

Stonewall Jackson at Cedar Mountain.

An eyewitness of the battle of Cedar Mountain describes the appearance of the Confederate General Jackson on the day of the battle, August 9, 1862: "When the dead were being buried I saw for the first time General Stonewall Jackson. He was standing in an open field quietly observing the ambulance corps performing their sad duties, with that gay cavalier Gen. Jeb Stuart by his side. He was dressed in a faded grey suit, looking quite austere, as Stuart, with his accustomed hilarity, chatted merrily of the events which had recently transpired. I approached to within a few feet of where they stood, to get a good look at the general whose fame had already become world-wide. And during the half hour I was near him I never heard him speak or saw him smile. Stuart did all the talking, while Jackson's eagle eye was scanning the movements on the field in our front."

On last Saturday Capt. Stafford, an old citizen of Union county, who lives on his farm two miles west of Union, while climbing over a fence struck the breech of his shotgun suddenly against the ground, at the same time having his right hand over the muzzle. The concussion caused the gun to discharge, the entire contents of one barrel passing through the hand, making a fearful wound. He is nearly 70 years of age, and may have to suffer amputation of his hand in order to save his life.

The Union County Agricultural Society has purchased the interest and right of McComas Bros & Pursell to the grand stand and fixtures located on the track of the society, paying therefor $4,000.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brassy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The Vigor cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair The Vigor is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.
