CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

At the annual meeting of the Civil Service Reform Association in Philadelphia, April 14th, Wayne MacVeagh, Garfield's Attorney General, presided. MacVeagh said that President Hayes had consulted him in the preparation of his famous Civil Service order, a portion of which he (MacVeagh) was the author of. When, however, Hayes was put to the test practically, he failed. Hayes allowed himself to be over-persuaded, and the authors of questionable practices in Louisiana and in Florida were rewarded with public offices. After that all hope of Hayes' Civil Service work was gone, and the closing days of his administration witnessed Sherman trying to elect himself President by aid of the Treasury Department. Then came the short-lived Garfield administration. Whatever hope was in that was cut short by Guitau's bullet. What Arthur was in the New York Custom House that he is to-day in the Presidential chair. Personally, he is a kindly, well disposed gentleman, but men rarely change their political training after arriving at the age either gentlemen had attained.

"My party," said MacVeagh, "leaves me in this predicament. It has but three principle, and I find myself opposed to all three. Its first great principle is the spoils system; its second is opposition to Civil Service Reform, and its third seems to be the consistency of repudiation in old Virginia. The duty of this Association and of the country is to supplant the bosses. You cannot pretend to be interested in the degrading spectacle of Mahoneism in Virginia and in the deliberate prostitution of the Government powers to aid repudiation."

If the Senate amends the anti-Chinese bill as reported by telegraph, says the Standard, it will not be worth anything and its defeat would be better than its passage. From this report it is very evident that the Republicans of the east are determined not only to force the Chinese upon us, but to make voters and citizens of them. To place the enforcement of the bill in the hands of a President who has already shown his opposition to any restriction is worse than folly. It is proposed to amend the bill in the Senate by striking out the 13th and 15th sections of the House bill providing that no State court shall admit Chinese to citizenship, and defining the words "Chinese laborers," to mean both skilled and unskilled laborers, and Chinese employed in mining. If the bill passes with these sections stricken out, it is utterly worthless and it were better defeated than to remain a dead letter upon the statute books. Of course, Arthur and the rest of the Eastern fanatics would endorse such a worthless act.

ADVICE from Hong Kong state that there are a number of steamers there leading with Coolies for the Columbia river. Before the first day of August over 8,000 of the representatives of degraded labor will be landed here to ultimately force the white laborer to the wall. A remedy is needed at once.

AN EFFORT TO HOODWINK THE PEOPLE.

It is difficult to see how a bill can be framed which will obviate the President's objections to the restriction of Chinese immigration, and at the same time be of any benefit to this Coast. The Examiner says if he only objected to the twenty years clause, it would be easy to please him; but he seems to see no necessity for any restriction whatever, and to consider a restrictive policy as non-Republican and un-American. Certainly, if the five or six points of objection that he urges were all eliminated from the measure, what would be left would amount to no more than so much blank paper. Without Farley's clause prohibiting Chinese naturalization, Eastern courts can continue to make Mongolian voters. Without Grover's clause defining the term "laborers," as used in the treaty, to include artisans, thousands of Chinese could still come into our ports under the real or specious plea that they are skilled laborers; and the law would therefore be a failure. Yet the President takes ground against these restrictions. Besides, there are other features of his position which tend to rob any probable legislation of value.

The Democracy now gladly support a bill with a ten-year limitation, if it were otherwise worth anything. They thought and they still think, that twenty years was a short enough time, in all conscience, during which to stem the Chinese flood of immigration. They saw that the talk about that term being too long was all pretense, designed to afford an excuse for opposition to the policy of restriction. They knew that if that policy was good for ten years it was good for twenty. Nevertheless, being cheated out of the long term they cheerfully accept the ten years, or even five, rather than no help at all, on the ground that "half a loaf is better than no bread." If, then, there were now an opportunity to support an otherwise good bill, with a limitation of ten or five years, they would be found among its advocates undoubtedly. The Democrats would rejoice at any measure of relief that can be secured. But if there is to be a hypocritical pretense of doing something, while it is really intended to do nothing, we believe that our people will treat it, and the organs which attempt to bolster it up, with deserving contempt.

Our contemporary utterly wastes a half column on a fruitless comparison of the names of Hon. R. B. Hayes of Lane county and the man that occupied a position gained by fraud. We can assure the people that the R. B. Hayes of Lane county is an honorable man, and that he would not steal a position to which he was not elected.

The Senator and Representatives elected by the people of Lane county at the coming election will have a voice in the election of the U. S. Senator this Fall. If Democrats desire to re-elect J. H. Mitchell to that honorable position, they can succeed by scratching their tickets.

The Democracy of Lane county are harmonious, and from present indications, have a fair chance to carry the entire county ticket. Let Democrats forget their personal preferences and petty jealousies and labor and work to elect the whole ticket.

NEWS has been received that the steamer Rodgers, that went to the relief of the Jeanette in the Arctic ocean, was burnt off the coast of Siberia in that Northern ocean. It will now be in order to send another relief ship to her assistance.

The Democrats of Lane county are about the only ones that are satisfied with several of the nominations made by the Republican convention last Saturday. They ruthlessly slaughtered several of their best and strongest men.

A COMMUNICATION from Cottage Grove this week is not published, because the name of its writer did not accompany it. We shall make it an invariable rule to publish no anonymous letters.

The Port Townsend Argus is the only paper we have seen so far in the Northwest that has the cheek to endorse Arthur's veto. Probably the editor of that paper wants to be Collector.

HIS ACCIDENT, President Arthur signifies that he will sign an anti-Chinese bill that will leave the case about the same as it is now.

SECRETARY TELLER has received his commission and entered upon the duties as Secretary of the Interior.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

- The Republicans met in State convention at Portland Thursday and on yesterday nominated their state ticket as follows: Congressman—M. C. George. Governor—Z. F. Moody. Supreme Judge—W. P. Lord. Secretary of State—R. P. Earhart. Treasurer—E. Hirsch. State Printer—W. H. Byars. Superintendent of Public Instruction—Prof. McElroy.

- SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT. Circuit Judge—R. S. Bean. Prosecuting Attorney—E. Hursh. In the District Convention for Judge R. S. Bean had 20 votes and F. A. Chenoweth 10. For Prosecuting Attorney E. G. Hursh received 16 votes, and Geo. S. Washburne 14.

The Republicans agree now that it is wisdom to return a Representative a second time. The Democrats re-nominated Hon. John Whiteaker two years ago, a man who had large legislative experience and abilities and had done as much as any member from Oregon had ever accomplished in his limited time, but they did not think the 'good of the state required his return then. So far nothing but promises that he will do can be accredited to Mr. George, and we may as well try somebody that will do a little besides making promises. The same arguments now being used by the Republicans, if Mr. George had the interest of the State at heart, would have caused him to decline being a candidate and allowed Gov. Whiteaker to be re-elected without opposition.—Standard.

Judge Jern Black has long worn a black wig. Having lately donned a new one, which looks still darker, and meeting Senator Bayard, of Delaware, the latter accosted him with, "Why Black, how young you look; you are not so gray as I am, and you must be twenty years older." "Humph," said the Judge, "good reason; your hair comes by descent, and I got mine by purchase."

Gen. Rosecrans has been elected Chairman of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee. The choice is a good one and we have reason to believe that our next presidential campaign will be conducted in a masterly manner. While he is sharp and shrewd, he is at the same time an honorable gentleman and will command the respect of the people.

It is to be hoped that the bill before Congress providing for the reduction of postage from three to two cents will pass. Great as the circulation of letters is at the present the passage of such a bill would increase it wonderfully.

A candidate for county clerk in Texas offered to register marriages for nothing. His opponent, undismayed, offered to do the same and throw in a cradle.

At last I used your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure and am now perfectly well.
