Lane county must be scarce of timber for a county judge. Gov. Moody has been hunting for four weeks for a successor. Band Tournament.

The Eugene City Band have decided on June 7th and 8th, 1883, as the time for holding here of the grand concert, procession and tournament. The programme will be about as follows:

FIRST DAY. Grand procession of all bands entering for the prizes. Social reunion and picnic. In the evening, a first-class amateur play at Lane's Hall by Eugene Band and friends.

SECOND DAY. A grand musical concert, each band playing two pieces of their own selection, directed by their own leader; after which the Eugene City Band will distribute the following prizes to whoever the judges decide:

1st prize, 100 silver dollars to the best band. 2d " 75 " " " 2d " 3d " 50 " " " 3d " 4th " 25 " " " 4th "

Making a grand total of $250. In the afternoon, one piece will be played by all the bands together, led by the Eugene City Band.

The Eugene Band will give a grand invitation ball in the evening. This programme, with the six or eight bands to be here, will, we think, give Eugene the largest crowd and finest turnout ever in the city. Posters will, in due time, be sent through the country, containing the names of all bands entering, with full particulars and complete programme. By order of committee.

Dexter Items.

WELCOME SPRING. Miss M. E. Waad is sojourning at Pendleton. Some of our farmers are going to try their luck at growing cranberries. The "varmints" have done more damage among the sheep at the Butte. A new ferry is being put in on the Middle Fork at the old military crossing. Yes, "Judge," that new wagon is real nice, but say, don't you feel lonesome riding alone? I regret to say that Mr. A. N. Miller is affected with something like cancer in his face. "Uncle Leck," as he is generally called, is one of our best citizens, and has the sympathy of all. Mr. N. E. Handaker was visiting here last week. He has been in the employ of the O. & C. R. Co. for near seven years as operator; but is soon going to Portland to spend a few months at a business college. To the young man who sent an indecent valentine to one of our respectable young ladies, and who thought to hide his identity by mailing it at a distant office, I would say: Go to school a little more, and learn that "Immodest words admit of no defense, "For want of decency is want of sense." M. A. S.

Married.

We clip the following notice from the Cameron, Mo., Daily Vindicator, Mr Combs' home: COMBS-VAN HOUTEN.—Married, at the Brevoort House, Kansas City, Feb 1, 1883, by the Rev. John Mathews, Mr. Chester D. Combs, of Cameron, Mo, and Mrs. Amelia R. Van Houten, of Eugene City, Lane county, Oregon. The bride in this instance came from her native home, a distance of thirty-one hundred miles, to Kansas City, to meet her affianced husband, with whom she became acquainted during a brief visit to Missouri in 1879. She is pre-eminently a western lady, being the daughter of Eugene Skinner, the founder of Eugene City, and one of the first white children born in what now constitutes Lane county. The groom is well known to be one of Cameron's best and most popular citizens, and his many friends join the Vindicator in extending congratulations.

To the Pioneers of Lane County. EDITOR GUARD:—I propose an organization of the pioneers of Lane county, for the purpose of annual meetings, for social enjoyments, etc. We are passing away, and each year one or more takes another journey, whether long or short. Why not meet some time this spring and organize? I suggest that pioneers take the matter under advisement, and in such ways as may be convenient, signify their approval or disapproval of the idea. To all who are in favor of such an organization, I would say here is my

The End of the World Again Predicted. It would be well for our people to conduct themselves in such a manner hereafter as to have no fear for their present or future, and also to make prayerful amends for their past misdeeds, because the end of the world, which, according to the false rhyme of Mother Shipton, was to have occurred in 1881, having been unavoidably postponed, another old prophecy has been dug up from the trench. This distich declares that when Good Friday falls on St. George's day; and Easter on St. Mark's day; and Corpus Christi on St. John the Baptist's day; the final conjunction will arrive. These conjunctions will occur in 1886.

Card of Thanks. We take this means of thanking those who have been so kind to us during the recent sickness and death in our family, as such favors are never forgotten. Mrs. MARY HAYS, ARANDA L. HAYS, R. R. HAYS.

"EMERALDA."—This interesting drama was presented at Lane's Hall last Monday evening to a large audience of theatre-going people. The troupe is one of the best that has made a visit to our town, and generally, is highly complimented. The company only played in Eugene and Salem, outside of Portland, in Oregon.

Arrangements for Getting Seed Wheat.

The call for spring wheat for re-seeding in the winter-killed districts, and the difficulty of obtaining the same in Oregon, has placed many farmers in a difficult position with reference to re-sowing their lands. The stress is such that Sibson, Church & Co yesterday visited C H Prescott, manager of the O R & N Co, and after explaining the situation, these gentlemen, with characteristic generosity and business tact, agreed to bring spring wheat for purposes of seeding, from San Francisco to Portland for $1 per ton, which is less than the cost of handling. Mr. Koehler declined any charge for railroad carriage to any part of the valley, and asks only to be reimbursed for the cost of cartage in Portland (75 cents per ton), which they are obliged to pay out. Not to be outdone, Sibson, Church & Co agree to import this wheat from San Francisco and distribute it on orders free of charge, except the actual cost of the same from first hands. The San Francisco quotations for wheat being about $1.95 per cental, it will thus be seen that California wheat can be supplied anywhere in the valley for about $1.25 per bushel, and an opportunity is thus given to repair the ravages of an unusual winter.—Oregonian.

Mr. S. H. Friendly is offering 1500 bushels of wheat in the Coburg warehouse to farmers who wish seed for the sum of $1 per bushel, and we are authorized to say that the Eugene Mill Co. will exchange spring seed wheat for the same. Mr Friendly deserves the thanks of our farmers in thus offering his wheat at such liberal prices, when he could easily realize $1.25 per bushel if he wanted to exact it from our unfortunate farmers.

Junction City Items. Miss Bell Bushnell, of Irving, is in town visiting relatives. All the winter oats and fall wheat in this vicinity has been totally killed by the hard freeze.

Prof. J. C. Campbell has been confined to his bed for several days by sickness, and Mr Grant Cummins has been called to the front to superintend the Prof's school until he recovers. Levi Leland delivered a temperance lecture here on Sabbath, and organized a band of hope in connection with the Sunday school, consisting of 70 members.

Dr. Savage's residence among us is a fixed fact. He has rented the residence of J B Williams for three years, and is now snugly fixed, and has been visiting the sick professionally almost constantly day and night, since his arrival among us.

Fall Wheat Killed. The past week has demonstrated the fact that nearly all the fall and winter grain was killed by the recent cold weather. We believe this is the only time since the settlement of the valley that the weather has been severe enough to kill fall-sown grain, and then the mercury did not register below 8 degrees above zero. This is quite a hardship on our farmers, as they had an extraordinary amount of fall grain sown, and spring seed wheat is a scarce article. But the recent good weather has been a God-send to our farmers, as they have been busy re-sowing their land, and we think, from what we have heard, that the loss by the freeze will more than be repaid by the extra yield of grain.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—A "Rev." Vandervest recently sued Rev. Roberts, of Forest Grove, and the Hillsboro Independent for $20,000 for the crime of libel. It was proven conclusively that Vandervest was a slanderer and a man who could not be believed. A minister of the Gospel who would circulate slanderous stories regarding an innocent woman should be treated to a coat of tar and feathers, and should be drummed out of every respectable community.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.—The entertainment given by the pupils of the public school Friday evening, Feb 23d, was witnessed by a very large audience. It was one of the best ever given by the school. The prizes were awarded to Charlie Goldsmith and Pina Snodgrass.

WILL WE ARGUE.—The order enjoining the city from removing the sidewalk on Eleventh street, will be argued before Judge R S Bean, in Chambers, Monday morning, Messrs Blyden and Walton appear for Mr Hamilton, and Messrs G B & G A Dorris for the city.

MOTTS HAILED FROM ECOLE.—The EUGENE GUARD, says the Reporter, wonders if the John Motts, recently married to Miss Grace of McMinnville, is the man who formerly so inhumanly deserted a loving wife at Eugene. Eugene is where Motts hailed from.

TO RETURN.—Mr J B Chapman, a blacksmith who went to California about a year ago, disgusted with California, has concluded to return to the land of "big red apples." A large portable engine was received here this week marked to him.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union has been organized here, the officers elected being Mrs J H McClung, president; Mrs Prof Condon, vice president; Miss Nettie McCormack, secretary; Mrs Dr Geary, treasurer.

ORATOR SELECTED.—At a meeting of the directors of the Oregon Pioneer Association, Dr. Geary was chosen to deliver the occasional address at the reunion to be held at the State fair grounds, June 15, 1883.

SOLD.—Mr. Geo. H. Parks sold to Mr. Curry, one day last week, the building just west of the Masonic building, for the sum of $600. A year ago he paid $300 for it. A good investment.

ROBBERY.—Some one who has no fear of the penitentiary, broke into Mr. Ruf. Robinson's dwelling house, Thursday evening, and carried away several valuable articles.

KILLED.—Frank Wheeler shot and killed Fred Swartz, Thursday, Feb 22d, at Portland, in the Palace Theatre.

Long Tom, Crow and Chesher Items.

February 27, 1883. Mr. Wm. Kent has recently lost two horses from a disease something like the mountain fever.

Thompson Luman has rented that part of the Humphrey place that lies on the west side of the Long Tom.

Wm. Fisk's oldest son has been quite sick with lung fever for some time, but at last accounts was better.

Mr J L Duckworth bought a fine young horse from Jack Boyd a few days ago, paying therefor $82.50.

Tommy and Lou Crow started last Saturday for Eastern Oregon, where they intend to engage in sheep herding.

Mr Hamaphan, son-in-law of Mr Branstetter, has bought George Kirk, Jr's, place, and will take possession soon.

From the number of valentines received by some of the Long Tom and Crow boys, they must be very popular with the "fair sex."

Dr. Canady started last Friday for Oakland, where he intends to make his future home, if the necessary arrangements can be made.

Messrs Abbott and Kent begin operations to-day with their steam saw-mill. They will saw out a large quantity of good lumber the coming summer.

Mrs J W Cheshire, of Palouse, has been visiting at the house of her father, I N Duckworth, Esq, during the winter, but is intending to return home soon.

Joe Gates returned from Roseburg last Saturday, where he has been sojourning for some time under the care of a physician. He looks greatly improved in health.

Dame rumor has it that there is soon to be a wedding in this vicinity. Owen, I suppose, to the frequent visits made by a certain young Spencer Creeker to a certain young lady of this neighborhood.

Mr S S Stephens and family have at last returned home, having been living for the past month or so with the families of Walker Hinton and John Jeans. They apprehend no more trouble from typhoid fever.

Cottage Grove Items. [FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.] COTTAGE GROVE, March 1, 1883. Dr. W. O. Sperry, dentist, is in town.

Mr. J. P. Curran went to Eugene last Saturday. Campbell Christians is quite ill at his residence in this city.

We are waiting with great expectancy the advent of a doctor. Mr. Leland Wharton has gone to Eugene to run a butcher shop.

Drs. Wm. Osborne and W. V. Henderson were in the Grove one day this week. E. W. Whipple & Bro. had 10,000 railroad ties to lodge at the boom at Latham, Sunday, from Rouse's mill.

Mr. Ed. Underwood left here Saturday for east of the mountains, his sister Anna accompanying him as far as Eugene. Farmers took advantage of the good weather this week, and have been busy re-sowing and cultivating their land. A good deal of re-sowing will be done here.

We learn that Mr. R. M. Hazleton has lost a horse from a disease resembling "pinkeye." Mr. Hardie Crow, of Siuslaw, has lost two horses by a similar disease. Three boys, from 12 to 13 years of age, started from this place "on their own hook." They got as far as Creswell, when two of them concluded to return. The other wandered on, we know not where. [He arrived here in due course of time, and is stopping at Stewart's livery stable.—Ed.] APEX.

Obituary. Mr. Henry Hays, an aged and highly respected citizen of our county, died at his home in this city on Wednesday, Feb. 28th, at 9 o'clock A. M. Deceased was born in Hardon county, Tennessee, in the year 1810, where his father resided until the year 1818, at which time he moved to Missouri, taking his family with him. In 1833 deceased was married to Miss Mary Head, who survives him, and is now seventy-three years of age. In 1832 deceased moved with his family to Oregon and located their donation land claim in Williams-ette precinct, where they resided for sixteen years, and have continued to reside in Lane county ever since. Deceased was a commissary in the Rogue River Indian war in 1856. He leaves a family of seven children, among whom are Miss Amanda L. and R R Hays, of this place, who have carefully cared for and assisted their parents in their old age. He was a good man, and leaves many friends to mourn his loss. The funeral services took place at the residence of the family at 3 o'clock P. M. Thursday, and Prof. Thos. Condon, of the State University, delivered a brief but very appropriate address, after which the remains were given up to their last sad resting place in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

Officers Elected. The persons signing the roll for the organization of a Knights of Pythias lodge, met at Dr E G Clark's office, Tuesday evening, and elected the following officers: Past Chancellor, E G Clark; Chancellor, J M Sloan; Vice Chancellor, N J Taylor; Prelate, M S Wallis; Master of Exchequer, J R Ream; Master of Finance, H C Humphrey; Keeper of Records and Seals, Geo Swift; Master of Arms, T H Cox; Inside Guard, L D Smith; Outside Guard, V M Farland. We are informed that the lodge will start with 24 charter members.

SKATING CARNIVAL.—The much-talked-of skating carnival took place at Lane's Hall, Friday evening, February 23d. A large number were in attendance, and all were well pleased with the evening's entertainment. The following prizes were awarded: Mr Jos Whitney, silver pitcher; Mr Geo Orr, gold ring; Miss Hattie Johnson, photograph album; Mrs J B Rhinehart, ear-rings.

STATE UNIVERSITY.

A column devoted to the interests of the Laurean and Eutaxian Literary Societies, and the State University. EMMA CORNELIUS, EDITOR.

Brevities. Extra sessions on the day following "Emeralda." Class in astronomy will pass their final examination in that study next week.

Frank G. Abell, leading photographer in the State, will take the pictures of the class of '83. The editor of the "Daily News" proposes to send the societies a free paper. He has the thanks of the societies, and we hope to profit by his kindness.

Mr. Arthur L. Frazer, of the class of '82, visited our city last week; and since he could spare but a few moments to his "Alma Mater," we conclude that he was up on important business.

One of the prominent members of the social club, last Saturday, went to her home in a neighboring village; and (strange coincidence) the club were compelled to forego the company of yet another "prominent member."

"The class in logic (Juiors) is the smartest in school."—G. Hill. One of their smart sayings is: "He who calls you a man speaks truly; he who calls you a fool calls you a man, there fore, he who calls you a fool speaks truly."

Mr. A. C. Woodcock has re-entered school, and intends to complete the course this year. The Seniors heartily welcome him to their class, which now numbers sixteen and professes to be as bright even as the boasted Logicians.

We notice in the reading room (Prof. Bailey's) a number of standard magazines, and both English and German papers. This affords the student an opportunity of putting to a somewhat practical use his knowledge of German acquired during the course.

It is concluded that the class in mechanics are receiving electric shocks, from the strange sounds and shrieks which emanate from Prof. Collier's room. However, we have heard of no accident so serious as that which occurred last year, when one of the young ladies fell to the floor as if she had been in the path of a cannon-ball.

Chapel Exercises. Last week, President Johnson again called the students into the auditorium to address them on subjects of importance; the chief of which was the conduct of some of the young gentlemen on the evening of the fire some two or three weeks ago. It seems that two of the saloons were thrown open, free whisky being offered to all, and some of the students yielded to the temptation. One was expelled and three of four publicly reprimanded.

Dear brothers, you'll take it kindly if we give you a little "preach." Recall to your minds that standard! You've each determined to stand! That highest ideal of manhood Which shall be your reward some day, If you zealously guard your thoughts And actions of to-day.

Oh! never grow thoughtless and weary, But ever be brave and true! You must watch for yourselves— No comrade can watch for you; And dispel the shadows with light. Do this alone with your God If you'd change the wrong to right.

And oh! we appeal to your honor That you shun temptation afar! For if once your honor is injured,— Can you ever remove the scar? Let it never be said of another That he has fallen so low In the scale of moral behavior That he in disgrace must go.

You need not a moment's reflection In order the wherefore to see That we would have you so good— Just "as good as good can be." For you, dear boys, are ours; Our "brothers" as you know, With whom the fates have destined Your "sisters" to come and go.

ETAXIAN. The question for discussion last Friday was: "Resolved, That the study of Greek and Latin should be optional in an institute professing to give a liberal education." The debate was one of the best we have had for some time. It was conducted by the younger members of the society, and showed a great deal of study and careful preparation. It stands the officer members in hand to begin to brighten up or they may be left in the shade by these members.

Yesterday, the Laureans may probably expect soon either to be entertained by the eloquence of the Eutaxians, or not to be.

Editorship Again Changes Hands. On account of his sickness, Mr. M. A. Miller was compelled to resign his office as editor and leave town for some time. We hope he may speedily recover, and should be again elected to the same office that he and will be as much of a success as the beginning.

We now extend the hand of welcome to Mr. Turner Oliver, who has been elected by the Laureans to perform the duties of the above-named office during the remainder of the term.

Normals. The Normals have chosen Miss Alice Parlin salutatorian and Mr. H. H. Hendricks as ratorictorian. We believe they will do honor to the class. The Normals "rais the gunnet" last week, and since we hear it reported that none of them broke down, we conclude that either their self-possession must be immense, or that they did not have so good a test as did some of the Seniors on a like occasion.

A WARNING.—Gently! fellow student, whittle not upon your lady's carpet, lest she "slip" you and you be left to fight life's battle alone!

COUNTY JUDGE APPOINTED. Governor Moody yesterday appointed Mr. J. C. Church County Judge of Lane county for the unexpired term. Mr. Church will make an excellent officer. The Gov. is to be congratulated upon his choice.

Mr. Winfield Hayes is, we are pleased to state recovering from the recent severe fall he had on the railroad; and is now able to be about the streets. Miss Rosa Steinbeiser, formerly of Eugene, was married to Mr A Friedenrich, a Pendleton merchant, in Portland, last Monday. The former announcement was a mistake.

Star Restaurant. Mr. G. G. Gross has re-opened the above named restaurant, and is always ready to serve customers with the best meal served in any similar place in Eugene. He only employs white cooks, therefore doing away with Chinese cooking. Farmers, give him a trial, and we assure you that you will be satisfied.

MONK CATTLE SOLD.—Mr. H. B. Cochran sold to Geo. Fisher for Johnson of Portland, last Monday, four head of cattle for $70.56 per head. Mr. Walker Young sold nine head, weighing 1148 lbs per head, which brought him $68.88 per head. He also sold to the same parties two calves at 7 cents per pound, one nine months old, weighing 357 lbs, which brought the modest sum of $39, and the other 3 months old, weighing 390 lbs, for $25.20. A pretty nice price for young cattle.

LOSE.—A hound belonging to Mr. Henry Owens, of this city, broke his chain and wandered off one day this week. The last heard from the dog was in the neighborhood of Irving. The dog is described as follows: Body black, with red breast and legs; had a collar on when last seen. Any person delivering the dog to Mr Owens will be paid $10; or anyone giving information of his whereabouts will be liberally rewarded.

ATTENTION.—School district clerks are requested to forward to the county superintendent, immediately after the annual election, a full list of officers, with postoffice addresses. DIED.—In Portland, Feb. 27, 1883, Abraham A., youngest son of Meyer and Lena Rosenblatt, aged 2 years and 22 days.
