SHOOTING IN GRANT COUNTY .- On Tuesday, the 24th ult., there was a shooting affray at South Fork, in Grant county, that will probably result fatally. It appears that one Tyler keeps a store and saloon, and on the day mentioned several persons were at his house drinking and playing cards. Tyler and a man named Carsner became involved in a quarrel, during which Tyler fired several shots at Carsner. During the fracas the lights were extinguished, and Carsner got hold of Tyler's wrists and held his hands above his head, so that he could not shoot. In the the meantime Mr. Kuhn, an old resident of the vicinity, was trying to separate the combatants. While Tyler's hands were in the position described, he again discharged his pistol, the ball striking Mr. Kuhn about the center of the back. Dr. Howard was sent for and found that the ball had ranged obliquely downward till it struck the inner side of the hip bone, from which it glamed and could be traced no further. Mr Kuhn was alive at last accounts, but there is no hope of his recovery.

The town of Thompson, on the line of the Northern Pacific, on Clarke's Fork of the Columbia, is from all reports one of the hardest places in the entire Rocky mountain region. Life is a matter of luck down there, or is preserved by individual agility in dodg. ing bullets, bowie-knives and slugshots, Violent deaths are of almost daily occurrence, and at last accounts twenty persons were missing from the town. Of these fourteen have been found at various points in the river below Thompson, and six have not turned up dead or alive.

Under the provisions of the law passed by the Legislature, regulating the government of the new insane asylum, the Governor, Secretary of State and State Treasurer comprise the trustees. A superintendent and two assistants, who must be regular graduates of medicine and have practiced at least five years from the date of their diplomas, will be appointed by the trastees, to take charge when the asylum is finished. Their salaries will be $2,500, $1,800 and $1,200 respectively.
