royal family will be the are levied on ships coming to Portland chairman of the company. are responsible for the low price of wheat. During the past two months ships have been dragged over sand bars to Portland, thense towed back over the same bars half-loaded to Astoria or Bakers Bay, where their engoes are completed. The port charges, pikotage, Sacque or ro & diagonal saits from $13.50 to $25. towage, and other expenses aggregate such a sum that ship owners avoid the Prince Albert coats and vests. Just the Columbia, unless induced by excessive offers to cover the extortion and expense to which they are subjected:

The Walla Walla Statesman, of October 29th, relates facts that will surprise the uninformed. It gives the following cost of taking a 1,200 ton ship from outside the Columbia bar to Portland and return :

Pilotage ever bar $8 per foot up to 15 ft	120	00
Over 15 feet, 810 per font	50	00
Towage to Astoria over bar	220	00
84 50 per foot	90	00
Towage up river to Portland	267	00
Lightening ship, 1,100 tons, at $125 per ton	875	00
	142
Name charges ontward bound 2	142	30

No extra insurance or risk on ships cross-ing the Celumbia bar are herein included.

The Portland merchant and wheat speculator can sit by perfectly unconcerned, for is it not the farmer that pays these expenses? Wheat is worth only from 16 to 20 cents per 100 lbs. more in San Francisco than in Portland yet the latter place with supreme egotism lays claims to the future commercial supremacy of the Northwest. The farmer cannot long withstand these charges, and must finally succumb unless other outlets are found thas will relieve him from the exactions from which he suffers.

The Portland correspondent of the Roseburg Plaindealer, (Rep.) supplies the following slate: In politics the interested parties are evidently setting up some pins. D. P. Thompson wants to be the republican candidate for Governor, and has made himself "solid" with Villard on that little game. For Senator on the Republican side, it is said that J. H. Mitchell, J. N. Dolph, Geo. H. Williams, ex Gov. Gibbs and John F. Caples of Portland are all willing the supplies and the supplies of the supplies and supplies and supplies to benefit their families by death—how paradoxical is this. The BEST SALVE in the world for Bruises. Cuts, Sores, Ulorn, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, ernor, then he insists he is the best publican side, it is said there will be no opposition to the renomination of the present incumbents.

Logic is daily being kicked out of shape by incontrovertible facts, and good appears to be as apt to spring from bad and blossom like a green bay tree as vice versa. The latest instance of this is that since Mahone voted with the Republican Senators we hear no more about the impossibility of men who were once rebel brigadiers ever becoming loyal citizens.
