

The Oldest Newspaper.

The oldest newspaper published in the world in the King Pau, or "Capital Sheet," published in Peking. It first appeared A. D. 911, but was irregular in its issues until 1351. Since then it has been published weekly until the 4th of June last, when by order of the reigning Emperor, it was converted into a daily, with three editions, morning, midday, and evening. The first edition appears early and is printed on yellow paper. This issue is called Hap-pau ("Business Sheet"), and contains trade prices, exchange quotations, and all manner of commercial intelligence. Its circulation is a little over 8,000. The second edition, which comes out during the forenoon, also printed upon yellow paper, is devoted to official announcements, fashionable intelligence and general news. Besides its ancient title of King-Pau it owns another designation, that of Shuen-Pau, or "Official Sheet." The third edition appears late in the afternoon, is printed on red paper, and bears the name of Tlan-pau "Country Sheet." It consists of extracts from the earliest editions, and is largely subscribed for in the Provinces. All three issues of the King Pau are edited by six members of the Han-Lin Academy of Science, appointed and salaried by the Chinese State. The total number of copies printed daily varies between 13,000 and 14,000.

Mark Twain's residence at Hartford is pointed out as one of the most tasteful as well as comfortable houses in that city. His study, wherein he performs expertly on a type-writer, is in the rear of the house, and screened by vines and evergreens. To deter the large number of sightseers who invade the place, Mr. Twain has posted on the study door this sign: "Step Softly! Keep Away! Do not disturb the remains!" In the center of the study is a table covered with books, pamphlets, newspapers, manuscripts, etc., etc., and on the shelf over the fireplace a few books and boxes of cigars. He is very domestic in his tastes, and is blessed with a lovely wife and three beautiful little daughters. Mrs. Clemens is a slender, graceful lady, of rare beauty, genial, chatty and charming. She is the daughter of the late Mr. Langdon, of Elmira.

The Buffalo Express declares that "the star route trial, in fact, raises the whole question as to whether our methods of judicial proceedings do not give too great license to rich defendants and bullying lawyers; whether the purpose to give fair play has not been perverted until justice is one thing for the rich and another for the poor."

Kalamazoo, in Michigan, observes the Courier-Journal, had a political convention the other day, which was opened with prayer, in which the minister called upon the Lord to "help elect the ticket." The sentiment was uproariously applauded by the enthusiastic Kalamazoos.

Nearly all the Malheur reservation has, by order of the President, been restored to the public domain. This should have been done long ago. Now let the Umatilla Reservation be thrown open to settlement without delay.—Weston Leader.

The prospects for a Democratic triumph in California, was never brighter, than it is this fall. Gen. Stoneman is a strong man with the people, on account of the bold and noble stand he has maintained as railroad commissioner of that State.

Sec. Folger, Republican candidate for Governor of New York is sick, but not so sick as he will be after the election in that State, for everything indicates that New York is located in the Democratic column for 1882.

ALEX. H. Stephens is elected Governor of Georgia by over 60,000. This is a State where the Republicans thought they had a good chance of success, and that Stephens was a very weak candidate.

A petition of over 800 signatures, has been presented to the county court of Linn county, asking that the sureties on the official bond of J. R. Heron, late Sheriff, be released from paying his indebtedness to the county.

Senator Hendricks' bill reducing the interest on all school money to eight per cent. per annum has passed the Legislature, and has been signed by the Governor.

Still Balloting.

At the time of going to press, (Friday evening at 4 P. M.) the Legislature was still at work balloting for U. S. Senator, with poor chances of an election.

REGISTRATION BILL DEFEATED.—Senator Hendricks' registration bill was defeated in the House of Representatives, nearly all the Republican members of that body voting against it. This one fact must convince all men in favor of an honest and fair election, that the Republican party of Oregon is opposed to and afraid of such a measure, for the reason that it would defeat that party in such counties as Multnomah, Marion and Clatsop. Is such a party worthy of being kept in power!

The bill taxing mortgages in the county where they are recorded passed the Legislature. It is one of the best measures that has passed the Legislature. Hereafter those foreign capitalists who lend money in interior counties will be compelled to pay their just proportion of the taxes. We understand that about $150,000 of foreign capital is loaned in this county.

REPUBLICAN papers charge their defeat in Ohio to "beer and bologna." Poor party. How low it must have fallen when its great "moral principles" and "glorious record" cannot avail against such base elements as "beer and bologna." But ever so poor an excuse is better than an acknowledgment of defeat by the people.

The following are the Democratic nominees in Washington: Delegate to Congress, Hon. Thos. Burke, of Seattle; Brigadier General, Samuel Vinson; Adjutant General, L. L. Duban; Quartermaster General, J. W. Bowman; Commissary General, W. A. Wash.

Mrs. Duniway received one vote for U. S. Senator, in the Legislature last week. Senator Hendricks immediately moved to adjourn in honor of that and the Democratic victory in Ohio. It is needless to say that the motion was carried.

Brevities.

Many improvements will be inaugurated in town next year.

It is now stated that the Los Angeles Evening Telegram, which is coming to Portland, will be changed to a morning paper, and oppose the Oregonian.

Business is in a flourishing condition at Florence, on the Siuslaw river. Three salting works are in full blast salting salmon. The steamer Arcata will take out 200 barrels of fish for Woodmansee & Co.

A Southern Oregon paper says "people knowing themselves indebted will please call." There are very few people who know themselves indebted to a newspaper office. Nearly all of them think a newspaper is just published for fun.

An editor went out to walk one bright morning. He saw a man who had no advice to give him about his paper. He had no fault to find with his politics, and could make no alteration in the editorials, he was not particular as to the size of the paper; in fact, had no suggestions to make. It was at the morgue, the man was dead.

Sheriff Humphrey of Linn county offers a reward for the arrest and detention of Gus Carlson. Carlson is a Swede, and the following description is given of him: 28 years old; weight 190 pounds; light complexion; slightly stoop-shouldered; height 6 feet 3 inches; has a hole in right side of neck about 4 inches below ear; scar made with an axe on top of one foot; talks broken.

Tax Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the tax roll of Lane county is now in my hands with a warrant for the collection of the taxes thereon, and I am ready to receive and receipt for the same. Dated Oct 7th, 1882. J. R. CAMPBELL, Sheriff and Tax Collector of Lane Co., Or.

CHANGED OWNERSHIP.—Mr. Claib H Stewart has sold the Albany Democrat to Messrs Chamberlain & Stites, of Albany, two young lawyers of that city. We are sorry to lose Claib from the editorial tripod, and wish him well in his new position of County Clerk. To the new proprietors, we have only words of kindness, and we hope they may be successful both politically and financially.

CHEROKEE DICTIONARY.—We are in receipt of a complete dictionary of the Cherokee language, published by J. K. Gill & Co., of Portland, in pamphlet form. It will be found a very useful little book for parties who desire to travel in an Indian country.

Holloway's Pills—What is Life Insured? Apoplexy, Ac.—Many people insure their lives to benefit their families by death—how paradoxical is this. To prolong life by preserving the health would be a far more rational manner of insuring it. Apoplexy is swift and insidious in its attacks, striking its victim without a moment's warning! Happily a preventive has been discovered—Holloway's Pills—the only safe and certain antidote for this disease, they cool the blood and equalize its circulation through the system. To preserve the stomach in a sound condition and the blood pure is the true secret of health—Holloway's Pills will do this most effectually, and thousands owe their actual existence to them at the present day. IMPORTANT NOTICE.—None are genuine unless the signature of J. HOLLOWAY surrounds each box of Pills and Ointment. Boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each. There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes. HOLLOWAY & Co, New York.

Mr. S. H. Friendly has received a large stock of goods for the spring trade and is prepared to suit his customers as to quality and price.
