

CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEF MENTION.

For additional Locals, see editorial page. Local items very scarce. Give the new store a trial. Cherry & Day, undertakers. For good dentistry go to Clark. Bring your chickens to Bettman's. 8 lbs coffee for $1 at the VARIETY STORE. Brown's Iron Bitters at Osburn & Co's. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. Six pounds of coffee for $1 at Goldsmith's. Job work a specialty at the GUARD office. 14 lbs good rice for $1 at the VARIETY STORE. Nutmegs for one cent apiece at the VARIETY STORE. Remember the game has gone into Torco. All kinds of grass seeds for sale at A Goldsmith's. The highest cash price paid for wheat by W B Duns. Tobacco for 60 cents per lb at the VARIETY STORE. Job work executed with dispatch at the GUARD office. Goods delivered to any part of the city with Goldsmith's. There were 188 miles of railroad built in Oregon in 1882. A great many new faces are seen upon our streets these days. See the notice of the Lane County Cattle Club, in another column. The doctors report an unusual amount of sickness in this vicinity. The Grubbs has the largest circulation of any paper in Lane county. The carpenter work on the new Presbyterian church is completed. A fine line of silk plushes in all shades had grades at F B Duns's. The only place where you can always get your chickens is at Bettman's. A full assortment of ladies, misses and children's underwear at Bettman's. Farmers if you want a good pair of No 1 boots give the new shoe store a trial. A splendid dwelling house to rent in Eugene. Apply to Mr Geo S Washburne. Immense stock of crockery and glassware at greatly reduced prices at Goldsmith's. Mr. Isaac Yoakum has sold his interest in the pork business to Mr W R McCormack. An exchange says self-made men always have a great deal to say about their makers. If you want to buy your girl a present, buy a pair of those fine slippers at the Working-men's store. It don't matter how loose an engagement ring is, the diamond never slips around on to the inside of a lady's hand. See notice of dissolution, of the firm of Lynch & Page, in another column. Mr. Page will continue the business. Mr H Friendly will pay the highest cash market price for wheat. Give him a call before selling your grain elsewhere. Some excellent hop land for sale in tracts from 10 acres upward. Price from $5 to $12 per acre. Geo. M. MILLER. Mr. D. M. Rislon purchased the vacant land lying south of the GUARD office, last week, for the sum of $400. A splendid bargain. A gas machine to be used in Prof. Collier's room, at the State University, for experimental purposes, was placed in position this week. Major Chrisman, of Lake county, who is well known in this county, has sold his entire interest in cattle and ranch to Mr. John Jackson. The new skating rink is liberally patronized. The proprietor, Mr. Lane, has telegraphed to San Francisco for a large invoice of improved skates. The new store sells only for cash and therefore can afford to sell at the very lowest prices. Call at the store and examine the quality of the stock. Remember that the new store on Ninth street will sell goods at cost. Mr Cooper, the manager, was here about a year ago and closed out the Poppleton stock. We will send the GUARD free for one year to anyone who will send us five new subscribers accompanied with the usual rate of $2.50 per annum for each. Nothing so helps a newspaper as the imparting of useful information. "How shall I keep ants out of the sugar bowl?" asks a correspondent. "Fill the sugar bowl with salt." In last week's issue we mentioned the fact that a glass had been broken in the new bank by the settling of the building, which we learn was a mistake, as it was broken by an archer throwing his top against it. The Coos Bay News says: Not a flake of snow in Coos Bay this year; plenty of it in all other parts of the world, excepting immediately under the equator. But talk about rain and submarine famas, when I— All those indebted to me will please settle on or before the last of this month. Those alling to do so will find their accounts in the hands of an attorney for collection. JAS. McCLAREN. Eugene City, Jan. 13, 1883. The Sunday Welcome, of Portland, is one of the most readable exchanges we receive. Its editors show that they are adepts in journalistic work. No wonder the Northwest News tendered the editorship to Mr. Sutherland. The Corvallis Gazette says: Benton county was thirty-five years of age on the 23d of last December, having been organized, under the provisional government of Oregon Territory in 1847, at which time it included all the country from Polk county to the California state line. The present south line of the county was established January 15, 1851.

Apparatus.

We take the following from the Oregonian, which is self-explanatory: H. Villard's $1000 donation to the University for philosophical and chemical apparatus has been mostly expended. With apparatus heretofore acquired this institution is now better supplied than any college of learning in the State, and probably better than all combined. Prof. Collier's laboratory has received additions, such as retorts, bell-glasses, mortars, balances, glass and rubber tubes and a vast number of articles unimportant to mention, yet invaluable to the chemist. The finest addition to this department is an analytical balance for very fine weighing. This balance is a marvel of beauty, having been made to order in Germany and imported therefrom. The most notable accession to the philosophical department are an electrical machine, a modification of the Holtz, also imported from Germany; a complete set of telegraphic instruments, a plunge battery, and a binocular microscope, imported from London. This microscope has a power of probably 250 diameters, rendering plainly visible the minutest objects presented, especially fine living diatoms so small as scarcely to appear as dust on prepared glass. A small amount of the donation was placed at the disposal of Prof. Condon for his geological department.

Lower Siuslaw Flooded.

We have just received news of a flood in the north fork of the Siuslaw river, which occurred about the middle of December last. No lives were lost, but many cattle perished and much property was destroyed. The houses of Messrs Solt and Masters were swept away bodily, and afterwards went to pieces. The water reached almost to the joints of Taylor's new house, and the building was swept from its foundations and carried ten or twelve yards down stream to the brush, where it lodged, right side up, against a tree, and everything in it was more or less damaged, but not a great deal entirely lost. Robert Naenderburg's shanty moved down stream about two rods, but remained right side up with care. The house looks as if it had been built where it now stands. At Haring's place, during this rise, the water was four feet higher, at Saffley's it was four or five feet higher, and at Florence about eighteen inches higher than ever before within the recollection of the oldest settlers. Lindsey lost five head of cattle, Saffley lost all he had on the river, and Jo. Morris lost five head. Haring had to swim his cattle across the river. The most of the settlers had to take refuge on top of their houses or hay-stacks. The Lindseyes were the only ones on the north fork who did not have to climb.

The Siuslaw Bar and Harbor.

The Oregonian last week gave the status of the above named opening to the sea, in an editorial, in which it advocated what should have been done long ago, viz: the survey, by government engineers, of the harbor and the buying out of the channel. It appears that articles shipped to and from that point have to pay much higher rates than they would if the surveying was done and vessels could procure insurance in entering, the underwriters refuse to insure on vessels sailing into unsurveyed harbors. The matter should be attended to at once, as the Siuslaw is undoubtedly soon to be quite a factor in the development of our coast county.

A Key to the Metric System.

It may not be generally known that we have in the nickel five-cent piece of our coinage, a key to the tables of linear measures and of weights. The diameter of this coin is two centimeters, and its weight is five grammes. Five of them, placed in a row will, of course, give the length of the decimeter, and two of them will weigh a decagramme. As the milliliter is a cubic meter, the key to the measure of length is also the key to the measure of capacity. Any person, therefore, who is fortunate enough to own a five-cent nickel, may carry in his pocket the entire metric system of weights and measures.

MARRIED.—We take the following from the Tachina Ledger, concerning the marriage of Mr E. C. Pontland, who formerly attended the University here: On last Sunday evening, December 31st, 1882, Mr. Edwin C. Pontland and Miss Stella Gallier were married by Rev. Henry S. Bonnell, rector of St. Luke's church, at the residence of the bride's mother in New Tacoma. Only relatives were present on the occasion. Mr. Pontland is a native of Oregon, who came to reside in this city in June last, becoming a member of the real estate and insurance firm of Hall & Pontland, and who has attracted much attention and gained many friends on account of his energy and enterprise in business matters, and his sobriety and geniality in matters social. The bride also is a recent and valued accession to New Tacoma society. Bon voyage.

CHANGED.—The mail route between Eugene and Cheshier has been extended to take in Smithfield, so that the mail instead of leaving for the latter place from Junction, as before, is now carried from Eugene. The citizens of Richardson precinct are much elated over the change, as they will get their weekly mail several days earlier than by the old route.

NEWS(?)—We clip the following bit of interesting news (?) from the Weston Umatilla Examiner: "Miss Margaret Frank, accompanied by her parents, goes to Portland this morning, where she will be united in marriage to Mr. S. E. Goodman, late of Eugene, but now engaged in business at the metropolis."

DIED.—Jan. 15th, 1883, on the McKenzie river, 27 miles east of Eugene City, Edith Miner, wife of Carey Thompson, aged 21 years, 1 month and 15 days.

ANKLE DISLOCATED.—Mr. Wes Cherry had the misfortune to fall on the railroad track yesterday and sprain one of his ankles.

Council Proceedings.

SPECIAL MEETING.

COUNCIL ROOMS, EUGENE CITY, JAN. 13, 1883. Council met pursuant to special call. Present—Mayor Hendricks, Councilmen Edria, Laner, Campbell, Johnson, McClung and Luckey, Recorder and Marshal. Mr. L. D. Smith stated he desired to occupy the building now occupied by the engine for an agricultural warehouse, and wished the Council to change the engine to some other suitable place.

On motion the committee on fire and water was authorized to lease the building owned by Geo B Dorris for the engine, provided Mr Smith makes the necessary changes in the building before the engine was removed; conditioned also that Mr. Humphrey cancel the present contract.

On motion, Councilman Campbell was instructed to make an estimate of the cost of an engine house, agreeable to plans and specifications.

On motion adjourned.

R. G. CALLIES, Recorder.

SKATING RINK.

The skating rink at Lane's Hall, Jos. Lane, proprietor, will be open to the public, as follows:

Mondays, from 1 to 4 P. M., for all; from 7 to 9 P. M., for all. Tuesdays, from 1 to 4 P. M., for ladies exclusively; from 7 to 9 P. M., for ladies and escorts. Wednesdays, from 1 to 4 P. M., for all; from 7 to 9 P. M., for all. Thursdays, from 1 to 4 P. M., for ladies exclusively; from 7 to 9 P. M., for ladies and escorts. Fridays, from 1 to 4 P. M., for all; from 7 to 9 P. M., for all. Saturdays, from 1 to 4 P. M., for all; from 7 to 9 P. M., for ladies and escorts. In case of the hall being hired for dances, shows, etc., the above programme will be withdrawn for the time.

New Brick Buildings.

Mr. T. G. Hendricks, one day this week, purchased the property occupied by Mark Barnett as a boot and shoe store, of Mr. Myer Rosenblatt, paying therefor the sum of $1500. We understand that he will build a two-story brick building on the same early in the spring, to be used by the new bank. Mr. W. T. Campbell will also build in connection with Mr. H. a two-story brick on the ground now occupied by Messrs. Patterson & Offutt as a butcher shop. Both buildings will be of the most improved architecture, with iron fronts. We are glad to note these improvements, and hope that all the property holders on Williams street will soon become able to rebuild with substantial brick buildings.

CHURCH SOCIABLE.—The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give an entertainment on the evening of the 31st of this month. In some of its features it will differ from the usual sociable. They will ask fifty cents admission, and that is all. For this amount, they promise an hour's entertainment, consisting of music, recitations, tableaux, readings, statuary and the new and popular broom drill; also a good lunch, consisting of sandwiches, cake, pickles, cheese, tea and coffee, and after these a jolly social time. Come, all ye good people and help give the basement of the new church a good old-fashioned house-warming.

CARELESS PISTOL HANDLING.—Last Thursday Otis Mitchell a stepon of S. H. Jones, of Goldendale, W. T., was killed near Waldron, in Wasco county, Oregon. He and a young Mr. Eads were at the home of his uncle, Isaac Chapman. They were handling a pistol, which was accidentally discharged in the hands of Eads, killing Mitchell instantly. The young man was 20 years old, and the mother is heart-broken over the calamity.

FOR JACKSON COUNTY.—Judge R S Bean leaves here this afternoon for Jackson county, where he will try several cases in the Circuit Court of that district for Judge Hanna, which he is unable to hear on account of the defendants having tried to murder a nephew of his. Judge Bean is deservedly popular on the bench, as shown by his being called to other districts to hold terms of court.

PROSPERING.—From the following, taken from the Cheney, W T, Sentinel, it would seem that Mr. L. G. Jackson, formerly of this city is rapidly becoming one of the "solid men" of Eastern Washington: "Mr. L. G. Jackson sold 500 acres of land near Farmington, W. T., this week, for $9 per acre."

$15,000 WORTH OF GOODS.—I will open a store in Eugene, Monday, Jan 22d, opposite the St. Charles Hotel, with a $15,000 stock of goods, which I will sell at cost. They must be closed out by April 1st. Call and examine the stock. R. D. COOPER, Manager.

AGRICULTURAL WAREHOUSE.—Mr. L. D. Smith has leased the building known as Humphrey's old stable, and has had a force of carpenters at work repairing it, for an agricultural warehouse. Mr. Smith is an energetic young man, and we hope he will succeed in building up a large trade here in the machinery line.

ENGINE REMOVED.—The hard engine was moved this week to the building one door west of the Star Bakery. Members of Eugene Engine Co. No. 1 are particularly requested to note the change.

MARRIED.—Miss Rosa Steinheiser, formerly of this city, was married, one day last week, in Portland, to Mr. Frederick, a Pendleton merchant. We wish the couple all the joys that marriageable life are akin to.

SOLD HIS PLACE.—We understand that Mr G W Lackey has sold his place north-west of town to H. Owens, and has purchased another place across the river in Lane Co.—Harrisburg Disseminator.

LOST.—A hunter on Mohawk was lost for two days last week, and after the citizens had given him up, he suddenly appeared at his home. He laid out in the mountains for two nights.

DIED.—Mrs. John Simpson, of Siuslaw precinct, died at the family residence, Jan 17, 1883, of tremia. Peace to her ashes.

STATE UNIVERSITY.

EMMA CORNELIUS, EDITOR.

Editorial.

We cannot but greet the public with some degree of timidity, since our preceding editor met with such unbounded success. However, we will not lament, but leave the result with him who is either our friend or our enemy—Time.

Senior Exercises.

On Friday, Jan. 12, the auditorium was filled with students and a goodly number of the citizens of Eugene. It was evident from the expectant look on each brow of the latter class, that they had come to be entertained and perhaps instructed; but many a student regarded that spacious hall with an air of resignation which seemed to say, "If I must be bored, I'll try to make the best of it."

The exercises opened with an instrumental solo by Miss Clara Adams, after which Mr. J. N. Goltra delivered the introductory essay in a manner both deliberate and self-possessed. The platform was next occupied by Mr. W. T. Slater. Mr. Slater, whose theme was "The Civilization of Ancient Mexico," showed himself master of the subject. Miss Mary McCormack then favored the audience with an instrumental solo. The next essay, the first concerning the conquest proper, was read by Miss Marie Dorris. Miss Dorris exhibited her usual composure and read in those rich and musical tones which cannot but catch the listener and hold him as with a magic spell. Miss Elma Lockwood then took up the subject, making a handsome display of her elocutionary talent. This part of the story of the conquest of Mexico was very affecting, and Miss Lockwood entered into the spirit of the piece admirably, as was seen in the sweet pathos of her voice. The theme was continued by Miss Carrie Walker, who mounted the rostrum with a brow as calm and serene as the brightest day in June. Prof. Lambert then deemed it best to give a short recess, following which, Miss Clara Adams again entertained the audience with an instrumental solo. The usually mild voice of Miss De Etta Cogswell was next heard, putting to defiance the echoes and extension of the room. Miss Cogswell read with that understanding peculiar to the poetess. The last essay was given by Miss Eliza Spencer. Miss Spencer, whose voice is naturally very soft, deserves special credit for the power which she showed in making herself heard throughout the auditorium. The exercises were closed with an instrumental solo by Miss Mary McCormack.

We thank the musicians for their kind aid, and assure them that they added much to the enjoyment of the afternoon. Ought the whole, the exercises were a success, and we have ample reason to believe that each one went away with a good degree of satisfaction. Yesterday, the story was completed by the other members of the Senior class; but from the limited space, we will defer the account of those proceedings till we meet you again.

Brevities.

Mis(s) Pickle is a bright little piece. If you are averse to an office, don't let Elma know it.

We would say to my brother editor that it is better to have "A Will of your own," than to "Pariah."

Which—Does Mount desire to be a good walker, or does he desire a good Walker to be Mount?

What has severed the ex-president of the Laureans from his best friend? We are not prepared to say, but think it must have been a barber(ous) deed.

The election of officers of the Eutaxians for the ensuing term was as follows: President, Anna Pengra; Vice Pres., Elma Lockwood; Secretary, Emma Bean; Treasurer, Minnie Porter; Marshal, Osie Walton; Editor, Emma Cornelius.

Mr. E. J. Frazier, from Salem, visited the University last week and the hearts of the geology class swelled with pride, as they thought of the glowing account that he would surely make on his return to the capital. But we must confess that we owe this feeling of pride to an exceptionally good (?) recitation.

Extract from the Good Templars' book: "Four Campbells with their Drivers standing on a Stone by the Bush(n)elles on the side of a Hill, were waiting to Test three Pot(t)ers of half Dunn Tuff(s) Green Beans seasoned with a Drake's Crow, which the Cook was bringing from the Kitchen."—An ingredient.

How is it that some of the Laureans show such remarkable generosity? It is rumored that they even went so far as to buy two dollars worth of peanuts to treat their brothers, and on not being able to draw the money from the treasury, liberally paid it from their own pockets. But best of all, they left the shells for the Eutaxians. Brothers, we thank you for this mark of courtesy, and may you live long and prosper, and have all the peanuts you want to eat; is the wish of your sister Eutaxians.

An Apparition.

The quiet of the last session of the Eutaxians was interrupted by a sudden apparition. A squaw mysteriously appeared in our midst. However, her peaceful intentions were quite apparent from the good humor she manifested. On the unfeeling request of the presidency for the marshal to conduct her from the room, she merely replied with a hearty laugh and a "Wake! Catawaw!" The marshal, influenced either by the unrestrained permission of that said squaw, or from the vast size of the same, gave it up as a bad job. This strange vision farried about five or ten minutes, when she disappeared as suddenly and mysteriously as she had appeared.

More New Books.

Prof. Bailey's table is again loaded with new books. The library is steadily increasing, but to whom do we owe our thanks—the Government, or Villard?

We conclude that the new Latin grammar has not yet appeared, since the President still sees the need of one.

Senior Class-Meeting.

The Seniors held their first class-meeting last Saturday. Mr. T. C. Judkins was elected president, Miss Elma Lockwood, secretary, and, fearing that there might possibly be some donations; Miss Carrie Walker was elected treasurer. This last-named officer will surely shed a body-gem.

Personal.

Judge Fitch's condition has not changed materially during the week.

Mr. Quincy A. Brooks, of Lake county, was in town several days this week.

Mr. W. H. Abrams and wife leave for the Eastern States next Tuesday.

Mr. W. T. Campbell will leave Tuesday for San Francisco, for a short trip.

Ed. McClanahan has heard nothing of his strayed or stolen truck horse, as yet.

Mr. Phil Wilman, a Colfax, W T, saddler, paid Eugene a short visit this week.

Mr. Geo. Noland was registered at the St. Charles Hotel, Portland, last Tuesday.

We understand that Dr. Ed. Geary, who is located at Eagle Point, Jackson county, has a large practice.

Mrs. Amelia Van Houten expects to start East on next Tuesday. She will visit friends and relatives in different States.

Five of Commissioner Stephens' family are still down with the typhoid fever. It is sincerely hoped that they may all recover.

Mr. Byrou Van Houten, of Cheney, has recovered from his recent illness in that city, so that he is able to be about the streets.

Wm. Alexander, formerly of this city, who has been stopping at Prineville for the past two years, is in Portland, working at his trade.

Messrs S M Titus, Joel McCormack and Isaac Yoakum left for a visit to Tacoma and Seattle, last Wednesday. They expect to purchase some property in one of those towns.

Mrs. John Stowell, formerly of this city, recently resigned her position as preceptress in The Dalles Academy. Mr. Stowell has secured a first-class position in a dry goods store of that city.

Coburg Items.

Mr. M. Wilkins went to Portland one day this week.

The people here are anxious to have the saw mill started up.

There is considerable wheat yet remaining here awaiting shipment.

Mr. Hulm Miller is still very ill, and it is hardly expected he will recover.

The telegraph office here has been discontinued on account of insufficiency of patronage.

More fall and winter wheat has been sowed here than for years previous, which is looking splendid.

Jo. Miller, an Indian boy, died of consumption, on Jan. 4th, at the residence of Mr. Hulm Miller.

The school here, under the supervision of John Allison, is in a flourishing condition. Forty-five names are enrolled.

COR. COLD.—The weather here is cold, and the indications are that it will last for several days. Yesterday morning at 6 o'clock the thermometer marked only 8 degrees above zero. The ponds are all frozen over, and skating is being indulged in by our citizens.

SHADE TREES.—The University regents have designated Feb. 10th as a time for setting out shade and ornamental trees on the University campus. If any person has one tree, or several, that he would like to give for such a purpose, the board will gladly receive them.

FOR THE EAST.—Mr. A. V. Peters and wife will leave Eugene about the last of February for an extended tour through the Eastern States. Before they return they will cross the Atlantic, visiting France, England and probably Italy.

UNIVERSITY JOURNAL.—The State University students are agitating the question of starting a college journal here. A meeting will be held in the Baptist church to-day, at 3 P. M., to consider the matter. Success to the founders.

Cottage Grove Items.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.] COTTAGE GROVE, JAN. 17, 1883.

Mr. Aaron Lurch paid Portland a visit this week.

Sheriff Campbell was in town last week on official business.

A little daughter of Mr. John Masterson's fell in the fire and was badly burned a few days ago.

Snow fell to the depth of three inches last Sunday, and light falls since, but it is most all off now.

Mr. W. W. Cathcart has been gone about two weeks, visiting relatives and friends in Southern Oregon.

Some of our people have been making use of their time hunting, before the game law goes into effect. This is the last day.

Mr. Thos. Gough and wife are trying the realities of home-keeping. Tom had already had experience in a bachelor's ranch.

Another death occurred here from scarlet fever on the 11th inst. It was a son of Mr. Phil Spawm, who was about 14 years old.

Mr. Frank Stewart, of Eugene, was here the first of this week, in company with another gentleman, for the purpose of buying draft horses.

Messrs. Prouty & Fenwick sold here, last week, 1000 pounds of deer skins for 30 cents per pound, the result of their hunting for the past summer and fall.

Dr. H. Wright contemplates moving to Lakeview in a short time. We are extremely sorry, as the Grove will lose two warm-hearted souls when he and his wife leave us.

We understand that some of our citizens have organized themselves into a vigilant committee, for the sole purpose of ridding our town of such dogs as attack people on the streets. ALEX.

Blue Ribbon Programme.

The Blue Ribbon Club meets next Wednesday evening at the Baptist church. Following is the programme:

Music. Prayer. Song and chorus—"Drinking with the Tide." Address—Dr. E. R. Geary. Duet—Mrs. B. S. McLaugherty and Miss Marie Dorris. Essay—Mr. Geo. Collier. Girl's Quartette—"The Old Clock on the Stairs." Select Reading—Miss Happy McLaugherty. Music.
