Well, well! did you ever hear so complete a confession? Who would have thought the editor of the Laureans so rash as to write his column before he was ever elected? It is a wellknown fact that people accuse others of those things which rankle most fiercely in their own bosoms. But the editor of the Eutavians is too saving of her talent for any such waste as qualities of his sister Eutaxian, and took this the Presbyterian church. as the best means of escaping criticism. HIGH WATER.

The Trains Delayed at the Harrisburg Bridge-Minor Points.

Heavy rains the first of the week brought the Willamette and McKenzie rivers up with a rush, and for a time it was feared that it would terminate in a flood, but we were happily disappointed by it turning cold, arresting the rise. At this point, Wednesday night, the water gauge marked 18 feetabout 2 feet 8 inches lower than the flood of two years ago. The McKenzie is said to have been as high as at the time of the flood. The breakwater above the Eugene bridge remains almost intact, but the river has cut a channel through, below the end of the crib, some 60 yards wide, which must be cribbed, else the body of the river at high stages will break through and thus endanger the bridge. For once, the mill company have almost escaped damage, and hence its proprietors are
