The exceedingly dry weather for the past few weeks makes it particularly incumbent on everybody to be unusually careful in regard to fires. The wooden portions of all buildings are as combustible as tinder, and a fire once started, with much wind, would spread very rapidly.

The court was still in session when we went to press. The remainder of the proceedings will appear next week.

Another Bank.

We are informed that Mr W T Peet, a banker, recently from Nebraska, mention of whom was made in our local columns, several weeks ago, has associated himself with Hovey & Humphrey of this place, under the firm name of Hovey, Humphrey & Co, and will open a regular banking business—commercial and exchange. They have bought the lot adjoining the new brick building on Willamette street, and will erect a banking house at once. They will commence business as soon as the building can be completed. We learn that they paid $1,000 for the lot, which is 15 feet wide.

FOOLHARDY TRIP.—One of the two fishing boats which sailed from Astoria for San Francisco on the 10th inst, has arrived there, says the Examiner. The boat is stove in in several places, and the action of the water has worn the edges until they looked as if rubbed off by contact with some hard substance. It is believed that the two who left in the other craft have been lost as the weather was very severe, and no tidings of them has been received. From bar to bar the trip occupied ten days. When asked why he attempted such a foolhardy undertaking Peters replied: "I no like waita regular steamer. I go my boat de Sacramento river, catcha de salmona before the seasons cavaire."

SUSLAW ROAD.—The county court has appropriated $1500 more to be expended on the completion of the above road. We are informed that this amount will complete the road to the head of tidewater, so that a person can haul a moderate sized load over it. One point will still remain which will have to be blasted away, but it cannot be done until next Spring, when the Court will be called upon to appropriate the further sum of $1500.

NOTICE.—Mr N J Taylor has been employed in the drug store of F M Wilkins, and having had two years experience in the business he will be able to fill the place to the entire satisfaction of employer and customers. Occasional attacks of rheumatism prevents Mr Taylor from filling teeth during the winter season, but having an office in the store he will be prepared to do extracting and all kinds of plate work; and warrant the same.

LANE COUNTY FAIR.

To be Held October 5th and 6th, Five Miles East of Goshen.

The first annual fair of the Lane County Agricultural Society will be held on Thursday and Friday, October 5th and 6th. The place selected is on the farm of J R Sellers, five miles east of Goshen and the same distance from Cresswell. Suitable grounds for camping purposes, with wood and water, a building 40x50 feet, for the exhibition of vegetables, grains, fruits, ladies handiwork, &c, and a track for trials of speed for horses, are all in readiness. The following are a Committee of Arrangement of Grounds: J R Sellers, Roscoe Knox, Aleck Matthews, Josiah Callison, Gov Whitaker, A J Cruzan and Jack Keeney.
No entrance or admission fees required, and no money premiums paid. Judges for every class and for all articles on exhibition will award the premiums of blue and red ribbons. Already we have promises of some fine exhibits. If the weather is good, we will have a large attendance, and a splendid exhibit of the varied productions of Lane county and vicinity. Our President, Mr Geo Belehaw, has promised to buy the finest pig on exhibition at the State Fair, and bring him to the Lane County Fair. The greatest efforts will be made to completely classify every article, and exhibit such to the best advantage. All products will be numbered, and, after the award, its owner's name placed thereon. Lane county has kept in the rear in the march of progress, but the dawn of a bright future is just at hand. Looking eastward and southward, we see fast approaching a vast horde of sturdy yeomen, of manufacturers, and capitalists coming to possess themselves of our land and its privileges. Shall we keep abreast in the onward march?

J. S. CHURCHILL, Secretary.

Junction City Items.

JUNCTION, Aug 30, 1882.
Wheat has been pouring in at the rate of about 1500 bushels per day at J A Bushnell's warehouse.
It is the busiest season of the year with us. All is bustle with farmers, mechanics and warehouse men.

Johnnie Williams, who had this misfortune to break his leg by the running away of his team, we are glad to say is rapidly recovering.
Major Berry is rebuilding his hotel, but on a much smaller scale. The frame work is up, and it has much the appearance of a billiard hall, but still it adds to the looks of things somewhat.

James B Campbell, formerly of this place but now of Portland, was in town the fore part of the week visiting friends and looking after the "Driven Well" business; he asked $10 royalty per well, and after driving every man in town returned home without collecting one cent. "Millions for defense, but not a cent for tribute," Jamies.

RESIGNED.—Prof O P Lee, who has been Principal of the Eugene public school for the past year, resigned last Saturday. He has accepted a Professorship in the Territorial University of Washington Territory, and has been assigned to the chair of Belles Lettres and English Literature. The Professor's friends gave him a farewell reception at the Court House last Monday evening, at which a most enjoyable time was had. Tuesday he left for Seattle, his future home.

THE FREE SCHOLARSHIP.—The following named persons passed the examination before the County School Superintendent for the vacant free scholarship in the State University: Geo W Hill, Darwin Bristow, Lara Murch, Bessie Day, Ossie Walton, Ida Cogswell, Jessie McChing and T Riley. Lot was cast and Mr Darwin Bristow, drew the lucky number; therefore the county court appointed him to the vacant place.

PROF. WHITEAKER.—We notice by the catalogue of the Medical Department of the Willamette University, of Portland, that Dr J C Whiteaker, formerly of this city, has been elected to the chair of Demonstrator of Anatomy, in that institution. We congratulate the Doctor on his appointment and we have no doubt but he will fill the position in a manner that will honor himself and reflect credit on that institution.

RESTAURANT AND CONFECTIONERY STORE.—Messrs Laird and Lockwood have just opened a first-class restaurant and confectionery store in the building one door south of Chas Horn's gunsmith shop. If you want a good meal call on them and you will be convinced that they set the best table in Eugene. Their stock of confectionery will consist of really first class articles.

BRIDGE CRUSHED.—The bridge across the river near Belknap Springs was broken down last week by a tree falling across it. The proprietor of Belknap Springs, Mr Hixon, informs us that he will be unable to reconstruct the bridge before next Spring, therefore it will be impossible for anyone to visit this resort the present season, except by boating it across the river.

PRINCIPAL SECURED.—Prof J E Fenton has been selected Principal of the Eugene Public school for the ensuing term. Mr Fenton is a teacher of several years standing, and until recently, was Principal of the Bethel Collegiate Institute. The school will commence Monday, as originally intended.

POSITION ACCEPTED.—Miss Aggie McCormack, of this city, a graduate of the State University, has accepted a position in the Albany College. The Albany Democrat says that "Miss McCormack made a great many friends at the Teachers Institute in this county, and is an excellent teacher."

HORSE RACE AT JUNCTION.—Last Monday a very exciting horse race took place at Junction, for a purse of $1,000, between the Harpole and Kayses horses. The latter was successful. A great many accused the rider of the losing horse of "throwing" the race.

The Wachenheimer Contempt Case.

A Wachenheimer, the bankrupt Harrisburg merchant who was sent to jail by Judge Woodward, a referee in the case, for not answering a question put to him touching certain portions of his property, was released yesterday by Judge Deady on a writ of habeas corpus returnable before him. Wachenheimer was asked to account for $5000 worth of property, and he answered that he could not, for which he was committed. Judge Deady held that the defendant's inability to answer a question was not a contempt of court. This is plain enough, but that refusal to answer a question before a referee constitutes a contempt of court appears to be a new point for lawyers to consider. It has been the usual custom in cases where witnesses refused to answer questions to note the fact in the proceedings or to report at once to the court, and the witness still refused it would then be a contempt. Referees, according to Judge Deady, are a little more potent than an ordinary clerk.—Portland Standard, Sept. 2.

Dexter Items.

DEXTER, September 4, 1882.

The "Poet."

We clip the following from the Sunday Welcome, of Portland:

The long-haired singer of Lane has been getting some more of his fiery poetry into the Eugene Journal; which, while it manifests no great improvement in expression, nevertheless manifests a certain good sense—in refusing to write—that we had not given him credit for. From a column of fire we snatch this brand:

'You wish for my autograph, and A sentiment honest and true; But my brain is asleep, pretty Pan! And to-night I write nothing for you.'

It is too bad the author of such wisdom cannot be induced to make a trip to San Francisco in an Astoria fishing boat.

LEASED.—The city has leased from the county, for 50 years, the corner of the jail lot next to the Grange store. The city authorities, we learn, intend building an engine house and council chamber on the ground.

PURCHASED.—B F Dorris and Orville Green have bought the patent right of the Burn's Acme fruit dryer, for Lane county. Both are energetic gentlemen, and we think they will make money out of their investment.

PURCHASED.—We understand that Dr L D Scarborough, of Cresswell, has purchased the store and a warehouse of Mr N A Howe, of that village, and will not leave Oregon. Success to you, Doctor.

The Local Editor.

Who is there in any town who does more for the community at large than the local editor of its local paper? Who is it that labors harder and does as much unpaid, and often unthanked for work as he? He rejoices with you in your prosperity, and sorrows with you in your adversity. He chronicles your birth, proclaims your marriage festivities, and when you have paid the last debt of nature, he vents his grief and frequently perils his chance for heaven in endeavoring to give you a clear record whereon to begin business in the other world, and what is his reward? There are always plenty in a neighborhood to curse that blockhead of an editor. Why? Because, perhaps, after wearying his brains for years in getting up complimentary notices for yourself, your family and your business, for all of which probably, you have never said "thank you," he has inadvertently said something that does not strike you just right. People should remember that he is beset by many perplexities, many are the axes that are brought to him for a free turn of the crank, and taking everything into consideration, he omits calling attention to but few events of social, moral or business importance that occur in his vicinity and where anything concerning you is not set forth in sugar coated words, investigate before allowing your anger to arise and nine times out of ten it will prove an accident.

Brevities.

Locals scarce.

The county jail is empty.

THE HOP CRAP.—We understand that the hop crop is turning out only about a three-quarters of a yield. Picking is now in full blast, and will not be through for fully one week yet.
