The brick work on the new bank building is completed. During the past week many tramps have fasted Eugene. Goods delivered to any part of the city from Goldsmith's. A social dance was given at Lane's Hall yesterday evening. Fresh citrate of magnesia made daily at Hays and Luckey's. The only place where you can always sell your chickens is at Bettman's. A full assortment of ladies, misses and childrens underware at Bettman's. Chas Bartells, formerly of this city, has a best and shoe shop at Albany. One hundred and ninety students are in attendance upon the State University. Immense stock of crockery and glassware at greatly reduced prices at Goldsmith's. Who is doing the undertaking business? Ream. Who is selling the furniture? Ream. Ream don't advertise anything he can't back when he says his stock of undertaking goods is the best. Loss of hair and grayness, which often mar the prettiest face, are prevented by Parker's Hair Balsam. We acknowledge the receipt of several important State reports from Senator Hendricks during the week. Thanks. You can get 3 cans of tomatoes for 50 cents, 1 can fresh peaches for 25 cents, and the best tea in town at F B Dunn. 123 acres of good farm land well improved, near Eugene City, for sale. Geo. M. MILLER. Mr T G Hendricks will pay the highest market price for all kinds of hides, furs and tallow. Give him a call before selling. Mr S H Friendly will pay the highest cash market price for wheat. Give him a call before selling your grain elsewhere. Ream sells more furniture, better furniture, and at lower prices than any dealer in Eugene. New goods by every train. Call and let him prove the truth of this. Twenty-five new names have been added to the GUARD subscription list during the past week. Every farmer in Lane county should take his county paper. The Telegram very pertinently remarks that the merchant who is "too poor to advertise" is also too poor to buy his goods at a bargain so as to compete with men who do. Mr James Campbell, of Camp Creek, has purchased the property one lot north of Chas Croner's residence, and will soon move into town. We understand he paid the sum of $1,000 therefor. Mr Wm Rubell, who recently returned to Oregon from East India, will soon deliver several lectures in different portions of the State, of his experience, etc, in that country while in the army. The farmers are busy at work plowing and sowing fall grain. It is thought that if the weather is good there will be the largest area of Fall grain sown that was ever known in this county. Received on consignment, by Bettman, Ladies and Misses cloaks, dolmans and ulsters, which will be sold at factory prices for the next 30 days. I have orders to return what is left. Call and see for yourselves. We are under many obligations to our old friend, Mr George Belshaw, for his able report of the County Fair, published in last week's GUARD. He is not only a first-class farmer but wields the pen in an able manner. The largest assortment of folding chairs and rockers, marble-top center tables, pier mirrors, hat and coat racks, window cornice and picture moulding at Cherry and Day's, that has ever been brought to Eugene, all at prices that can't be under-sold. You can get 10 lbs of sugar for $1. " 6 1/2 lbs of coffee for $1. " 3 lbs of tea for $1. " 6 cans of oysters for $1. " 7 cans of tomatoes for $1. goods cheaper than elsewhere at Goldsmith's the cash grocer. "I put a secret kiss under the postage stamp for my darling," wrote a Eugene City gent to his girl. She deftly removed the stamp by steam, but found no kiss, only some remnants of plug tobacco and a strong odor of beer. They are not married yet, and not likely to be. EXPERIENCE.—Mr Geo A Durris, who defended and acquitted the man accused of horse stealing felt much elated over winning his first case, but when the said party "skipped" without paying his attorney's fees, George thought he had done a meaner act than when he "accidentally" got away with the horse. Moral: Always collect your fee in advance. Sabé. ELECTED LIBRARIAN.—We learn that Seymour W Gordon was elected State Librarian yesterday by the State Legislature. The salary is $500 per year.

POLYGAMY.

One Bates alias Baxter alias Gates, Arrested for the Crime of Bigamy: And Bound Over in the Sum of $500 to Await the Action of the Grand Jury. The trial of this much married specimen of humanity was begun before Justice Kinsey last Saturday, charged with the crime of polygamy. Messrs J J Walton and G W Miller appeared for the State and Lark Bilyeu for the defendant. The evidence showed that he had married a lady in this county about two years since under the name of U L Bates, and in a few months after made his way to the classic shades of the famed Yamhill and made love to a widow lady by the name of Mrs Allison, and a wedding was the result in less than two weeks time from the first acquaintance. About one week after the ceremony was performed he suddenly disappeared from his Yamhill home, when lo and behold he returned to wife No 1, whom he lived with several months when he again left for parts unknown, but suddenly turned up at the residence of wife No 2, and after due explanation and good promises he was taken back into the second wife's confidence; but in less than two months was dismissed on account of his ungratefulness, since which time he has been living with wife No 1. At the trial both of his wives appeared before him, but the meeting did not seem to embarrass the bigamist in the least. The two ladies have had their photographs taken together and are now anxiously awaiting to hear from wife No 3, since a rumor is circulated that the scoundrel has another wife in Eastern Oregon. After taking the testimony into consideration, Justice Kinsey bound the defendant over to await the action of grand jury, in the sum of $500, which said defendant was unable to procure, and now languishes in the county jail. The chances are greatly in favor of the lecherous scoundrel having to serve a term in the penitentiary for his outrageous action. Cottage Grove Items. [FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.] COTTAGE GROVE, Oct. 16, 1882. Items scarce. Weather too dismal for much to occur. The wife of Harry Thompson has been quite sick for several days. Mr Geo Garoutte says his webfoot boy weighs nine and a half pounds. Joe Perkins is said to be the happiest man in Cottage Grove. Cause: It's a girl that weighs 11 pounds. We witnessed an exciting race to-day between the 2 o'clock freight train and the hand car. The latter made its point by hard work by the fat boss and his two Chinamen. The river raised several feet Thursday night. On account of the rise, the boom that held the ties at Latham gave way and about 4,000 of them lodged against Comstock's mill dam. The weather has the appearance of being clear once more. Old Sol has shown all day, and there has been but a slight sprinkle of rain. We have not had a day since the 23d of Sept without rain. Drs Wright and Wynn and Mr J P Curran have purchased the drug store here of Osburn Co. APEX. Junction City Items. JUNCTION, Oct. 19, 1882. The Blue Ribbon Club meets Friday evening to re-organize. Mr P H Couch has rented his farm to Rev Roberts, and moved to Harrisburg last Monday. Mr R Caldwell, the grocer, has brought on a stock of dry goods and boots and shoes, in addition to his stock of groceries. Junction has lost another citizen, Mr Shute. He went to Portland Monday to fill the position of civil engineer for the railroad company. The anticipated law suit mentioned in last week's article has simmered down to an arbitration, and from an arbitration to an amicable settlement. A street corner hard soap peddler drove into our town last Saturday, bawling and hawking through the streets to draw a crowd. He gave people two namistackled evidences of a soap swindler, viz: blackened eyes and a little game in selling his hard soap. Some of the crowd could not understand his "will" at first and of course lost a little money and their temper. An. The Comet. A reporter of the San Francisco Chronicle has evidently seen the comet from the following: "Those who sleep heavily o' nights know only by hearsay of the lovely sight that is now to be seen in the early morning in the south-western sky, but those who have arisen from their beds to look at that time in that direction have not been in a hurry to regain their sheets when once they have seen the great silver band that hangs over the city. With a tall stretching over a great part of the azimuth line, of a soft argentine brilliancy, vibrating and shimmering like an aurora borealis, the comet blazes out like the broad beam from some invisible lighthouse. It is now visible by a little after 3 A.M, and does not fade out until the sun reddens the hillslope. It is then moderately low down, heading east from south, and is unmistakably a wonder and a beauty. COMPLIMENTARY.—The Standard's Salem correspondent, has the following to say about one of our worthy members of the Senate: "Senator Darris, of Lane, may be called the debater of the body Senatorial. He speaks upon the merits of nearly every bill, is argumentative in style, and almost convincing through his evident sincerity. STORED AT JUNCTION.—About $5,000 bushels of wheat was stored in the warehouse of J A Bushnell and about 45,000 with R V Howard & Sons; makes about 130,000 stored here, and is perhaps far below the average storage for Junction. FIRE ALARM.—The city was thrown into excitement last Saturday evening by the ringing of the fire bell and the cry of fire! Upon investigation it was found to be caused by the fire of Jas McClaren's residence burning out. No damage.

What is Being Said:

That "Victory is (NOT) certain." That the sidewalks of the city need repairing badly; That a certain hop raiser will soon take a "rib" unto himself; That a certain business man goes to Halsey merely on "business." That a certain Good Templar visits the different saloons of the city; That Harrisburg does not possess the charms it once did for a certain person of Eugene. That some of the University students are very disorderly at church and public meetings; That a certain young blacksmith of this city is soon to cast off the garb of "single blessedness"; That a certain young gentleman of this city has been successful, at last, in a heretofore futile endeavor; That a certain young man calls on his girl nightly, and it is hinted a wedding will soon be the result thereof; That the parties who frequent the University campus of evenings are known, and had better be careful in the future; That the young gentleman who visited several different young ladies in this place to persuade them to attend the dance with him, is much disgusted at being unsuccessful; That one of the prominent young men of this town makes numerous trips to Portland, and it is said, that he is liable to bring to Eugene, before long, the object of his affection; That the married man who perambulates the town after night fall is watched and had better keep a sharp look out or he may meet his "better half." MAN-ABOUT-TOWN. Summary of Assessment. County Clerk Joel Ware, kindly furnishes us with a summary of the assessment of Lane county for the year 1882, made by that excellent officer, Mr J P McPherson, Assessor. Acres of land, 368,219; total value, $2,343,223; average value per acre, $16.36. Railroad land, 63,904; value, $16,812; average value per acre, 81 cents. Wagon road land, 31,564; value, $12,625; average value per acre, 40 cents. Town lots, value, $367,827. Merchandise and implements, value, $631,786. Gross value of property, $3,234,084. Indebtedness, $1,303,139. Exemptions, $399,058. Total taxable property, $3,532,787. No. of polls, 1,404. Murder in the Second Degree. SALEM, Oct. 14.—The trial of Long, indicted with Bingham for the killing of the wife of the latter, was brought to a close in the Circuit Court of this county Saturday, at 4 o'clock, P.M, when the jury retired. They were out twenty-four hours and returned a verdict of murder in the second degree. The jury, when it first went out, stood nine for conviction of murder in the second degree and three against. Considerable surprise is manifested at the verdict. Challenge Accepted. I hereby accept the challenge of Mr Kays, as published in the last issue of the GUARD, provided said Kays will change the place of race from Junction City to Goshen. I also want it distinctly understood if I run this race, that said party will not attempt to "bulldoze" me in making another race, whether my horse wins or loses. JACK KENNET. Goshen, Lane county, Oct 18, 1882. THE END OF THE MYSTERY.—The Bieher (Cal) Tribune learns from attorney Brown of that place, that himself and Judge Fraizer of Cylusa, undertook, some time since, in behalf of the claimant, Mrs Hendricks, the recovery of the policies on the life of W C Hendricks, who was reported to have been drowned in Rogue river on the 30th of last June, and whose life insurance amounts to $10,000. In working up the evidence they have discovered that Hendricks was not drowned as reported, but had conspired, with others, to perpetrate a fraud upon the three companies. There can be no mistake in regard to this information. GIVEN THE BOUNCE.—Chief Woolery went through the town yesterday, says the Seattle Intelligencer, and notified no less than six or eight suspicious looking characters to leave. Some of them said they had money, and wanted to remain, but this to the officer was considered no excuse, and any of those receiving the order who are found in town to-day will be arrested and sent to jail. The Chief seems determined to keep this city as free from roughs as possible, and will thank any citizen for pointing out to him objectionable characters who may be congregating here. FOR EASTERN OREGON.—The Oregonian of Oct 16th, has the following: Messrs P I B Ping, special agent for the Interior department for the segregation of swamp lands, and Dr J C Whiteaker, agent for the State of Oregon, will leave this city to-day for the Hood river country, where they go on official business. It is feared, however, that the snow has attained sufficient depth in the mountains to blockade the way to a portion of their field of operations. ON BAIL.—We clip the following from the Roseburg Plaindealer, in regard to the trial of Robt Baber, who was arrested here by Sheriff Campbell: "The preliminary examination, by Justice Raymond, of Baber, accused of the crime of larceny, resulted in holding him to answer the same, and upon his filing a bond satisfactory to the justice, he was allowed to go until such time as he might be wanted by the grand jury of this county."

STATE UNIVERSITY.

A column devoted to the interests of the Laurean and Eutaxian Literary Societies, and the State University. ELMA LOCKWOOD, EDITOR. Odds and Ends. Edgar McClure's familiar face is again seen at the University. Miss Lilly Porter was called home last week on account of the death of her grandfather. Miss Emma Cornelius has been quite ill for several weeks. She is worse us again, however, looking a little like "the wife of the war." If our brother editor is going to chew up three lead pencils over every smart thing we say, it would be well if there were a pencil factory in town. Carrie Walker has been absent from school two weeks on account of sickness. She is now able to resume her studies and will doubtless fill the "aching void" experienced by one member of the class. Our Sergeant-at-Arms has been mercenary enough to hint rather broadly that she would not object to a small salary, sufficient at least to keep her supplied with peanuts, for which she has manifested a "weakness." New names are being constantly added to the roll of the Eutaxians. Last Friday the following persons signed the constitution: Misses Anna Pengra, Carrie Walker, Emma Cornelius, Alice Pariah and Hattie Collier. Miss Maggie Sergeant, B S, (Big Sell) is teaching at Phoenix. We understand she intends founding an academy. If she succeeds as well in this attempt as she did in the management of the Eutaxian Society, it will no doubt soon rival her own alma mater. The manner that Prof Straub has adopted this year of teaching the German class, we think an excellent one. One day out of each week is given to translation from English to German, and to conversation. One sentence translated from English to German will undoubtedly be of more practical benefit than a dozen translated in the usual manner. The question, "Resolved, That England was justifiable in her attack upon Egypt," was debated in the Eutaxian society Friday Oct 13th. Both sides were well represented and showed by their skillful handling of the subject to be well acquainted with the history and account of the Egyptian war. The decision was rendered in favor of the affirmative. List of Classes. The following is a list of the classes and the number in them, of the several Professors. Owing to the President's pressure for time we failed to get a list from him: PROF. BAILEY. Higher Algebra.....10 Elementary Algebra.....24 Astronomy.....19 First Practical Arithmetic.....18 Second Practical Arithmetic.....12 PROF. CONDON. U S History.....29 Modern History.....20 History of Civilization.....16 Botany.....25 PROF. STRAUB. Greek, Beginners.....10 Herodotus.....8 German, Beginners.....27 German, Advanced.....20 French.....5 PROF. COLLIER. Chemistry.....22 Mechanics.....7 Mental Arithmetic.....12 Practical Arithmetic.....18 PROF. LAMBERT. Higher Lessons in English.....21 Psychology.....15 Rhetoric.....36 Regulation. There has been a regulation made lately, that the young gentlemen when not engaged in recitation should sit in Profs. Bailey, Straub and Condon's rooms; that the young ladies, exclusively, should occupy Professor Johnson's room. So now when the young gentlemen feel they would like to go in there, all they have to do is to go down in the hall and begin an animated discourse about something. In two or three minutes down comes the President, catches them, and invites them to come and spend an hour in his room. The procession start with a woe begone expression for the Professor's room. The President is happy because he thinks he has caught the boys, and the boys are happy because they know they have caught the President. Rhetorical Work. The Rhetorical work for the term has been assigned to the several classes. The senior class are to write reviews of Prescott's History of Mexico. Each member is to write up a certain number of epochs, so that when the essays are delivered they will form a connected review of the whole. The exercises will be held in the auditorium the last Friday of this term. SOILED.—We clip the following article of interesting news from the Salem Statesman of a person well known in this city: "The Rev (?) Monroe Hubbard has entered the role of lobbyist, and soiled the ministerial (?) by becoming an apologist for bigamy, seduction and venality. This Rev (?) gentleman had better make a pilgrimage to 'Mecca' with beans in his sandals and repent him in sack cloth and ashes, 'to what base uses,' etc, etc." TO PORTLAND.—Mr A W Stowell and family moved to Portland last Thursday, where they will hereafter permanently reside. We understand that Mr S and another gentleman have formed a partnership, and will soon open a dry goods store in that city. Mr and Mrs Stowell have been residents of this city during the past 25 years, and have many friends here who wish them all the happiness imaginable in their new home. TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—Mr W C King, of Sacramento, Cal, delivered two temperance lectures here during the past week, in the M E Church of this city. Mr K is a fine speaker and treats his subjects fairly and dispassionately. SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The Sabbath School Association of Oregon and Washington will hold its meeting for 1882 in Portland, Oregon, on Nov 14th and 16th.

The services have been well attended and all are enjoying the same. The public are cordially invited to attend. MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's parents, in this city, Thursday morning Oct 19, 1882, by Rev Dr Geary, Mr Lawrence Harding to Miss Agnes Osburn. The happy couple left immediately for Marion county, where they will hereafter reside. We wish the couple much happiness, and a long and prosperous life. SUDDEN DEATH.—Dr A L Wynn, of Cottage, died very suddenly last Tuesday evening. The Dr was subject to apoplectic fits, and feeling one coming on Tuesday, he took a large dose of morphia, as a remedy, from which he sank into unconsciousness, and in a few hours died. Mr Wynn was a gentleman of many good qualities, and had many friends. REPAIRING.—The painters are busily engaged at work on the interior of the Court House. The court room has been finished, and the room is said to look better than even when the building was new.

Personal.

Mr N L Strange, of Lone Pine, W T, is in this place visiting friends. Mr Frank Alexander, formerly of this place, is foreman of the Colfax Gazette at present. Judge Bean is at Roseburg attending the regular term of Circuit Court for Douglas county. Mrs McDonald, nee Miss Agusta Osburn, is visiting her relatives and many friends in this city. Joseph Hill, well known here, is at present "boss" of a gang of Chinamen on the O & C R R. Mr E W Whipple and wife, and Curran Osburn, all of Cottage Grove, was in Eugene one day this week. Mr Melvin Henderson returned from Colfax one day this week, where he has been the past summer working at the harness trade. Rev I D Driver has returned from Southern Oregon, where he has been holding the regular quarterly meetings. Mr W S Humphrey, formerly of this city, has been re-elected Recorder of the town of Roseburg. Mr John Blakely, of Cannon, made this office a pleasant call this week. He is happy over the result of the Democratic victory in Ohio. Mr Frank Miller and wife were in Eugene a couple of days this week visiting relatives and friends. They went to Portland Thursday. George Lakin, an old citizen of this place, returned on a visit this week from Arizona Territory, where he has been for the past few years. He looks natural. Dexter Items. DEXTER, Oct 19, 1882. Miss Ella Koney is teaching at Trent. Miss Martha E. Handsaker is attending school in Eugene. Mr Joseph P Law has purchased land in this vicinity. The common substitution now is: How many hops are you going to plant? Mr H Canter lost a large number of railroad ties by the rise in the river, and estimates his loss at more than $1,000. The Dexter mill is crowded with grain, and since it has changed hands much better satisfaction is given. New Boot and Shoe Store. Mr Mark Barnett, recently from the Eastern States, will soon open in this city a first-class boot and shoe store. He has leased the building on Willamette street one door south of Patterson & Ollit's butcher shop, and is now opening the largest stock of boots and shoes ever brought to this city, which he will sell at prices that will astonish those accustomed to paying fancy prices for these much needed articles. We would advise our readers to give him a call, and look at his extensive stock of goods. For further information see his advertisement in another column. AT JOPLIN, Mo.—Dr L M Davis writes us that he is at present attending medical lectures at Joplin, Missouri. He also informs us that he will return to Eugene about the first of next June.
