What a Correspondent Saw and Heard in Clackamas County.

A person walking hurriedly down First Street with his whole mind intent on business, would hardly notice the many brilliant displays made on either side...

"Oh, no, you haven't," Uncle Remus! you know you haven't!" the little boy exclaimed.

It is said to be a fact capable of demonstration that two summer marriages end in divorce to one winter marriage.

A New Craze in Mantel Ornaments.

Having partially satisfied your mind, curiosity will impel you to go further, and mounting the stairs you stand before the door with the modest sign, Frank O. Abell, Photographer, and two little words of hospitable greeting.

"Well, den, one day, after so long a time, Brer Wolf en Brer Fox dey got to 'sputin' longer wunner n'er. Brer Wolf he tuck'n 'buse Brer Fox kase Brer Fox let Brer Rabbit fool 'im, en den Brer Fox he tuck'n fool back at Brer Wolf, but Brer Fox he watch his chance, he did, en he gin 'im leg-bail."

A map has been discovered at Lyons, France, by an English antiquarian, bearing the date of 1515, with the name of America printed on it.

After an extended tour through Clackamas county I think I have seen enough of it to give you an idea of what kind of a county we have and the nature of its population, its yield of crops, etc.

Little words of hospitable greeting, and you are taken advantage of the invitation, generously extended to all, you open the door when a perfect burst of beauty breaks upon the vision.

"Gave him what, Uncle Remus?" "Gin 'im leg-bail, honey. He juk loose from Brer Wolf, Brer Fox did, en gentermens, he des mosey thoo de woods. Brer Wolf he tuck at 'em, he did, en dar dey had it, en Brer Wolf push Brer Fox so close dat de onliest way Brer Fox kin save his hide is ter fine a hole somer's, en de fus holler tree dat he come across into it he dover. Brer Wolf fetch a grab at 'im, but he was des in time fer ter be too late."

A small girl who had been pondering upon the question of the sunrise and sunset gun, which she heard daily in this city, startled her father recently with the inquiry: "Does God shoot the sun up in the morning and shoot it down at night?"

Christian names are so called by having been given to converts in baptism as substitutes for their former pagan appellations, many of which were borrowed from the names of their god, and were therefore rejected as profane.

Some time ago Messrs. Hodge, Davis & Co., of this city, read in a Massachusetts paper that Hon. Charles H. Ladd, auditor of that state, was afflicted with an incurable kidney disease, and had been obliged to give up work and return to his home.

"Den Brer Wolf he sot dar, he did, en he study en study how he gwine git Brer Fox out, en Brer Fox he lay in dar, he did, en he study en study what Brer Wolf gwine do. Bimeby Brer Wolf he tuck'n gedder up a whole lot er chunks en rocks en sticks, en den he tuck'n fill up de hole where Brer Fox wen in so Brer Fox can't git out. Wilis dis wuz gwine on, ole Brer Tukky Buzzud he wuz sailin' 'roun' way up in de elements wid his eye peel fer bizness, en 'twan't long 'fo his glance lit on Brer Wolf, en he 'low ter hisself, sezee: 'I'll des sorter flop down, sezee, 'en look inter dis, kaze Brer Wolf hidin' his dinner der wid de expect'shuns er findin' it der when he come back, den he done gone en put it in de wrong place, sezee."

Music teacher—"Oh, yes, Miss Clotilda likes playing tunes well enough, but she shudders at the very mention of the scales." Retired Cheesemonger's wife (loftily)—"I should hope so, indeed! You'll bear in mind, sir, that we're nothing to do with the business now."

The fight between him and the bear occurred after dark, one wet night, and immediately thereafter he was afflicted with terrible rheumatic pains.

Having been a great sufferer from rheumatism for several years, and tried numerous remedies of every imaginable description, and a great number of physicians, all to no purpose, last spring I had a very severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism so as to confine me to my bed.

Their bond of friendship: Said Ragbag to young Simonds: "No, it isn't that there's any great affection between Gallagher and myself. Our tastes are not alike. We don't particularly enjoy each other's society. The reason we're so cordial and friendly is that each knows a heap about the other's performances. It wouldn't do for us to quarrel."—Boston Post.

Mr. Marrowfat had been complaining of nervousness, and declared that of late he felt so bad that any excitement was most distressing to him.
