Bettman will pay more for chickens in Cash than any one in town. Goldsmith keeps the best line of groceries, and sells them cheap. The wild geese on the prairie below town are making havoc with the grain. The only place where you can always sell your chickens is at Bettman's. Horse cuts printed at the GUARD office at a reasonable rate and in good style. The GUARD would prove an acceptable present to some friend in the East. Cash paid for CHICKENS, HIDES, TALLOW and BEES-WAX at A Goldsmith's. D. Hyman will pay the highest market price in cash for hides, furs, tallow and bees-wax. We will send the GUARD to anyone until after the June election for the small sum of 25 cents. Mr. P. F. Castleman purchased another car load of horses here lately and shipped them below Monday. You can get 3 cans of tomatoes for 50 cents, 1 can fresh peaches for 25 cents, and the best tea in town at F. B. Dunne. Mr. S. H. Friendly will pay the highest cash market price for wheat. Give him a call before selling your grain elsewhere. Elder G. M. Whitney will preach in the Christian Church at the usual hours, morning and evening, next Sunday, April 23d. Appetite, Flesh, Color, Strength and Vigor—if you covet these, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which will confer them upon you rapid succession. We call attention to F. B. Dana's new advertisement on the first page. Mr. Dana has marked his goods down, and does not propose to be undersold by any firm in town. "Money is the root of all evil." Impure blood is the root of all disease. With a trifle of one root, buy King of the Blood, which contains roots out the other root. See advertisement. The GUARD office has just received a new stock of letter and bill heads. There is no use of writing your letters and bills on plain paper when you can get a neat business like head printed for but little more than the paper costs. Call and examine our samples. Mr. S. H. Friendly has received a large stock of goods for the spring trade and is prepared to suit his customers as to quality and price. He will sell for cash or credit as cheap as any other store in town, and as his goods are of the best quality he guarantees satisfaction. Men and boys clothing a speciality. Give him a call. A few months ago a fire injured the goods in the store of E. Poppleton, at Independence. He concluded to build a new store and put in new goods, and has sent out his old stock to sell for whatever it will bring. The damaged goods arrived here yesterday, and will be opened out in the building opposite the post office. Mr. R. D. Cooper, of Independence, is the manager of the store. McKenzie Springs. These healthful and medicinal hot springs have been purchased by Mr. Peter Runey late of Astoria. Mr. Runey will thoroughly renovate and renovate the buildings on the premises, and will be prepared to accommodate those in quest of health or pleasure. Fish and game are plentiful in that vicinity, the scenery is magnificent, and those wishing a summer tour could go to no better place. Bargains! Bargains! A $10,000 stock of general merchandise to be closed out in 15 days. A trial will convince you that this is no humbug. Stand opposite post office. E. POPPLETON. FISH.—A lottery man came to town the first of the week and opened out a lottery game in the brick building opposite the post office. Complaint was made against him, and he was fined $5 and costs by Recorder.

SUICIDE.

Dr. George W. Anderson, of Cottage Grove, Commits Suicide at Portland.

From the Sunday Oregonian of the 16th inst., we take the following account of the suicide of Dr. Anderson, of Cottage Grove: About half past two o'clock yesterday morning Dr. George W. Anderson, who was arrested by order of the Sheriff of Lane county, and lodged in the city jail, drank the contents of a vial supposed to have contained fox-glove, a deadly poison, from the effects of which he expired at a quarter past seven in the evening. Soon after confinement in the jail he told Capt. Belcher that he was suffering with severe pain in the bowels, and begged that his medicine case be given him. The request was complied with, and after mixing a solution of some kind and drinking it, he returned the case to the captain. He then sat down on the edge of a bunk, and lighting a pipe, took an envelope from his docket, and after writing upon it placed it upon a gas jet in the center of the room. He continued smoking for some time, remarking to a fellow prisoner named Nimrod Kelly, that he WAS ENJOYING HIS LAST SMOKE. Finishing his pipe, he took a small vial containing a dark colored liquid and drank the entire contents. The effect seemed almost instantaneous, as he had scarcely staggered to the shelf where he had put the envelope, which he grasped and put in his pocket, when he fell to the floor. Kelly says he saw this much and then fell asleep. About 6 o'clock in the morning the prisoners called loudly for Capt. Gritzmacher, who had relieved Capt. Belcher, saying that a man was dying. Upon opening the door the Captain found Anderson lying behind it, in an unconscious condition and breathing heavily. Dr. Saylor was immediately sent for, and upon his arrival prescribed an antidote and used vigorous measures to bring him back to consciousness, but with no avail. At 9 o'clock he said he was certain the man would not recover. About noon he showed partial consciousness by nodding his head when his name was called aloud. At this time, upon the physician's opinion that he still thought ANDERSON WOULD NOT RECOVER, Chief of Police Lappens telegraphed the arrest to Sheriff Shelly, who had ordered his arrest. At 3 o'clock Anderson had recovered sufficiently to recognize several faces at his bedside, and made a number of unsuccessful efforts to speak. Dr. Saylor attending him all the while. From this time on he seemed to be gradually declining, and at six o'clock was again entirely unconscious and laboring hard for breath. At a quarter past seven with Chief Lappens, Capt. Gritzmacher, and several other men at his bedside, Anderson expired. During his last few moments, he breathed more freely, and made no struggle, only now and then uttering short moans. Coroner Gamble was notified of his death, and the body taken to the morgue soon after, where an inquest was held. The following was the writing on the envelope: MR. JAMES GOODMAN: May God bless you my poor girl, and my baby now mourning for me. I am done with this world. God bless you. We will meet in Heaven. GEORGE W. ANDERSON. When found on the floor of his cell, he was carried into the waiting room, where his outer clothing was removed. When his boots were taken off a diploma and license were found in one of them. The diploma was from the Tennessee State Medical College at Nashville, and signed by Prof. A. V. P. Lindsay, and all the faculty. It was dated March 2, 1868. The license to practice was dated November 10, 1877, and made out by the medical examiners of Shasta county, California. When arrested, two pocket medicine cases, an instrument case, a large leather pocket book containing letters and papers, a silver watch with gold chain, $13.70 in money, pocket knife, and a key ring with five keys attached, were taken from him. There were one hundred or more letters in the book, written FROM PARTIES IN CALIFORNIA, WASHINGTON TERRITORY and BRITISH COLUMBIA. However, there were several from from Barnes Station, Dickinson county, Tennessee, signed by Mary K. Anderson, and addressed, "My dear husband." They contained nothing of importance, speaking only of family affairs and another of a lady, with "Mary Anderson" written under it—supposed to be his wife—was found among the letters. There were also many Wells, Fargo & Co.'s receipts for money sent through their offices. To judge from them it seems that he was doing business with several large drug firms, as he had sent many hundred dollars to firms in New York, Boston, San Francisco and Chicago. Some of the receipts were for money sent in small amounts to Mrs. Danbespeck at Chico, Nevada. Many also were for money sent his wife, in larger amounts than the others. In all they represented several thousand dollars. The instrument case contained but a few rusted instruments of little value. The medicine case was filled with small vials, partially emptied, and some prescription blanks. Dr. Anderson located at Cottage Grove over a year ago, and was rather a successful medical practitioner, although given to dissipation. A few months ago he was arrested, charged with adultery, and bound over to appear at the April term of the Circuit Court. Dreading the disgrace of the trial he attempted to escape, when he was arrested by his bondsman, and was about to be turned over to the proper authorities when he committed the fatal deed. NEW DENTIST.—Mr. Vernon Henderson will soon open an office in Eugene, for the practice of dentistry, in the building formerly occupied by McFarland's butcher shop. Mr. Henderson comes well recommended. His card will appear next week. NEW RESIDENCE.—We are informed that Mr. Charles Horn has let the contract for the building of a new residence to Mr. Midgely for $1,613.

Bar Resolutions.

When the Circuit Court convened Monday morning the committee appointed by the bar of Eugene City to draft resolutions expressive of their regret on the death of Hon. J. M. Thompson reported as follows:

At a meeting of the bar of Lane County, Oregon, held at the Court House, in Eugene City, Oregon, on the 18th of February, to take some suitable action in relation to the death of Hon. John M. Thompson, D. M. Riador was called to the chair and Geo. M. Miller appointed secretary. A committee on resolutions, consisting of R. S. Bean, Geo. B. Dorris and C. W. Fitch, reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, and the chairman requested to present the same to this Court for action. WHEREAS, It has pleased the Ruler of the Universe, to remove from among us, our worthy and highly esteemed brother of the bar, Hon. John M. Thompson, by the stern hand of death, and WHEREAS, It is but fitting and proper that his fellow members of the bar, should record some expression of our respect and esteem for him, appreciative of his many virtues and profound grief at his loss, therefore RESOLVED, That in the death of John M. Thompson, the bar of Oregon, and especially of Lane county, has sustained an irreparable loss; the State has lost one of its most worthy and useful members, one who dared to do right for right's sake alone; the community in which he lived a valuable citizen, and his family a loving and affectionate husband and father. RESOLVED, That we tender to the sorrowing family of our deceased brother our heartfelt sympathy in this their great bereavement. RESOLVED, That the Chairman of the committee present a copy of these resolutions to the Circuit Court of Lane county, of Oregon, at its next session, with a request that they be entered upon the records of the Court. R. S. BEAN, C. W. FITCH, G. B. DORRIS, Committee. Pending the adoption of the report, touching eulogies on the life and character of their deceased brother, were delivered by Judge Burnett, G. B. Dorris, A. J. Babb, J. J. Walton, R. S. Bean, C. W. Fitch, Geo. S. Washburne, J. W. Hamilton and John Kelsay, after which they were unanimously adopted. We give the remarks of Judge Burnett in full which were as follows: GENTLEMEN OF THE BAR: The Court has listened with feelings of the deepest emotion to the just and warm tribute which the members of the bar have so appropriately paid to the memory of Judge Thompson. Every sentiment contained in the resolutions of the bar, and in the eloquent remarks which have been made on their presentation in commendation of the character of our deceased brother, is earnestly reciprocated by the Court, who joins with you in a full expressive appreciation of his worth; in the magnitude of our mutual loss by his death, and in those earnest expressions of condolence with his sorrowing wife and children, whose loss no man can measure. Judge Thompson was highly esteemed as a lawyer, by the people and bar, not only by his own county and district, but by the entire State. In his profession he was industrious, energetic, careful; he grew to his full stature of professional maturity among us, and the honors he shed upon the profession, though cordially recognized by his brethren throughout the State, are yet pre-eminently associated with the bar of the Second Judicial District and are a rich contribution to its already manifold treasures. He was learned in all the various departments of the law, and in his daily professional life practically illustrated and satisfied the requirements of the ethical code. Unswerving fidelity to clients was a cardinal principle; to insure them what the law and the facts warranted was his highest ambition as a lawyer, but he instinctively revolted at the idea of serving them by unfairness and indirection. His blows were only given in fair and open controversy, and in the most perfect good temper. Always master of his case he was ready for its every phase. He wasted no strength on immaterial points, but struck at once to the marrow of the question, and won or lost there. Conscious that he had discharged his whole duty to his client, he was not unduly depressed by defeat or elated by success. He clearly recognized the boundary between the respective domains of the advocate and the Judge, never trespassing upon the judicial prerogative, and accepting an adverse decision kindly if not with acquiescence, knowing that redress for possible error was to be sought elsewhere. He was clear in statement, logical in arrangement, and knowing the precise point at which he aimed his argument went straight to the mark. Courteous to his brethren at the bar, ever ready to oblige, patient in examination, and with industry that never flagged, while his case was unmastered, he was in many respects a model lawyer. During his life he held many positions of honor, and discharged the trusts committed to his hands with fidelity and honesty. The loss of such a man to the community in which he lived and to the public service is a calamity. No words can express the deep sorrow of the people of Lane county over the early grave of her well beloved son. Judge Thompson was a rising man, and if his life had been spared we have every reason to believe that his future would have been all that his most sanguine friends could have desired. He has been cut down in the midst of the full fruition of his hopes; of varied and extended usefulness, and in the prime of life, with a family to whom he was tenderly attached growing up around him. The sudden termination of the life of our brother, surrounded as he was with so much to make life pleasant and desirable, is but another admonition of the uncertainty of all human hopes and expectations, and a verification of our daily experience of "What shalows we are, And what shalows we pursue." In respect to the memory of the deceased, the request of the bar will be granted, their resolutions will be entered on the journal, a certified copy thereof under the seal of the Court be transmitted to the family of our deceased brother, and the Court will stand adjourned for the day.

Republican County Convention.

The delegates elected to represent the Republicans in their County Convention, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket and electing delegates to the State Convention, met at the Court House last Saturday. An organization was effected by electing A. S. Patterson Chairman, and James F. Robinson Secretary.

Delegates to the Republican State convention were elected as follows: Jas F Robinson, A S Patterson, Jason Owen, Jasper Wilkins, C W Washburne, A G Hovey, A W Stowell and John Kelly. The following county ticket was then nominated: State Senator—Allen Bond. Representatives—J I Stewart, S B Eakin, Jr, A D Hyland, A J Johnson. Clerk—Joel Ware. Sheriff—J M Shelley. Commissioners—O R Bean, W I Coleman. Treasurer—J G Gray. Assessor—J C Brattain. School Superintendent—T J Gill. Surveyor—H C Perkins. Coroner—John Nicklin. Wild Geese. Immense flocks of geese have been passing over during the week on their annual migration to the north from California. Feeding on the grain fields they become very fat and many stop for a few hours in the fields below town to rest and prepare themselves for their long flight. At such times the shooting is first-class, the fowls being comparatively tame and easy of approach. We have heard of several good killings being made, particularly by Frank and John Belshaw and Jasper Stevens, who is less than a day's actual shooting during the fore part of the week bagged fifty-three head of California and Canada geese. Frank had the good luck to kill eleven at one shot, shooting from behind a horse at close range. Wm. Flak and son killed twenty-seven one morning, killing seven at one shot. Can any of the sportsmen down the valley make as good a showing? Report of Grand Jury. In the Circuit Court in and for Lane county, State of Oregon. We, the grand jury in the above court at the April term thereof, 1882, do make this our final report: That we have examined the various public offices of Lane county, including the Clerk's, Sheriff's and Treasurer's offices. The Clerk's office we find neatly kept and the records thereof in a good state of preservation; the same is true of the Sheriff's and Treasurer's office. The public jail we have also examined and find it neatly kept. We have no suggestions to make as to any needed improvements. JAMES A. EBERHART, Foreman of Grand Jury. Personal. W. H. Abrams visited Portland this week. We acknowledge calls this week from W. B. McFadden, Democratic candidate for Circuit Judge of this district, and A. E. Campbell candidate for Prosecuting Attorney of the same. Jas. F. Robinson, A. S. Patterson, John Kelly, Jason Owen, E. J. McClannahan, James Huffman, C. W. Washburne, Jasper Wilkins, A. G. Hovey and A. W. Stowell went below Tuesday to attend the Republican State Convention. Fire! Fire! Underwriters sale on Willamette street, opposite post office. Call early, as our stay with you will be short. The goods must be sold regardless of cost. E. POPPLETON. SHERIFF'S TROUPE.—This excellent troupe appeared before crowded houses at Lane's Hall Friday and Saturday evenings of last week. The acting, especially that of Sheridan, deserved the applause which was liberally bestowed. The enterprising theatrical manager, Mr. Stechhan, who had this company in charge, informs us that he will bring the Kennedy Comedy Company here some time in the first part of May, when our citizens may expect a treat. ATTORNEYS PRESENT.—The following attorneys were in attendance on the Circuit Court this week: Judge John Burnett, John Kelsay and W. S. McFadden of Benton; W. R. Willis, Prosecuting Attorney Hamilton and A. F. Campbell of Douglas; R. S. Strahan of Lane; S. F. Chadwick of Marion; C. W. Fitch, J. J. Walton, Jr, Geo. M. Miller, Geo. S. Washburne, J. W. Wright, D. M. Riador, R. S. Bean and G. B. Dorris of Lane. "SHORT TERM.—The term of the Circuit Court just finished is about the shortest and cheapest ever held in Lane county. Court was held only two days, and during part of that time nothing was did. The grand jury did not find a single indictment, and only one jury trial was had before the Court. Our people are certainly becoming a moral and peaceable community. COMING.—The Muldoon Picnic and Standard Minstrels will appear in Eugene about May 12th. They are now at Emerson's Theater San Francisco. The company is very strong, consisting of twenty-two people, and have played a season of five months. Look out for further announcements. INTERESTING.—The remains of Dr. Anderson were interred in the potters field at Portland, Wednesday. A telegram was sent to his wife in Tennessee asking what disposition should be made of the body, but no answer was received, and it is supposed she had moved from her former home. FINE COIL.—A coil, the property of Mr. John Sellers, of Pleasant Hill, was on exhibition here the first of the week. It weighed 850 pounds and girthed five feet and six inches.
